Use of Photoduplicated Material

All responsibility for the use of the photoduplicates is assumed by the applicant. Photocopying is done by the library under the following conditions: (1) The library will generally make photoduplicates of materials in its collection. Certain restricted material cannot be copied. The library reserves the right to decline to make photocopies requested or to limit the number of copies. (2) Payment in advance is required. Make check or money order payable to the Genealogical Library.

For Genealogical Library use only

Before Requesting Photocopies

Properly identify the item you want from the Genealogical Library Catalog (GLC) or the Batch Number Index. Order the film to the branch genealogical library and personally evaluate it. Locate the entry in the original source and, if a copy is wanted, make a handwritten copy.

If you want a photocopy, use the available photocopying equipment in the branch genealogical library. ONLY if photocopying equipment is not available locally should copies be ordered from the main library. Proper identification of the item to be copied must be provided on the order form.

Instructions for Using This Form

This form is divided into two parts: (1) patron submissions and (2) extraction entries. Do not request both types of photocopies on a single form. If you need items from both sections, use separate forms. Combining requests on one form can delay completion of your order. Please provide all requested information. Incomplete forms will not be processed, but will be returned to the patron for completion.

Copy Restrictions

Sources referenced in the IGI that cannot be photocopied are from the following batches: some that begin with the letter A; those beginning with the letters H, L, M17, M18, T90, and T991; those beginning with numbers between 69400 and 69409; and those beginning with number 696.

Instructions for Copying Patron Submissions

PATRON SUBMISSIONS are included in all-digit batch numbers, such as 7812603, but not those beginning with 0, 694, 696, 725, 745, 754, nor letters of the alphabet. A photocopy will be of an entry form submitted by a patron, including the patron's name and address at the time the information was submitted to the Genealogical Department. That address may not be current. The first two numbers of the batch, such as "78", indicate the batch was submitted in the year 1978. This will help you determine how current an address might be. See explanations with the IGI for further information about batch numbers.

The photoduplication cost is $.25 per exposure when all identification information is provided. Requests for photocopies without specific page numbers cost $2.00 per exposure.

Instructions for Copying Extraction Entries

EXTRACTION ENTRIES are those taken from controlled extraction projects with batch numbers other than seven digits, and which generally begin with either C or M. They are not patron submitted so there is no name or address of a submitter. You will receive a copy of the original source or printout. This often does not contain any more genealogical data than is present in the IGI. The photoduplication cost is $2.00 per exposure.To view the original document you may order the input source microfilm to the branch genealogical library and personally evaluate it.

HUSBAND - Thomas KING-2390

Doc: Microfiche, LDS Library: The B.W.T. Norman Record Collection; Parish Register Transcripts (order # 566963); Royton Parish Register details for the christening of all children listed in his FGR; the burial date for his dau Jane King & chr & bur dates for son John Vipen King (See file for zerox copy of reg.)

LDS christening records have a number of Thomas Kings b. between 1752 & 1765 who could possibly be him.

Death date (approximation) derives from Nelly Hilton letter of that year, in which she does not mention him

RESEARCH QUESTIONS:

1. Doc. b., d & b

IGI has a number of b. rec for Thomas King(s) born in Lancashire or Yorkshire. There are no Kings in the Royton parish records before the birth of his children. Family came to Lancashire after his birth or he came there as an adult. See data in file--needs further search

2. What other rec. him exist--Land/ civil court/ voting/ occ./?

WIFE - Martha TAYLOR-809

Doc: Chr. IGI 1994 ED (MF 472330) This is the same parish church in which she was married to Thomas King. Two Martha Taylors are recorded in the LDS IGI, one c Middleton By Oldham 12 Dec 1759, b. to Thomas Taylor & Mary; the other c. Saint Mary's, Oldham, 8 Apr 1760, to Thomas Taylor & Martha Wild. This latter is much the more likely for several reasons: the christening took place at St. Mary's, where other family events are known to have been solemnized, & analysis of the families of both (from Par Reg) support this as the right family. Needs further confirmation.

Doc:Royton Parish christening records of her children & a letter from Nellie Greenwood Hilton to her daughter & son-in-law Hannah Hilton & John King, Royley Backside, Manchester, England, July 15, 1837, in which she says " Your Grandmother Old Martha King.....is dead". (The letter was written from Haggate Lane---copy in possession of Minn Hist Soc)

Husband Thomas KING-2390

Wife Martha TAYLOR-809

Notes

Doc:Marriage IGI 1994 Ed (confirmed by MF 1656915 British Call Area FHL SLC) Prestwich marriages compiled by James Beckett; pg 105 top left side of page).ng Prestwich is a parish of Oldham. [At that time only births, deaths & burials were allowed to be solemnized in the parish church at Royton; weddings could only be performed at St. Mary's.]

There are numerous Taylors in Royton in the several books & manuscripts in family file. No clues as yet which or whether any are Martha's kin.

Further research in Royton, Nov. 1990, by RKF, uncovered burial record, which also gave her age at death.

CHILD 1 - James KING-806

Doc:Birthdate: IGI file--microfiche LDS of The B.W.T. Norman Parish Register Transcripts, records of Royton Parish . Occupation listed as Spinner (Batch 014831; Film # 215608; Printout #0820930)

Presumed death date stems from letter from Nellie Greenwood Hilton to John & Hannah King, dated July 16, 1837, when she speaks of him as "well & healthy" Death attributed to him taken from parish register, most likely him but not doc.

All birthdates & names of children are taken from the Royton Parish Register. Birth dates are approximate, based on the specific christening date & the usual custom of christening a few babies every couple of months. In the few instances where a child was christened much later (i.e., years later), there was a note in the register to that effect. The register also includes a list of abbreviations of street names listed by each baby's name, & spells out the full name of the street. All of these streets were in the town of Royton (see map in file), which itself was an area of Oldham. All streets are listed by the name of each child as place of birth. (One, Sarah, only lists Royton). In every ins- stance in the register, the parents are listed as James & Betty King. There are no other Kings by those names in the parish, so these are certainly members of this family. Also, names of children are known from the two letters in King family file from Nellie Hilton to John & Hannah King, 1836 & 37.

May have been illiterate. Both letters extant from Nellie Hilton, his son John's mother-in-law, written to their children in the USA, convey extensive messages John's parents, brother & sisters requested Nellie to pass along to John & Hannah.

RESEARCH QUESTIONS:

1. How document deaths & births him, wife Betty & their children

2. Find record of marriage

(NOTE: We have the cat.# of Royton Parish B & D all rel. dates-- available at LDS Library here if not at NEHGS)

CHILD 2 - Henry KING-2391

Same source as parents

CHILD 3 - Jane KING-2392

One of twins.(Betty). Parish records show christening & burial on same day

CHILD 4 - Betty KING-2393

One of twins (Jane) Source same as parents. Nelly Hilton speaks of her in letters to her daughter Hannah Hilton King & son-in-law John King (Betty's brother). In May, 1836, she writes," John King's father and mother and brother and sisters appear to be all healthy and following their work. Your sister, Betty, has been lately married".

CHILD 5 - John Vipen KING-2432

Doc: IGI Printouts parish reg St. Mary, Oldham chr. 1750-1825, pg 1124 (MF 0472330, item 1-5) (Middle name clearly VIPEN, same as William V. King) Parents rec: Thomas King & Martha; Princ Res:Royton; F occup: Clogger

Doc: Bur:IGI microfiche #215608--Norman Collection. Royton Parish Church Burial Register. Listed as "son of Thomas King,under 1 yr., Middleton." NOTE: His last name is clearly printed as VIPER, but chr. rec proves it was VIPEN, the same as William Vipen King's middle name. Also, Middleton could be a clue re where to find Kings before they appeared in Royton. Needs further research.

Source of name: HISTORY OF WALWORTH COUNTY, pg. 830 . Source of birthdate: IGI records, LDS, microfiche: The B.W.T. Norman Parish Register Transcripts, order no. 566963 (also source of parents' names). Called Betty on christening record, Betsy in later records.

Burial record for a Betty Brierly of Royton found in St. Paul's Parish records for 3 Dec. 1844, which is a good match for supposed date of death. However, age was listed as 73 years, 8 months, which places birth in 1771 and does not fit with supposed christening record for this Betty Brierly, or with later records of her age. Needs further research.

CHILD 2 - Henry BRIERLY-2424
IGI film of Royton Parish Records states he was "under 2" at time of death.

All birthdates & names of children are taken from the Royton Parish Register. Birth dates are approximate, based on the specific christening date & the usual custom of christening a few babies every couple of months. In the few instances where a child was christened much later (i.e., years later), there was a note in the register to that effect. The register also includes a list of abbreviations of street names listed by each baby's name, & spells out the full name of the street. All of these streets were in the town of Royton (see map in file), which itself was an area of Oldham. All streets are listed by the name of each child as place of birth. (One, Sarah, only lists Royton). In every ins- stance in the register, the parents are listed as James & Betty King. There are no other Kings by those names in the parish, so these are certainly members of this family. Also, names of children are known from the two letters in King family file from Nellie Hilton to John & Hannah King, 1836 & 37.

May have been illiterate. Both letters extant from Nellie Hilton, his son John's mother-in-law, written to their children in the USA, convey extensive messages John's parents, brother & sisters requested Nellie to pass along to John & Hannah.

and wishes to inform you that she has not forgot your friends and though she is absent in body she is present in mind. She had a very hard struggle betwixt life and death but at length recovered."

Estimated birth date based on premise she was born before her family joined Royton Parish. Death date derives from above mentioned letter her mother wrote to Hannah & John in 1837.

Royton Parish christening register lists a baby named James King, christened 28 May 1815, to a Lucy King, unmarried, occupation Weaver, father John Standren. It is quite likely this is that Lucy, as there are no other possible families appearing in the register & all the King babies from this date & earlier appear there in the christening records

CHILD 2 - John KING-54

Doc: Birth & christening records Royton Parish Church, Royton, Lancashire, England; death records Walworth Co. Index, Vol.3, p 145; biographical sketches in HISTORY OF WALWORTH CO. (pp.830-831) & LAGRANGE PIONEERS, pub. 1935 [see file.]; KING-PORTER FAMILY LETTERS; JOURNALS OF ANTOINETTE PORTER KING

He was born on Haygate Lane in Royley, a sub-section of the town of Royton in Lancashire, England. His parents were James King and Betsy Brierley. Both of his parents were cotton mill workers, as were several generations on both sides of their families.

The family name King very likely derived from a nickname dating back to the medieval festivals, and the custom of choosing kings and queens, dukes, popes and bishops, et al. Being elevated in the eyes of one's fellow was a point of pride, so those titles came to be carried on from generation to generation.

Thomas Taylor & Martha Wild were John's great-grandparents, the earliest of his ancestors we have as yet traced. Both were born about 1725-1730. Thomas was a weaver, and he & Martha lived in Watersheading (presumably a village near Oldham). All nine of their children were baptized at St. Mary's Church in Oldham. Martha Taylor, their sixth child, was baptized on 8 April 1760.

Thomas King, John's paternal grandfather, was probably born in Lancashire or Yorkshire between 1752 & 1765. He was apparently the first King in the Royton area, for that name does not appear in local records until his marriage in 1780 to Martha Taylor. Thomas was a cotton spinner who worked in the Royton mills. Thomas & Martha had five known children, of whom James was the oldest.

John King's mother, Betsey Brierly, was the daughter of Robert and Ann Brierly. There had been families with the Brierly name in the Oldham area as early as the 16th century, and the name is common even today. James & Ann had at least six children, of whom Betsey was the fourth.

John no doubt grew up working in the Royton mills, and had very limited if any education, although he could read & write. At some point in young adulthood he went to nearby Oldham to be apprenticed as a Spinner. He then practiced his trade in the local mills until 1834, when he was 28.

Marriage: John, in his several biographical sketches, said he & Hannah were married in 1829. The Royton Parish Records indicate that they were married some time later, after the christening of their first born child, son John, in 1830. [The baby is recorded as illegitimate.] They were married before their second son,William, was born in 1831. Another child, Lucy Hannah, was born in 1833. Baby John died in infancy & was buried in Royton.

In the spring of 1834 John & Hannah, with their two surviving children, emigrated to America. The voyage was arduous. They traveled first by open coach from Royton to Manchester, then to Liverpool on a new railroad, standing the entire hour & a half journey in an open car. [The train was a new innovation, only opened in 1830. The original car is now in the National Railway Museum in York, visited by RKF in 1990. We also visited the original Manchester RR station, now incorporated in the Manchester Museum of Industry] From Liverpool they embarked on a seven week ocean trip in the George Washington, a sailing ship. They arrived in New York on April 1.

They quickly settled in Rome, New York, where John was employed as a cotton spinner in mills in Rome, New Hartford,& New York Mills for the next seven years. Three more children were born there: James, Ellen & Eliza. James died there before his second bithday.

In July, 1841, John & Hannah migrated to Wisconsin Territory, traveling by land and water [almost certainly the Erie Canal]. Once there, John purchased a farm of 185 acres, where he farmed the remainder of his long life.

A publication entitled LAGRANGE PIONEERS, subtitle "Lest We Forget", published 1935 by LaGrange Ladies Aid Society has the following biographical sketch of John King, pp 133-135: " John King made settlement in Sec. 13, LaGrange, in 1841. The country was still in its primitive wildness-beautifully studded with its crystal lakes of clear blue water-with the Red Man roving the densely wooded forests in search of the wild game that then abounded in all parts of the state.

" Privations were encountered by the early settlers, in those far away days, that were many and severe. Modern conveniences, such as the railways, were then unknown, and the old ox cart furnished the only mode of transportation. Cabins were rudely hewed from the logs of the forest, and instead of the modern electric stove, the fire-place, with its old-fashioned crane, was for both cooking the frugal meals and warming the family during the severe winters. Undaunted by the hardships, Mr. and Mrs. King never became disheartened but with the courage of the men and women that builded [sic] the West, forged forward until that which had been pictured in the dreams of the early settlers who knew how to work and build, was accomplished.......

"During the long space of years that Mr. King lived in LaGrange, he was honored with many positions of trust and in each instance he served honestly and well. [He was one of the early road commissioners of LaGrange; served as an Assessor for three years; Side Supervisor four years; and among the first trustees of the Round Prairie Burying Ground Association when it was formed in April 1863.]

"While Mr. and Mrs. King and son George always remained residents of LaGrange, during the sixties the family was cast in twain. William, Robert and Albert, together with two sisters, Eliza and Ellen, emigrating to Minnesota, settled in Jackson Co., the township being named in honor of the little settlement-- Wisconsin.

" Incidents of the early history of the Kings might be recounted in great numbers; probably the one that is outstanding is the fact that Wm. King, the eldest son, owned the first kerosene lamp ever lighted in the township.

"The ravages of time and space have worked their wonders as the years have passed and the name, King, has been erased from the doors of that once popular pioneer home; only memories remain. Grandparents and parents are sleeping the sleep that knows no awakening. Only three direct descendents of the family remain in the LaGrange vicinity: Mesdames Robert J. Harris and George Keith now of Whitewater, daughters of Robert H King; and Mrs. Minnie Day,Janesville, daughter of Albert D. King." [Ed. note: Remember this was written in 1935]

Two photographs of the original King house are in the King file--one taken ca 1880; the other taken May 1990 by JGF.

Family ties obviously remained close through the years of separation. Antoin- ette often refers to packages and gifts sent to them by the senior Kings, in- cluding apples, both green & dried, canned oysters and clothing. There is also evidence of loans of money. Family members made fairly frequent trips back to Wisconsin, either the men on various kinds of business, or, surprisingly of- ten, the women and children on visits. These trips, as well as frequent journal reference to letters received or sent by family members, demonstrate the close family bonds. [King-Porter Family Letters; Journals of Antoinette Porter King]

John & Hannah King made at least two trips to Jackson. The first,in June 1871 was an event of great magnitude. ALPK details both her preparations and the actual visit in her journal. [Vol One, PP 48-49] They traveled to Jackson with four friends from Walworth Co., the Kenyons and the Heaths[parents of Effa (Kenyon) & Charley Heath.] Antoinette's journal references make clear that these were all friends of long standing. The visitors arrived in Jackson on May 25 and stayed until June 19th. When they left, Antoinette wrote in her journal "Our folks & Kenyons started home this morning. I wish they could stay longer. I don't know when we shall see them again. They are growing old. They will probably never undertake such a journey again." [Ed. Note: In actual fact, John at that time was 64 and lived another 29 years; Hannah was 63 & lived another 15 years!]

John & Hannah returned at least once more for a visit to Jackson, chronicled in THE JACKSON REPUBLIC, May 1, 1886, as follows, "County Auditor King and Mrs.M.S. Barney are in extraordinary good spirit over a visit from their father and mother, Mr.& Mrs.John King, from Walworth County, Wisconsin. They will stay a couple weeks. Mr. King is on the octegonarian(sic) home-stretch but our little chat with him revealed a mind as fresh as that of many men of forty." [Both John and Hannah were then approaching their 80th birthdays.] Hannah actually died later that year, but we know John made at least one more trip to Jackson because he appears in a family photograph taken in Willie Porter King's Jackson studio in 1896 when he(John) was 90.

On 13 April 1891, he signed his will and appointed his sons Robert & George H. to be his executors. [Both of them were then living in Walworth County.] He divided his estate equally among his six surviving children (William, Ellen, Eliza, Robert, George & Albert), subtracting from each inheritance the exact amount of money he had previously advanced them. The total amount of his estate was $9570.76. His will was filed in Probate Court on Oct. 10, 1899 and the estate was settled on June 7, 1900. [See file for all documents]

The archives of the WHITEWATER REGISTER, Wisconsin give details of his death.. ibid.."9/28/1899: Grandpa King is very sick with little hope of recovery".... ibid,10/5/1899:"John King died Sunday morning, age nearly 93 years. Funeral services at the house Wednesday, 8AM, Rev. C.G.Lockridge of Elkhorn officiating."

Death & Burial: Walworth Co. Death Reg. Vol 7 #226. "John King, Farmer, Widower 92 yr., 9 mo, 23 days. Res. at death: LaGrange, Walworth Co.. Cause: Old age, cystitis (7 days duration). Ever a soldier? NO. Undertaker: J.C. Rud."

John King is buried at Round Prairie Cemetery in a plot with his wife, his son Robert & Robert's wife Minnie (Bratt) King. John King was a founder and long a trustee of the cemetery. [See King-Porter Family Letters, Group Three, for photographs.]

(pp.830-831) & LAGRANGE PIONEERS, pub. 1935 [see file.]; KING-PORTER FAMILY LETTERS; JOURNALS OF ANTOINETTE PORTER KING

He was born on Haygate Lane in Royley, a sub-section of the town of Royton in Lancashire, England. His parents were James King and Betsy Brierley. Both of his parents were cotton mill workers, as were several generations on both sides of their families.

The family name King very likely derived from a nickname dating back to the medieval festivals, and the custom of choosing kings and queens, dukes, popes and bishops, et al. He was apparently the first King in the Royton area, for that name does not appear in local records until his marriage in 1780 to Martha Taylor. Thomas was a cotton spinner who worked in the Royton mills. Thomas & Martha had five known children, of whom James was the oldest.

John King's mother, Betsey Brierly, was the daughter of Robert and Ann Brierly. There had been families with the Brierly name in the Oldham area as early as the 16th century, and the name is common even today. James & Ann had at least six children, of whom Betsey was the fourth.

John no doubt grew up working in the Royton mills, and had very limited if any education, although he could read & write. At some point in young adulthood he went to nearby Oldham to be apprenticed as a Spinner. He then practiced his trade in the local mills until 1834, when he was 28.

Marriage: John, in his several biographical sketches, said he & Hannah were married in 1829. The Royton Parish Records indicate that they were married some time later, after the christening of their first born child, son John, in 1830. [The baby is recorded as illegitimate.] They were married before their second son,William, was born in 1831. Another child, Lucy Hannah, was born in 1833. Baby John died in infancy & was buried in Royton.

In the spring of 1834 John & Hannah, with their two surviving children, emigrated to America. The voyage was arduous. They traveled first by open coach from Royton to Manchester, then to Liverpool on a new railroad, standing the entire hour & a half journey in an open car. [The train was a new innovation, only opened in 1830. The original car is now in the National Railway Museum in York, visited by RKF in 1990. We also visited the original Manchester RR station, now incorporated in the Manchester Museum of Industry] From Liverpool they embarked on a seven week ocean trip in the George Washington, a sailing ship. They arrived in New York on April 1.

They quickly settled in Rome, New York, where John was employed as a cotton spinner in mills in Rome, New Hartford,& New York Mills for the next seven years. Three more children were born there: James, Ellen & Eliza. James died there before his second bithday.

In July, 1841, John & Hannah migrated to Wisconsin Territory, traveling by land and water [almost certainly the Erie Canal]. Once there, John purchased a farm of 185 acres, where he farmed the remainder of his long life.

A publication entitled LAGRANGE PIONEERS, subtitle "Lest We Forget", published 1935 by LaGrange Ladies Aid Society has the following biographical sketch of John King, pp 133-135: " John King made settlement in Sec. 13, LaGrange, in 1841. The country was still in its primitive wildness-beautifully studded with its crystal lakes of clear blue water-with the Red Man roving the densely wooded forests in search of the wild game that then abounded in all parts of the state.

" Privations were encountered by the early settlers, in those far away days, that were many and severe. Modern conveniences, such as the railways, were then unknown, and the old ox cart furnished the only mode of transportation. Cabins were rudely hewed from the logs of the forest, and instead of the modern electric stove, the fire-place, with its old-fashioned crane, was for both cooking the frugal meals and warming the family during the severe winters. Undaunted by the hardships, Mr. and Mrs. King never became disheartened but with the courage of the men and women that builded [sic] the West, forged forward until that which had been pictured in the dreams of the early settlers who knew how to work and build, was accomplished.......

"During the long space of years that Mr. King lived in LaGrange, he was honored with many positions of trust and in each instance he served honestly and well. [He was one of the early road commissioners of LaGrange; served as an Assessor for three years; Side Supervisor four years; and among the first trustees of the Round Prairie Burying Ground Association when it was formed in April 1863.]

"While Mr. and Mrs. King and son George always remained residents of LaGrange, during the sixties the family was cast in twain. William, Robert and Albert, together with two sisters, Eliza and Ellen, emigrating to Minnesota, settled in Jackson Co., the township being named in honor of the little settlement-- Wisconsin.

" Incidents of the early history of the Kings might be recounted in great numbers; probably the one that is outstanding is the fact that Wm. King, the eldest son, owned the first kerosene lamp ever lighted in the township.

"The ravages of time and space have worked their wonders as the years have passed and the name, King, has been erased from the doors of that once popular pioneer home; only memories remain. Grandparents and parents are sleeping the sleep that knows no awakening. Only three direct descendents of the family remain in the LaGrange vicinity: Mesdames Robert J. Harris and George Keith now of Whitewater, daughters of Robert H King; and Mrs. Minnie Day,Janesville, daughter of Albert D. King." [Ed. note: Remember this was written in 1935]

Family ties obviously remained close through the years of separation. These trips, as well as frequent journal reference to letters received or sent by family members, demonstrate the close family bonds. [King-Porter Family Letters; Journals of Antoinette Porter King]

John & Hannah King made at least two trips to Jackson. The first,in June 1871 was an event of great magnitude. ALPK details both her preparations and the actual visit in her journal. The visitors arrived in Jackson on May 25 and stayed until June 19th. When they left, Antoinette wrote in her journal "Our folks & Kenyons started home this morning. I wish they could stay longer. I don't know when we shall see them again. They are growing old. They will probably never undertake such a journey again." [Ed. Hannah's parents were Ellen (Nelly) Greenwood & John Hilton. According to parish records, she was the 7th of twelve children born to them, all christened in Royton Parish, Lancashire, England. She was at least the fourth generation of her family born in Royton. [Indeed, Royton abounded with Hiltons, most of whom descended from hill people who originated in nearby Yorkshire.] Her maternal Greenwood ancestors almost certainly came originally from a valley between Hudddersfield and Slaithwaite, in West Yorkshire, about 15 miles across the Pennines from Royton. All of these families were drawn to Royton by the developing cotton textile industry in Lancashire, and all of them, for generations, are recorded in the parish records as mill workers.

Hannah must have worked in the mills from early childhood, as did her future husband. John and Hannah always, when they spoke of their children, named first a son John, who died before they came to America. The Royton parish christening record for 1830 lists " May 30 John [Ill--the symbol for an illegitimate birth] of Hanh Fitton by John King, Royley". This is almost undoubtedly the son John always named by Hannah and John as their first born who died before they journeyed to America. [Out of wedlock births were extremely common in that time.] Their marriage occurred some time after the birth of this baby and before William, their second son, was born in September 1831. He was duly recorded in the parish register as their legitimate son.

Hannah, her husband, son Willliam, age 3, and infant daughter Lucy set out in the spring of 1834 for America. The trip from Royton to Manchester was no doubt by coach, probably on the outside seats, as they would not have been able to afford inside passage. ocean voyage of seven weeks in a sailing ship, the George Washington.

They settled in Rome, New York, where John was employed as a cotton spinner. During the next seven years Hannah gave birth to three more children--- James, Ellen, and Eliza. No official records have been found to date to confirm these births, but other sources have validated the births there of Ellen & Eliza. About James, we only know that he was born & died in early childhoood. Three factors underscore the liklihood that James was born and died in New York: 1) The gap in birth years of his siblings; 2) his father's official records in which he seems to have named his children in birth order; 3) no grave has ever been identified for him in Wisconsin. We know something of his age at death from a family letter Antoinette wrote to William in which Hannah, reflecting on the death of a great-grandson at age two, is quoted. The letter reads, "The more I think of it I believe Gale had scarlet fever. Your Mother [Hannah] feels so bad about him. She says he was about the age of her little James & it brings it all back to her." [K-P Letters, Group Four, pg. 42]

Much information about her family of origin comes from two existing letters written to Hannah by her mother, Nelly Greenwood Hilton, during the years they lived in New York. The envelope to one of the letters survives, which is addressed simply to "John King, Cotton Spinner, Rome, Oneida County, N.Y.S., America. [K-P Letters, Group Three, pp 2-4]

In July, 1841, the King family migrated to a new home in Wisconsin Territory, where they bought farm land on which they lived and farmed for the remainder of their long lives. Their last three children, sons Robert, George and Albert were born here.

The King-Porter Family Letters contain four of Hannah's letters, written to her children and grandchildren. Hannah's letters present a marked contrast with those ostensibly written by her mother. Hannah's letters are poorly spelled and grammatically limited, about what one would expect of a woman of her life experience. But they are loving and maternal, filled with concern and advice for health and housekeeping problems.

Death: Entry in ALPK journal vol 2, dated Wed Nov 10, 1886 (pg. 86):"A letter from Leonora [Ellen Porter's daughter, living in Wisconsin] saying Grandma King had fallen down cellar & broken both wrists & cut a bad place in her head & bruising her terribly." The next entry, dated Tues. Nov 16,"A telegram Mother King died this morning 8 oclock. What sad news. A good mother has left us..A terrible storm is raging & we fear the trains will be blockaded...Wm got ready to go home but could not go. Hope Eliza will be there. She expected to stop & make them a visit on her return from Penn.
She did not get there until after her Mother's burial. Poor Father King will be so lonely and he is so old, nearly 80 years. "

Burial: Walworth Co. Death Reg. Vol 3 #110799. Age: 79 yr, 11 mo. Cause: Erisipelas. Occupation: Housekeeper. Father: John Hilton. Mother: Nelly Hilton. Place of birth: Lancashire, England

She is buried next to her husband in the peaceful hilltop cemetery where one can view for miles around the farms and community that together they helped create.

Two letters sent from Royton by her sister Ellen Hilton three years after Hannnah's death document the continued correspondence between Hannah's family in England & in America. It is also interesting to note that Ellen's letters were both written by a surrogate, which makes their mother's handwriting all the more mysterious. Birth/Christening: Royton Parish Register Christenings: May 30, 1830 John (Ill--egitimate) of Hanh Fitton by John King, Royley, W, TWIN. This baby ~~almost certainly~~ was born to John & Hannah in the months before their marriage. ~~He is the only possible child listed in the extensive & thorough parish records who could be their son; and all other family data & lore serve to certify this rationale. For exapmle:~~ The biographical sketch of the King family in LAGRANGE PIONEER states he (John) "died in childhood and gives his name first in order of children born (in which case he would have been born & died in England before the John & Hannah left there with their two surviving children in 1834. Also, no records or tombstone have been found Walworth Co., and there is no reference to him in any of ALPK's letters or journals.

May have been named for his mother's brother, William Hilton. There were many Williams in the Hilton family. (See Hilton file).

There has been some controversy about his middle name. The Civil War pension documents in the file, including an anecdotal account in the deposition given by his sister, Eliza King Barney, attest to the fact that he was given this name at birth, hated it so much that he stopped using it . When he enlisted in the army he signed many legal documents as just William King. After the war, when newly arrived in Jackson he was confused with another person with the same name and lost some freight as a result, he decided to renew use of his middle name. Thirty years after the war, when he applied for a pension, he had to prove to the U.S.Gov't. that he was the William King who had served. The name is of special interest because it was the middle name given to an infant son of his great-grandparents, Thomas & Martha Taylor King, who was chr. in St Mary's church in Oldham in 1769, & that may be a clue to earlier Kings & Taylors.

He was born in Royton, a small industrial town in South Lancashire, England. Like many other towns of similar size in this part of the country, Royton was "molded" in the cotton-age. At the time William was born, there were about a dozen cotton mills in Royton, and all of his family, men and women alike, worked in them.

On April 1, 1834 his family arrived in New York harbor, after a 7 week journey on the GEORGE WASHINGTON, when William was 2&1/2 & his sister Lucy was an infant. Upon their arrival the family located near Utica, NY. There, until he was ten years old William attended school & worked for a short time in a factory. In 1841 his family migrated to Walworth Co., Wis., and that was his home until his thirtieth year. During these years he was engaged in farm work and teaching school. (According to ALPK journal, he taught school in the winter months of 1855-56 and farmed in summer.)

Marriage: His marriage to Antoinette is documented by her account in her journal (Vol. I, p. 23) "Fri 27th Mar 1868 Twelve years ago tonight, away in Wisconsin, in the old log-house, William & I were married & here we are tonight, away out in Minnesota." (See account ALPK journal, p. 23)

He & Antoinette were living in the same house with his parents, the John King family, according to the 1860 US Census for Walworth Co.,probably while farming the adjacent land he owned,(the E half of SW qtr. of Sec. 12, Twp 4 N, Range 16 E, containing 80 acres---see file for complete transcript).

In 1861, when he was 29,he moved his family (Antoinette,then 24, Willie,4; & Nellie,2) to Crawford Co. where he farmed ~~at first~~. That same year,on the outbreak of the civil war, he took a part-time position with the government as an enrolling officer. Family letters of that time as well as his official enlistment papers give the address as Eastman, a town no longer shown on the Wisconsin map.

His papers state that he had brown hair, hazel eyes, fair complexion, was 5 feet 7 inches tall. Bounty paid $33.33 (Statement: Recruit entitled to Bounty). Where credited: 3rd Dist. Hickory Grove, Grant Co., Wis.. Ill & absent from muster: Nov/Dec sick at Nashville, Tenn. since Nov. 29; Jan/Feb sick in Gen'l.Hosp. Keokuk, Iowa; present Mar/Apr/May 1865. Mustered out Nashville, Tenn., June 24, 1865. Remarks: Due US $6.00 for gun & accout- rements. Returned G.O. 101. File also contains envelope with Hospital card (zerox copy in file); summons to a court-martial as a witness for the prosecu- tion against John Kyser, Pvt. Co. C 43rd Wis. Infantry; volunteer enlistment form; & extensive records (copied by RKF/JGF in 1989--see file) detailing his 30 year later application for a pension; the depositions made on his behalf at that time by his wife, his sister Eliza, & her husband Mitchell Barney, ; a copy of his enlistment certificate; details of the injuries he sustained in the war & the history of his middle name, Vipen. There is also a transcript & photocopies of an extensive exchange of letters between him & Antoinette while he was hosp- italized. He was hospitalized for a good part of his service, the first time in Milwaukee at Camp Washburn, shortly after enlisting, apparently with dysentery. A month later he rejoined his regiment at Louisville, Ky., & went from there to Johnsonville, Tenn.

The book WISCONSIN IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION; A HISTORY OF ALL REGIMENTS AND BATTERIES (see file) discusses the formation & duties of the 43rd Reg., which mustered in its 1st Co. 8 Aug & its last 8 Oct, 1864, then left Wisconsin & proceeded to Nashville, then by rail to Johnsonville, the terminus of the government railroad which had been built to convey supplies from Nashville to the Tennessee River. The function assigned to the 43rd was guard & garrison duty, details being sent daily to guard railroad trains to Nashville. The account describes a rebel attack beginning Nov. 4th, with massive fire from a 6 gun battery, coupled with a decision by the officers of the 43rd to destroy "property worth several millions of dollars" to keep it from falling into enemy hands. The account goes on "The burning of so many boats and buildings was a conflagration indescribably grand, which, added to the explosion of ammunition upon the boats and in the depot, and the roar of artillery from the combatants, between whom a battle was raging, produced a terrific scene. On the morning of the 5th, the fighting was renewed, but the rebels soon withdrew. During the engagement, the Forty-third lay in the trenches, protected by earth-works from the enemy's shot, being unable to aid in the battle because it was wholly an artillery fight. They lost one man killed, and one wounded." Against that background, it is interesting to read this passage from William's deposition, " Chalmers, Bufford & Forrest attacked us and we were under fire more or less for five days and during that time I was rendered unconscious by a shell burst- ing in front of me...". {The shell shock apparently caused him a considerable degree of deafness, which was one of the bases for his request 30 years later for a pension. See file for entire deposition }

Later that same month he was stricken with malaria & quite likely scurvy & spent most of his remaining time in service in military hospitals,first in Jefferson- ville, Ind. He was transferred from there to the Seventh St. Hospital in Keokuk, Iowa. (Again, his letters to his wife are filled with details of his move & stay there). He seems to had had dyspepsia, & quite likely suffered from scurvy. His detailed description of the daily diet provided by the hospital (see letters) does not even match the following criteria, excerpted from page 52 of SCURVY and CHRONIC DIARRHEA in CIVIL WAR TROOPS: WERE THEY BOTH NUTRITIONAL DEFICIENCY SYNDROMES?, pub. 1992 by the Journal of the History of Medicine & Allied Sciences, Inc. [See file]: " The basic army ration was changed by act of Congress on 3 August 1861; the regulations in force during the war stipulated the following diet for the Federal forces: A ration is the established daily allowance of food for one person. For the United States Army it is composed as follows: Twelve ounces of pork or bacon, or one pound and four ounces of salt or fresh beef; one pound and six ounces of soft bread or flour, or one pound of hard bread, or one pound and four ounces of corn-meal; and to every one hundred rations, fifteen pounds of beans or peas, and ten pounds of rice or hominy; ten pounds of green coffee or eight pounds of roasted (or roasted and ground) coffee, or one pound eight ounces of tea; fifteen pounds of sugar; four quarts of vinegar; one pound and four ounces of adamantine or star candies; four pounds of soap; three pounds and twelve ounces of salt; four ounces of pepper; thirty pounds of potatoes, when practicable, and one quart of molasses.........."

Although often ill, while hospitalized he occupied himself with taking classes at the adjacent college in accounting & double entry bookkeeping, acquiring skills he no doubt used later in life as Jackson's County Auditor. He also read law & even frequently attended post mortems held in the nearby dissecting room of the medical school in which the hospital was located. In February 1865, at his own request and in spite of Antoinette's protestations (See letters), he returned to duty with his regiment and although frequently ill with malaria & other afflictions, remained on active duty until he was discharged at Nashville, Tenn., in July 1865. In letters he wrote to Antoinette he first raised the subject with her of moving to Minnesota.

He returned to Adams, Wisconsin, to his parents' home, where Antoinette & the children had been living nearby with her father Selah Porter while he was away. He moved his family again, to Austin, Minn., in the fall of 1865, where he apparently worked for & they lived with a farmer named Cook.(See file).

In May of 1866 he located a homestead in Jackson Co. Family records note that he, M.S. Barney & C.H. Heath "laid up" the logs needed to build their homes during the summer of 1866 (according to ALPK journal, between June 1 & July 10).

The family actually arrived to stay on Oct. 12, 1866. Son Willie Porter King, in a recollective article written for the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT in 1943, wrote the following account.."On the 12th day of October, 1866, I with my father's family landed on the southwest quarter of section 28 in what is now Wisconsin Township [Ed.-so named for these early settlers], along with C.H.Heath and family, and a few days later we were joined by M.S.Barney and family and L.E.Porter and family."

"At that date there were only two finished houses in the township and both were built of logs, one was on section 30 now owned by Orin Belknap; the other was on the southwest quarter of section 22, now owned by Frank Benda, then owned by Ed. Hinkley, who with C.B.Tuttle had just moved into their new log house and had settled in for a hard winter.......John Utter, who arrived at the same time and started to build a sod house on northwest quarter of section 21. ....these seven families consisting of thirty persons totaled the inhabitants of Wisconsin township for that winter of 1866-1867, who settled down to fight an extra cold winter with no groves or protection from the severe and cold winds on that bleak and barren prairie. And in those days the wind did blow as there were no trees or wind breaks of any kind to hold back the drifting snow and the cold seemed worse than ever as we had no heaters then and had to depend on kitchen cook stoves and green wood for fuel to produce all the heat we were able to get. One of our number built a sod house and we all laughed at him for his lowly home that did not seem to compare in grandeur to what we thought our log mansions."

"We were the only ones in our little colony that had an ox team and as the only feed we could get in those days was what Major Bailey called hay was a heavy slough grass six feet long and resembled sugar cane more than it did hay. Our oxen did well on it while the horses starved to death and as a result our oxen had to do the team work for our little community, even making trips as far as Mankato for flour and such things we had to have. This trip did not happen very often as flour was fourteen dollars a sack. No vegetables of any kind were to be seen on our tables, not a potato, nor meat, milk, butter of any kind. Each meal consisted of bread, flour gravy and barley coffee, which we ate with great gusto." [Ed.:In actual fact, his mother's journal of that same period is remarkably upbeat. She never speaks of hunger or shortages. The few times she mentions food is to describe specific meals or foods, no doubt a rare treat, enjoyed that day. Twice these references include Lobscouse, a seaman's stew; once some kind of bird she calls a

In addition to maintaining his farm and increasing responsibilities as a legal counsel for the town of Jackson, he taught school in the newly formed Dist. 9, Wisconsin Twp., when it was first formed in January of 1868. [ALPK journal that date]

They lived in the log cabin they built in Wisconsin Twp. until November 1872, when he was elected to the office of Jackson County Auditor in the fall of 1872 They moved into town to assume the duties of the office. At that time they moved into a new home which William & Willie had built. (See ALPK journal). With the exception of two years he spent farming 80 acres of land he owned in Hunter Township (Sect. 24) in partnership with his son Willie.[Research ?--Did he lose the election that term ?], he always lived in the town of Jackson from 1872 until his death. He held county office 31 of the 46 years he lived in Jackson Co.; he was Judge of Probate 6 yrs,1867-1873; appointed County Supt of schoolsin 1868,& held that post 2 years; elected County Attorney in 1874, served one term, 2 years; he was County Auditor for 21 years, by far the longest tenure in that office of any person to this date. He held that office in 1868, from 1874-1878 & from 1880-1897. During these years he & Antoinette built several more homes, documented in her journals.

He was appointed Master of the newly formed Jackson Grange in November 1872.He was a charter member of the Masonic order & a member of the Grand Army of the Republic. ALPK's journal has frequent references to the organizational meetings which led to the formation of these & other civic institutions.

The 1st May 1895 Minnesota census, pg 8, Family 74, records: King, William V, 63, b England, res in state 29 yrs 2 mo, res in enum dist 20 yrs 3 mo, occup County Auditor; Antonette (sic)L, 59, b New York; John L, 24, b Minn, Clerk in County Auditor's office; Mary G, 8, b Minn. The next door neighbors are: Chittenden, FA, 67, b Conn, Carpenter [he was at that time building a new home for William & Antoinette]; Clamdatt(sic),66, b Conn; & Lenora,42, b Conn.

Second marriage: Jackson Co. Register Book D, page 204: "Wm. V. King to Leonora E. Chittenden at Fairmont by Wm. C. McCraken, Rector St. Martin's Church (Prot. Ep.) Witnesses Frank A. Day & Mrs. Wm. Hay." Nora Chittenden & her parents had long been neighbors and friends of William & Antoinette. Mr. Chitenden was a carpenter who built at least one home for the Kings, and all the Chittendens are frequently mentioned in Antoinette's journals. Nora was nearly the age of the older King children and had been in school with Willie. There were no children of this marriage (See file for Probate record her will)

After their marriage, William & "Nora" moved into a new home built for them.
At the time it was built it would have have been on the far outskirts of Jackson and is referred to in some accounts as his "country estate". A newspaper story of that time refers to him as living in his new home "...surrounded by his family, friends, his flocks and his herds." [The house, recently modernized, is still standing in Jackson--see photos in file.]

CHILD 3 - Lucy Hannah KING-56

Doc: ALPK holographic genealogy; KING-PORTER FAMILY LETTERS; JOURNALS OF ANTOINETTE PORTER KING

She was the third child born to John King and Hannnah Hilton, in Royley, a sub-section of Royton, Lancashire, England. Her parents were both cotton mill workers. She was named for her father's sister Lucy King, and Hannah for her own mother.

In 1835, when she was about eighteen months old, her parents emigrated to America with Lucy and her older brother, William. The family arrived in New York on the ship GEORGE WASHINGTON on April 1. They settled in Rome, NY, where her father worked as a cotton spinner in nearby cotton mills. There they lived until the spring of 1841, when they migrated west to the newly opened Wisconsin Territory. Her father bought farm land in Adams, LaGrange Township, Walworth County.

She was frequently mentioned in the journals kept by her sister-in-law, Antoinete Porter King; and in the King family letters. Three of her letters are in the collection. [K-P Letters, Group Six]

She was a school teacher. [Source: 1860 US Census Walworth Co.,La Grange, p.44-45; family 284] Also, a letter from her brother-in-law Lebbeus Porter to her brother William, written from Eastman, Crawford Co., Wis., dated 18 May 1865 states " Lucy is here teaching our school." [Group Seven, pp.36-37].
Her nephew, Willie Porter King, also recorded in some diary notes that in 1863 he "...was in my first year of school with my Fathers sister as teacher..."

Except for the brief interlude of teaching in Crawford County, Lucy always lived in Walworth County. She was a frequent visitor to Jackson. [See newspaper clippings, family accounts)

In 1888, at the age of 55, Lucy wrote to tell Antoinette & William of her pending wedding to Hiram Nourse, a long time family friend, the widower of the daughter of other lifetime King family friends [the Klings]. [K-P Letters, Group Six, Letter #75A, pg.19]

Marriage: M.C. of Walworth Co. Vol 7 p 102 #106821. The ceremony was performed at the Methodist Episcopal Church by Rev. Wm. Bennett. The witnesses were George King (Lucy's brother) & Mr.& Mrs. Baird (her sister Ellen King Porter Baird and Ellen's second husband, James Baird).

After their marriage Lucy and Hiram lived & farmed on his farm in Adams Twp,Walworth Co.,Wisconsin, until her death five years later.

Whitewater Register (MF P44362 Aug 11,1887-July 25, 1889) has two articles which refer to her: May 3, 1888---"Mr.

& Mrs. H.E. Nourse, Mr. & Mrs. Robert King, and Mr. & Mrs. L.W. Coombe Sundayed with Mr. & Mrs. James Baird near Troy Center". And on May 31, 1888----" A gold watch and chain was presented to Mrs. Lucy Nourse last week by her father John King" (could this have been a wedding gift ?).

Death: Walworth Co. Death Reg. Vol 5, p 45. Farmer's wife Cause: Progressive paralysis. George Young, M.D.

Burial: She is buried in Adams Cemetery immediately next to the Porter family, related to her through both the marriage of Lib Porter (buried there) to her sister Ellen; and through the marriage of her brother William to Antoinette Porter, daughter & sister of all the Porters buried there.

Lucy is buried ith her husband, Hiram Nourse. His first wife, Elizabeth Kling, is buried in the same plot. [See photos in file]

CHILD 4 - James KING-63

Doc: Not sure of birth date. According to HISTORY OF WALWORTH COUNTY, "Died in childhood". Volume lists children in apparent order of birth, lists him 4th, after Lucy. No mention of him in any of family records or journals. No evidence of burial in family plot in Round Tree Cemetery, or in local records. Working theory is that he was either the other twin born at the same time as John (#RIN 62), who probably died at birth; or was born & died in New York State before the family maved to Wisconsin.

In 1884, when Nellie King Davies son died at the age of two, Antoinette King wrote in a letter to William that, "Your Mother...says he [Gale, the boy who had just died] was about the age of her little James & it brings it all back to her." This means that James was about two when he died.

Research question:

1. Find proof he was born & died either in England or in New York State before family moved to Wisconsin

CHILD 5 - Ellen Mary (Nell/Nellie) KING-57

Doc: Birth rec.; ALPK holographic genealogy; US Censuses; Family records of great-grandson Elwood Branfort; JOURNALS OF ANTOINETTE PORTER KING; KING-PORTER FAMILY LETTERS

The name Ellen follows a tradition of many generations in the King family of a daughter named Ellen, often called Nell or Nellie. Most immediately, she was named for her maternal grandmother Ellen (Nelly) Greenwood Hilton. In early family letters and Volume One of her mother's journals, was always called "Nell" or "Nellie", and signed herself that way in letters. But in later life, she was referred to as Ellen, and appears as such in censuses & other official documents. Her great-grandson remembers her as "Mary Ellen".

She was born in Rome, Oneida County, New York, the fifth of the nine children born to John and Hannah Hilton King. Her father worked as a cotton spinner in the nearby cotton mills until 1841, when Ellen was three years old. That year her parents migrated with their four surviving children to the newly opened Wisconsin Territory. John King bought farm land in Adams P.O., LaGrange Township, Walworth County. There Ellen lived until her marriage to the boy who had grown up on the neighboring farm.

First Marriage: Walworth Co. Marriage Rec. Vol 2, p 69. Ellen King was married to Lebbeus Porter by Rev.William Jolliffe. [Lebbeus was Antoinette Porter's brother, and Ellen's brother William Vipen King was Antoinette's husband, so they were double brother & sisters in law.] [Historical note: According to the LAGRANGE PIONEER, p.375, "Wm. Jolliffe was the first resident minister of the church at Litle Prairie....coming there in the early 60's, and he was still there and conducted the memorial service for Pres. Lincoln in April 1865."] [See file for details]

Some time after their marriage, Ellen & Lib moved to Batavia Township, Craw- ford County, WI, where they farmed. [Batavia later was renamed Eastman.] Broomcorn seems to have been a major crop. For several years, they farmed with Antoinette & William King. When William King was away in army service, Lib looked after his farm.

Always in poor health with tuberculosis, Lib was frequently ill and unable to work. Yet he & Nell seem from letters to have had a positive outlook and optimism about their future. He was almost called up in a draft at the end of the war, but it seems unlikely he would have been able to serve.[King-Porter Family Letters, Group Seven.]

When the war ended, the two young couples, plus Nellie's sister Eliza & her husband M.S.Barney, two other King brothers, Robert & Albert, all moved together to take up homesteads near Jackson, Minnesota, in October 1866. In December of that year, according to an article in the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT, Ellen, Lib & little Zella were living in Wisconsin Township with M.S. & Eliza (King) Barney & their two children on Sect 32, SE 1/4. Some time that winter the Porter's log home was completed & they moved into their own home. ALPK's journal describes the story of the settler's first months in detail.[Vol.I, pp.3-5]

Life on the prairie above Jackson must have been extremely difficult for Nell & Lib, as they struggled through harsh winters, the death of their beloved second born, little Georgie, and, most of al, as Lib's health continued to worsen. This hardship culminated in early 1870, first with the birth of their third child, Lenora, literally as her father was dying. One can only imagine the horror for Nell of having her desperately sick husband, supported by his brother Irve, leave in the middle of a blizzard, to make a wild, futile six day trip back to Wisconsin, in the vain hope that he could be helped there. That left Nellie alone to cope with the farm, the blizzards, a month old baby and an eight year old child. She did not even have word for 21 days of her husband's death just hours after he arrived at his father's home.

Nell moved back to Wisconsin a few months after Lib's death, and her daughters grew up there in the midst of both their King and Porter families. She still held the title to her land in Wisconsin Twp in 1872 [AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF JACKSON CO MINNESOTA, pg 128] but disposed of it later & never moved back there.

Second Marriage:[Walworth Co. Mar. Rec. Vol.3 p 267] On Feb. 20, 1876, Nell was married to James Baird, a widowed family friend 18 years her senior. [Branfort family records show the marriage was registered in Elkhorn, Walworth Co, Vol 4, pg 63] That record lists the following: Father of the Groom: John Baird. Mother of the Groom: Sarah Baird. Father of the Bride: John King. Mother of the Bride: Hannah King. Witnesses: George King [her brother] and Selma Porter [undoubted- ly her daughter Zella Porter].

The Bairds farmed together for the next 14 years. An article in the WHITEWATER REGISTER May 3, 1888, says " Mr. & Mrs. H.E.Nourse (Lucy King), Mr. & Mrs. Robert King,& Mr. & Mrs. L.W.Coombe (Nell's daughter Lenora) Sundayed with Mr.& Mrs. James Baird near Troy Center." This small note speaks to the close family ties.

A year after James Baird's death, records at the Register of Deeds office in Clay Center, Kansas show land purchased by Ellen Baird, 80 acres (5 1/2 of NE 1/4 35-6-3) in Goshen Twp, purchase date Aug 10, 1900. Her daughter Zella & son-in-law, George Branfort, had moved there some time prior to this date. How- ever, there is no evidence that she ever moved there. [She may have been helping her children by purchasing land for them.] Some time in the summer of 1890, she moved to Jasper, Minn., "to live with her daughter, Mrs. L.W.Coombe." [Letter by W.P.King in the 25th Anniversary Ed. of the JACKSON REPUBLIC]. Her presence in Jasper was also noted by her namesake niece, Nellie King Davies, in a letter to her brother Selah. [King-Porter Family Letters, Group Five] Nellie visited the Branforts in Clay Center at least once, as shown in a four gener- ation photograph taken in about 1913. [See file]

In the May 1895 Minnesota census for Pipestone Co., Village of Jasper, she is recorded as "Bard(sic), Ellen,55,b. NY, period of residence in state & enum. dist. 5 yrs, occupation General Merchandise. She returned to Jackson frequently to visit family there, and was among those attending her father's funeral there in 1914.[See his obituary in file.]

CHILD 6 - Elizabeth Annis (Eliza) KING-59

Doc: Husband's Civil War pension files; ALPK holo. gen.; several censuses; ALPK journal; family letters.

Birth: Date on tombstone 1849. In deposition she gave for brother Wm. V. King's pension application (See file), date 16 Feb 1894, her age was given as 53 years, which would make her birth date 1840 or 1841. Most definitive is ALPK's journal entry of May 27 1880 "...Eliza B. 40 years old today."

US Census 1870 for Wis Twp., Jackson Co., Minn., gave her birthplace as New York

Usually referred to as "Eliza", she often signed her letters and always signed legal documents as "Elizabeth".

First name possibly for her paternal grandmother, Betty Brierly. Middle name, Annes, for her father's sister, Annes, mentioned in letters her grandmother Nelly Hilton wrote to her mother & father, Hannah Hilton & John King. [See King-Porter Family Letter File]

The King-Porter Family letters [Group Six-Extended King Family] contains several letters she wrote to Antoinette, her sister-in-law, three before & two after her own marriage. Her letters are chatty, funny and affectionate. They are also articulate & written in beautiful hand writing. The family letters also include a long, interesting letter she wrote to her brother William when he was in service in the Civil War; one to Viola Porter; and several later letters to her daughters.

According to 1860 US Census Walworth Co., LaGrange, p.44-45; family 284, she was a school teacher before her marriage.

Eliza met her future husband when, in M.S.' own words,"I became acquainted with him (Albert D. King) ..in the fall of 1865..in Walworth Co., Wis.....I had just returned fron the service myself and went up there to visit a nephew of mine and became acquainted with King and his sister who I afterward married. I was living in Waukegan at the time and upon this visit I remained a couple of weeks and then returned home but in a couple of months or so I returned and married my wife and took her to Waukeegan." CHILD 6 - Elizabeth Annis (Eliza) KING-59 (Continued)

Mitch went on to say that he took his new wife to Waukeegan after their marriage, and in her own deposition in Albert's file, Eliza stated that she was in Waukeegan until May,1866, when she & Mitch returned to her father's home to help with the farm work. Pregnant with their first child, she remained in Wis. in May when Mitch went to Minnesota to help the King party search for home- steads. He returned to Wisconsin in July and helped with the harvest. Baby Alice arrived on August 31st, and the new parents, with Juna, Mitch's daughter by his first marriage, joined Antoinette & William King & the others in Jackson on October 16, 1866.

A clipping from the Jackson County Pilot (see file) described a reunion many years later of some of the early pioneer women of Jackson. About Eliza, it says "Mrs. M.S.Barney came in 1866 and commenced keeping house under twelve boards, all that could be procured at the mill in Jackson. These were set up on section 28, Wisconsin township, and served as a residence until a log house was built. [This was with a 6 weeks old baby & a 5 year old step-daughter]. Nette, in her journal, recorded on October 28th "....Mitchell at work on his house."

Eliza and Mitch were active participants in the development of Jackson. They were frequently mentioned in Antoinette's journal,including many details of their daily lives, illnesses, birth of children, etc.

A journal entry on Sun 29 May 1870 read "...Elder Savage organized S.S. [Sunday School] at our S. House [School House]. Eliza Barney chosen Superinten- dent." A newspaper clipping from the JACKSON REPUBLIC issue dated Saturday, August 12, 1876, read "The gentler sex failed to exercise their newly acquired prerogative at the school meeting in this town last Saturday evening, as not one of them put in an appearance. The gentlemen present, however, were disposed to acknowledge not only the propriety of the ladies voting but to hold offices as well, and elected Mrs. M.S. Barney as Director for the ensuing year. The report of the Treasurer showed the district to be in a healthy state financial- ly. A special tax of $220 for teachers' wages and $40 for fuel was voted. It was also voted to have school six months during the coming school year."

She also was frequently reported both in ALPK journals & newspaper clippings to have organized the music for funerals and other special events in Jackson.

She worked in the County Auditor's office as a secretary & book keeper under the supervision of her brother William from 1889 through 1894 & some periods before that.[See her deposition above mentioned.]

She made numerous trips to visit her daughters & their families after their marriages--at least to Pennsylvania, Kansas, & Wisconsin. These trips were recorded in ALPK journal.

Death/Burial: Mitch's deposition stated they were living in Jackson in 1900, but he also stated that Eliza died in LaGrange, WI. He must have been mistaken, as Jackson Death Records (Bk 8 item 4) confirm her death in Jackson, as follows: Elizabeth Barney White Fem Married d May 1 1900 b May 27 1840 age 59 yr 11 mo 26 d occ-Retired b. NY State Mo Anna Hilton Fa John King b England Last res: Jackson Minn Undertaker: J L Dann Cause of death: 1) Tuberculosis bowel 2) Old age Physician: Maitland date reg June 1 1900

Eliza and Mitch are buried in Jackson's Riverside Cemetery under lovely old shade trees. Their plot is directly adjacent to the plot of William & Antoinette King, who were not just their family, but their most trusted friends and companions. Throughout the difficult pioneer years as well as in later years these two couples helped develop Jackson as an attractive, vibrant town. Inscribed on the Barney tombstone are the words "He gives his beloved sleep." They certainly earned it. [See photos in file]

Washington.

He was named Robert Hilton for several Hilton ancestors. He was the first King with that name.

He was the seventh of nine children of John King and Hannah Hilton, the first King child born in Wisconsin Territory. He grew up helping his father on the family farm in LaGrange Township, and he remained a farmer all his life.

War Service: Volunteered at Madison, Wis, Jan. 4, 1864, for 3 years. Served 2 years 3rd Reg. Co. D&I Wis. Vol. (3rd) Barstow's Cavalry. Mustered out Sept. 29, 1865.(Enlistment papers refer to Bounty due $40) Papers also state: Occupation, farmer; Hazel eyes; Brown hair; Fair complexion; 5 ft 5 in tall.

After the war,he returned to his father's farm in LaGrange. In 1866 he moved to Jackson with the other Kings & Porters and was part of all the early days there, frequently mentioned in his sister-in-law Antoinette's journals. In 1868 he returned to his father's farm in Adams for a couple of years. He returned again to Jackson Co. in 1871, where he farmed in Wisconsin Twp. & later in Hunter With his brother Albert he acquired a substantial herd of cattle (see clippings JACKSON REPUBLIC).

He was several times times elected a Supervisor or an Assessor for Wis. Twp.

Marriage: Jackson Co. Marriage Rec. Book A, p 43. " Robert H. King of Nobles Co. to Arminta F. Bratt, at Petersburg by Rev. Edward J. Hamilton. Witnesses: Wm. V. King, M.S. Barney, A.D. King". [Years later, in his deposition for a pension, Robert at one point said he could not remember the name of the minister; later he stated it was Rev. Savage, the minister he had known through most of his youth in Jackson. Town record assumed to be more accurate, also ALPK journal entry below.]

ALPK in her journal set the scene for the wedding with this entry : "Wed (April) 30th ....Robert has just been here & invited Wm & I to go to his wedding which he says will come off tomorrow eve at Albert's. Pretty late in the day to receive invitations but rather guess we will go as weddings are rather rare occasions now days." She must have forgiven them the short notice, as two days later, on Fri, May 2, she made another entry, describing the wedding as follows " Robert & Minnie are married & I wish them lots of happi- ness & good luck. Mr. Hamilton the Presbyterian minister married them. They both looked very nice & they are a nice couple." [Vol. One, pp. 75-76]

Possibly affected, as were so many others, by the grasshopper scourge, in mid-1875 he & brother Albert sold their cattle & farms and prepared to move to Texas. Between 1875 & 1880 he lived in Kaufman Co., Texas--it is not clear what he did there, but probably farming or ranching.

He returned to Jackson Co.on Tuesday, Oct. 5, 1880 [ALPK Journal, Vol Two, pg. 44] "Robert came this afternoon all the way from Texas--has been gone five years--glad to see him." [Although Minnie was not mentioned, she must have been with him.} He settled his family on a farm in Hunter Township, and farmed there until 1888. When they decided to move, once again, Antoinette announced it in her journal, entry dated Fri March 2 "Robert & family start for Wis. tonight . ....Levi & Leo [Leonora Porter Coombe & her husband Levi Coombe] go back with them. It will be so lonesome without them, but I think they will enjoy life better down there." [ibid, pg.92]

The reason for Robert's return to Walworth Co. seems to have been that his brother George bought their aging father's farm & Robert farmed there until 1899. [WHITEWATER REGISTER MF P 44362 Aug 11, 1887-July 25,1889] (Another note in the same issue records: "Mr. Robert King spent the past week with relatives in Millard".)

nineties".

He is recorded in the Wis 1890 Veteran's Census Walworth Co. WI 001 ED 111 LaGrange, so he was living in Wisconsin then.

After his father's death, Robert returned again to the Jackson area,according to his own deposition, from 1899 to 1910.

Minnesota Census for 1905, Jackson Co, Jackson, ED 15, Sheet 17, Nos.69-73: King, Robert, 64, b Wis, Fa b England, Mo b England, res in state 11 yrs, re in enum dist 2 yrs 8 mo; Minnie, 49, b NY,Fa & Mo b NY, res in state 10 yrs, in enum dist 2 yrs 8 mo; Lillian, 25, b Texas,, occupation teacher; George, 19, b Minn, occupation farm laborer; Barney, Nettie, 25, b. Minn, fa b Ill, Mo b NY, occupation Teacher.[Nettie Barney was the daughter of Robert's sister Eliza (King) Barney.]

At some point during these years Minnie began to suffer from depression or melancholia. The frequent trips to & from may have been to bring her closer to her family. Robert's niece,Bessie Chamberlin, wrote in her diary that "Uncle Robert lived on a prairie near Jackson,Minn. Coz Lillian [his daughter] kept house for him." Minnie was finally hospitalized in Wisconsin in 1906 for most of the rest of her life. Some time between 1907 and 1910, Robert moved to Kansas to live with his son George. He helped George with farming & lived there until his death.

His grandson, Robert George King, in a letter dated 8 May 1997, wrote that "My dad bought a farm north of Clay Center in 1907. My dad and Grandpa built a house on this farm in 1917." The original house is still there, lived in by Robert's great-grandson, Greg King.[See file for photos]

The 1910 US Census for Garfield Twp,Clay Co, KS [012, 0009, 0019]shows him, age 68, living with George H., age 24.

In the 1920 US Census, Garfield Twp, Clay Co, KS [Vol 11 ED 9, Sheet 4, Line 41, we find the following household: King, George H., 33, b. Wisconsin; Clara, 27, b. Kansas; Hilton S., 8, b. KS; Helen S., 3 1/2, b. KS; Robert H., 77, b. WI.

Depositions in his pension file [National Archives].attest to his multiple physical problems (several strokes, paralysis on his left side, vertigo, double inguanal hernia, poor vision) & to the need for both George & his wife Clara to provide extensive physical care during his last years of life. He was granted a pension [Cert.# 1,040.315] in 1907, which was gradually increased from $8 per month to $72 monthly just before his death in 1927.

Death/Burial: He was living in Clay Center, Kansas when he died. His body was was brought "home" & he was buried with his wife in his parents' plot at Round Prairie Cemetery outside of Whitewater. [Photo of grave in King file]. Both his daughters Susie & Lily lived in Walworth Co. for a number of years after his death.

CHILD 8 - George Henry KING I-61

Doc: B & D dates on tombstone; also ALPK Holographic genealogy; KING-PORTER FAMILY LETTERS; JOURNALS OF ANTOINETTE PORTER KING

In family records he is designated George Henry King I to avoid confusion with his nephew, the son of Robert Hilton King, who was named for him.

He was born in Adams, LaGrange Township, Walworth County, Wisconsin Territory, the eighth of nine children. He lived there for almost his entire life, farming and caring for his parents. Unlike his brothers, he did not serve in the Civil War. [There has been some confusion about this. A letter sent home by his brother Robert refers to "GHK" serving with him. Extensive research by RKF at the National Archives has confirmed that the person referred to was George H. Kling, son of family friends from Adams.]

He apparently initially planned to migrate to Jackson County with his siblings siblings, and he was living in Austin, Minn., in May 1866, when Antoinette, his sister-in-law, began writing her diary. [Vol. One, pg.1]. He was part of the original King party searching for homesteads, was with them when they located land in Jackson County, and made a claim to SE qtr. Sec. 29, Wisconsin Twp.
It is not clear whether he ever lived there. According to "LaGrange Pioneers", p.134, he .."always remained ..resident of LaGrange".

According to a biographical sketch on Kings in LAGRANGE PIONEER,pp. 134-35, " George H. King and wife were a most happy and companionable couple and fine neighbors. He was a shrewd business man and a good farmer. He loved dogs, hunting and fishing, being one of our first to go North deer-hunting. When the old homestead was sold in 1905, George built a home on his own farm nearby where he and his wife spent their declining years."

Marriage: Doc: ALPK Gen., WHITEWATER REGISTER account; Walworth Co. Index 14, p. 114, #141700. Married in Methodist Episcopal Church by Rev. Samuel Lugg of Palmyra. Witnesses: Frank Coleman & M.F. King. Wife was from Walworth Co.

He had no children. He & his wife seem to have had an especially close relationship with a niece [Leonora Porter Coombes, daughter of Ellen King & Lebbeus Porter] and a nephew [George Henry King, son of Robert Hilton King]. Both of them were mentioned and left bequests in his will. [See his file for copy.]

He was frequently mentioned in articles in WHITEWATER REGISTER: the account of his wedding, other incidental news of him which serves mostly as proof of his lifetime residence in Adams. Two examples: Issue of Thurs Mar 15, 1888--"Spring makes changes in people's affairs as well as in the weather. Geo. H. King has bought his father's farm. Robert, his brother, from Jackson, Minn., moved down a few weeks past & works said farm".(Doc: WHITEWATER REGISTER MF P 44362 Aug 11, 1887-July 25, 1889). Issue of Sept 14, 1899 records " George King has taken down the old Holladay wind-mill and erected a new steel one." [Doc: WHITEWATER REGISTER MF P 45235 Sep 7, 1899-Apr 11, 1901]

The senior Kings, his parents, are buried in a separate plot nearby. The new and uniform tombstones on both plots suggest the possibility that George &/ or his wife Sarah provided new tombstones for his parents' gravesite before his or their deaths.

He was born at Adams P.O., LaGrange Township, Walworth County, Wisconsin Territory, the ninth and last child born to his parents. He grew up there, attending school and helping his father on the farm. He seems to have been in frail health all his life, moreso after his war service, detailed below.

War Service: Pvt. Co C, 3rd Reg., Wis. Cavalry. Enlisted 26 Aug 1864 at Elkhorn, Walworth Co., Wis. Mustered in Aug 31, 1864, Madison, Wis. Volun- teered for 1 year. Age 18 yr. 6 mo. His father had to sign a Consent for Minor form (See file for copy). Description: hazel eyes, brown hair, fair complexion, 5 ft. 6& 1/2 in. tall. Occupation farmer, 18 yr. 6 mo.. Served in Barstow's Cavalry. Mustered out under provision of Circular #83 at St. Louis, Mo., June Remarks: 19, 1865. "Recruit original Co.E Pvt. from enlistment. Stop for 1 watering bridle 92 c, 1 nose bag $1.50. M. O. in compliance with G.O. No. 83 A.G.O. War Dept. dated May 8, 1865". He was discharged at Benton Barracks, St. Louis, MO, 19 June 1865.

According to his pension file, his life long disability started with diarrhea that he began to suffer on a march from Little Rock to Van Buren, Ark., in the fall of 1864. He was taken to a hospital in Van Buren. ALPK in a letter to William [her husband/his brother] dated Oct 31st 1864, wrote ".....Albert is sick with the Ague. He is in the hospital at Van Buren Ark." [K-P Letters, Group Four, pg 7].

In his deposition Albert swore his trouble was caused by exposure and poor rations while on the march from Little Rock to Fort Smith, Ark. He stated that he was a farmer before entering service and after that until 1878 "when I was in a wagon factory. I could not do more than half a man's work...."

A deposition by a fellow soldier from his reg't, Byron Hughes of Minn., attests to how deathly ill Albert was. Mitchell Barney, his brother-in-law, and his sister Eliza King Barney also made depositions for him. {See his file] Mitch stated he first met Albert in Aug 1865 just after leaving service, when Mitch was visiting a nephew in Adams. Mitch in his deposition went on to say that he met Albert again in Oct 1865 at the same place when he (Mitch) returned to marry Eliza. Albert was very ill when he came out of service. "In May 1866 I worked with him on his father's farm during harvest time. He said he was unable to work he was so ill." Mitch and Albert stayed in Wisconsin helping with the harvest until October 1867 when he came to Jackson. They lived about a mile from each other & saw each other 2-3 times a week.He was always sick."We lived neighbors until the summer of 1876." At one point they took a trip to Kansas with a tram. En route Albert became very ill & Mitch took care of him. In his deposition Mitch wrote "In August 1876 we started in Co. for Kansas with teams and while en route he was too [..word..]quite ill and I thought he was agoing to die. I sat with him all night and made him take his medicine."

He migrated to Jackson--Wisconsin Township--with the rest of the Kings & helped settle it. He was frequently mentioned in ALPK journals.

He took out a homestead near his Brother William and farmed in Wisconsin Twp. for several years. Possibly discouraged by the grasshopper plague when crops were repeatedly destroyed, he turned his attention to stock raising in 1875. According to the Jackson REPUBLIC, he and his brother Robert "wintered about 60 head of cattle in Wisconsin Twp." In 1876 another REPUBLIC article states he & Robert sold their cattle & moved to Texas. A third article, later that same year relates the following: "W.V.King has received from his brothers in Texas one of the products of that country, it being no less than a genuine tarantula, a sort of two-story,double-turreted, big, boss, ugly looking spider. If that is the kind of pets Bob and Al are harboring down there we should advise them to come back and take chances with the grasshoppers."

On July 14, 1879, three years after moving to Lawrence, Lona died there. In a heart breaking letter to Antoinette, he described Lona's death and his inability to bury her there, hence his decision to bring her body back "home" to Wisconsin for burial. He then left his 11 year old daughter, Minnie Belle, with family in Wisconsin while he returned to Texas [K-P Letters,Group Six, pp17-18, also see pension materials in file and affadavit from daughter Minnie Belle]

In his pension deposition, he made the following statements regarding his post-war health and occupation: He made his home in Lawrence, TX for about 16 years. For a few months in 1873 he worked in a wagon factory,but was able to do only a half day's work. He was unable to work for 6 months in 1865, sick the whole year of 1878 & 79 at Athens, TX in 1880; at Camden, Ark. in 1881 or '82; at Gilmer, TX in 1883. He was for three years the station agent for the town of Bettie, Upshur County [in the north eastern corner of Texas, near the LA & AK state borders]; nearly all the time he was there he was employed by T.J.Lowe, who was a rail tie & wood contractor. His duties there caused him to travel around the county "considerable." He spent some time in 1886 at Hot Springs, Ark. in 1886, possibly being treated, and was at Law- rence, TX in 1886 & 1887.

Second marriage: An affadavit in his pension file states that Albert & Alice LaRoe were married at Lawrence, Kaufman County, TX, 26 Dec 1883 by Rev. John Kerns. Two children, their daughter Mabel Fern & a son, Beth LaRoe, were born in Lawrence.

Albert further stated that he moved his family to Tecumseh, Pottawatamie County Oklahoma in 1891 and he lived there the remainder of his life. For most of that time he was a deputy sheriff.

Death/Burial: Death certificate establishes that he died at the University Hopital in Oklahoma City. His diagnosis was carcinoma of the rectum complicated by senility. A letter from his granddaughter, Ellece King Murphy, who was present at his death, funeral & burial, confirms that he was buried in the cemetery at the Old Soldier's Home in Britton, Oklahoma. MARRIAGE

His marriage to Antoinette is documented by her account in her journal "Fri 27th Mar 1868 Twelve years ago tonight, away in Wisconsin, in the old log-house, William & I were married & here we are tonight, away out in Minnesota."

HUSBAND - William Vipen KING

BIRTH: He was born in Royton, a small industrial town in South Lancashire, England. Like many other towns of similar size in this part of the country, Royton was "molded" in the cotton-age. At the time William was born, there were about a dozen cotton mills in Royton, and all of his family, men and women alike, worked in them.

He may have been named for his mother's brother, William Hilton. There were many Williams in the Hilton family. There has been some controversy about his middle name. The Civil War pension documents in the file, including an anecdotal account in the deposition given by his sister, Eliza King Barney, attest to the fact that he was given this name at birth, hated it so much that he stopped using it. When he enlisted in the army he signed many legal documents as just William King. After the war, when newly arrived in Jackson he was confused with another person with the same name and lost some freight as a result, he decided to renew use of his middle name. Thirty years after the war, when he applied for a pension, he had to prove to the U.S.Gov't. that he was the William King who had served. The name is of special interest because it was the middle name given to an infant son of his great-grandparents, Thomas & Martha Taylor King, who was christened in St Mary's church in Oldham in 1769, & that may be a clue to earlier Kings & Taylors.

On April 1, 1834 his family arrived in New York harbor, after a 7 week journey on the GEORGE WASHINGTON, when William was 2&1/2 & his sister Lucy was an infant. Upon their arrival the family located near Utica, NY. There, until he was ten years old William attended school & worked for a short time in a factory. In 1841 his family migrated to Walworth Co., Wis., and that was his home until his thirtieth year. During these years he was engaged in farm work and teaching school. (According to Antoinette's journal, he taught school in the winter months of 1855-56 and farmed in summer.)

He & Nette were living in the same house with his parents, the John King family, according to the 1860 US Census for Walworth Co.,probably while farming the adjacent land he owned,(the E half of SW qtr. of Sec. 12, Twp 4 N, Range 16 E, containing 80 acres---see file for complete transcript).

In 1861, when he was 29,he moved his family (Nette,then 24, Willie,4; & Nellie, 2) to Crawford Co. where he farmed at first. That same year,on the outbreak of the civil war, he took a position with the government as an enrolling officer. Family letters of that time as well as his official enlistment papers give the address as Eastman, a town no longer shown on the Wisconsin map.

Folder in National Archives contains 6 muster cards: 1 Co. Muster & Descriptive Roll; 1 Muster & Descriptive Roll of a Detachment of U.S. Vols. forwarded; 3 Co. Muster Rolls; 1 Co. Muster-Out Roll. Enlisted 3 Sept, 1864, at Prairie du Chien, Wis., for 1 year. Mustered in as a Private in the 43rd Wis.Vol.Infantry, Company C. Soon made 1st Sergeant Served 9 months. His papers state that he had brown hair, hazel eyes,fair complexion, was 5 feet 7 inches tall. Bounty paid $33.33 (Statement: Recruit entitled to Bounty). Where credited: 3rd Dist. The book WISCONSIN IN THE WAR OF THE REBELLION; A HISTORY OF ALL REGIMENTS AND BATTERIES (see file) discusses the formation & duties of the 43rd Reg., which mustered in its 1st Co. 8 Aug & its last 8 Oct, 1864, then left Wisconsin & proceeded to Nashville, then by rail to Johnsonville, the terminus of the government railroad which had been built to convey supplies from Nashville to the Tennessee River. The function assigned to the 43rd was guard & garrison duty, details being sent daily to guard railroad trains to Nashville. The account describes a rebel attack beginning Nov. 4th, with massive fire from a 6 gun battery, coupled with a decision by the officers of the 43rd to destroy "property worth several millions of dollars" to keep it from falling into enemy hands. The account goes on "The burning of so many boats and buildings was a conflagration indescribably grand, which, added to the explosion of ammunition upon the boats and in the depot, and the roar of artillery from the combatants, between whom a battle was raging, produced a terrific scene. On the morning of the 5th, the fighting was renewed, but the rebels soon withdrew. During the engagement, the Forty-third lay in the trenches, protected by earth-works from the enemy's shot, being unable to aid in the battle because it was wholly an artillery fight. They lost one man killed, and one wounded." Against that background, it is interesting to read this passage from William's deposition, "Chalmers, Bufford & Forrest attacked us and we were under fire more or less for five days and during that time I was rendered unconscious by a shell bursting in front of me...".

Later that same month he was stricken with malaria & quite likely scurvy & spent most of his remaining time in service in military hospitals,first in Jeffersonville, Ind. He was transferred from there to the Seventh St. Hospital in Keokuk, Iowa. (Again, his letters to his wife are filled with details of his move & stay there). He seems to had had dyspepsia, & quite likely suffered from scurvy. His detailed description of the daily diet provided by the hospital (see letters) does not even match the following criteria, excerpted from page 52 of SCURVY and CHRONIC DIARRHEA in CIVIL WAR TROOPS: WERE THEY BOTH NUTRITIONAL DEFICIENCY SYNDROMES?, pub. 1992 by the Journal of the History of Medicine & Allied Sciences, Inc. he, M.S. Barney & C.H. Heath "laid up" the logs needed to build their homes during the summer of 1866(according to ALPK journal, between June 1 & July 10).

The family actually arrived to stay on Oct. 12, 1866. Son Willie Porter King, in a recollective article written for the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT in 1943, wrote the following account: "On the 12th day of October, 1866, I with my father's family landed on the southwest quarter of section 28 in what is now Wisconsin Township [Ed.-so named for these early settlers], along with C.H.Heath and family, and a few days later we were joined by M.S.Barney and family and L.E.Porter and family."

"At that date there were only two finished houses in the township and both were built of logs, one was on section 30 now owned by Orin Belknap; the other was on the southwest quarter of section 22, now owned by Frank Benda, then owned by Ed. Hinkley, who with C.B.Tuttle had just moved into their new log house and had settled in for a hard winter.......John Utter, who arrived at the same time and started to build a sod house on northwest quarter of section 21.....these seven families consisting of thirty persons totaled the inhabitants of Wisconsin township for that winter of 1866-1867, who settled down to fight an extra cold winter with no groves or protection from the severe and cold winds on that bleak and barren prairie. And in those days the wind did blow as there were no trees or wind breaks of any kind to hold back the drifting snow and the cold seemed worse than ever as we had no heaters then and had to depend on kitchen cook stoves and green wood for fuel to produce all the heat we were able to get. One of our number built a sod house and we all laughed at him for his lowly home that did not seem to compare in grandeur to what we thought our log mansions."

"We were the only ones in our little colony that had an ox team and as the only feed we could get in those days was what Major Bailey called hay was a heavy slough grass six feet long and resembled sugar cane more than it did hay. Our oxen did well on it while the horses starved to death and as a result our oxen had to do the team work for our little community, even making trips as far as Mankato for flour and such things we had to have. This trip did not happen very often as flour was fourteen dollars a sack. No vegetables of any kind were to be seen on our tables, not a potato, nor meat, milk, butter of any kind. Each meal consisted of bread, flour gravy and barley coffee, which we ate with great gusto." [Ed.:In actual fact, his mother's journal of that same period is remarkably upbeat. She never speaks of hunger or shortages. The few times she mentions food is to describe specific meals or foods, no doubt a rare treat, enjoyed that day. Twice these references include Lobscouse, a seaman's stew; once some kind of bird she calls a "turkey"; and once when they made molasses candy.]

In addition to maintaining his farm and increasing responsibilities as a legal counsel for the town of Jackson, he taught school in the newly formed Dist. 9, Wisconsin Twp., when it was first formed in January of 1868. [ALPK journal that date]

CAREER: In the fall of 1872, William was elected to the office of Jackson County Auditor. He & Nette moved into town to assume the duties of the office. At that time they moved into a new home that William & Willie had built. (See ALPK journal). With the exception of two years he spent farming 80 acres of land he owned in Hunter Township (Sect. 24) in partnership with his son Willie, he always lived in the town of Jackson from 1872 until his death. He held county office 31 of the 46 years he lived in Jackson Co.; he was Judge of Probate 6 yrs,1867-1873; appointed County Supt of schoolsin 1868,& held that post 2 years; elected County Attorney in 1874, served one term, 2 years; he was County Auditor for 21 years, by far the longest tenure in that office of any person to this date. He held that office in 1868, from 1874-1878 & from 1880-1897. During these years he & Nette built several more homes,documented in her journals.

Nette died in 1896. Several years larer William married Leonora Chittenden, the much younger daughter of good friends and neighbors. Mr. Chittenden was a carpenter who built several homes for the Kings. After their marriage, William & "Nora" moved into a new home built for them. At the time it was built it would have have been on the far outskirts of Jackson and is referred to in some accounts as his "country estate". A newspaper story of that time refers to him as living in his new home "...surrounded by his family, friends, his flocks and his herds." [The house, recently modernized, is still standing in Jackson--see photos in file.]

DEATH: Official cause of death: "Old age". According to his obituary, he died peacefully at home at 8 AM, after a month of unspecified illness.

BURIAL: His funeral was held at the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Keeler presiding, and conducted under the Masonic order. Mentioned in the list of out-of-town relatives attending are the following: Mrs. Ellen M. Baird of Denver, Colo. ; R.H. King Clay Center, Kans.; E.W. Davies , and Mrs. C.M. Stearns , both of Pipestone, Minn.; Mrs. E.A. Ekern , of Airlie; Mrs. W.F. St.Clair of Owatonna; and Mrs. F.B. Ellis of Rock Valley, Minn.

BURIAL: He is buried with Nette in a large tree-shaded plot, together with a daughter-in-law (Mary Trumble, Will King's first wife) and several grandchildren. The large grey stone gravestone is inscribed "Here lies sweet rest". His gravestone is inscribed "GAR Veteran 1861-1866". Leonora Chittenden, his second wife, is buried nearby with her parents.

WIFE - Antoinette Louise "Nette" PORTER
BIRTH: She was born at 206 Wooster St. in New York City. Wooster St. formed one border of what later became Washington Square. It is shown clearly on an 1811 map just off Canal St., 3 blocks off Broadway, between Prince & Grand Streets.

She was usually referred to in letters from her husband and others as "Nette" or "Nett", and signed her letters to them that way. She always signed official documents with her full name.

WIFE - Antoinette Louise "Nette" PORTER (Continued)

She descended from several of America's earliest English settlers. Two of her paternal ancestors were Thomas Ford and Richard Lyman, who arrived in 1630 and 1631 respectively. Thomas Ford became a founder of Windsor and Simsbury, CT, and Northampton, MA. Richard Lyman was a founding father of Hartford, CT. His son Richard married Thomas Ford's daughter Hepzibah and is also listed as a founding father of Windsor. Antoinette's maternal ancestors were Dans,Browns, Smiths, Tabors, and Terrys, all early Long Island settlers.

Her father, Selah Porter, was a printer, an early member of the New York Typographical Society. He was the printer for a New York City newspaper for several years. In company with two of his brothers and their families, Selah Porter moved his family to Wisconsin Territory in 1838, where they settled in Walworth County, and he farmed for several years. In about 1840, he returned to his trade as a printer, being hired by the publisher of the newly formed MILWAUKEE COURIER. The family remained in Walworth County, and, except for a short period in 1850-51, after her mother's death, when her father returned once again to Milwaukee to be a printer, Nette spent her entire early life in Walworth County. Her father remarried when she was about 12 and her relationship with her stepmother seems to have been difficult.[See King-Porter Family Letters for correspondence with her sister Vie & William.]

Nette was only three years old when her family moved west, yet she was the connecting link between her mother's family in the east and those in the west. She is the premier source for King & Porter family information. One of her major contributions to research in her family was the holographic genealogy chart & narrative she researched and compiled, some time between January 1,1892 [the last recorded date] & her own death in March, 1896. [Original document is in possession of Dorothy King, RKF has copy]. In addition to the thorough and generally accurate genealogy detailed above, she kept two diaries from 1866 to 1894 which detail the pioneering move of the Kings and Porters to Jackson & the development of that settlement. She also continued her mother's practice of saving family letters dating from 1829 until shortly before her own death in 1896. The letters and diaries provide invaluable source material on the King, Porter & Dan families. [The Minnesota Historical Society has the original letters and diaries, RKF has copies]. Nette was obviously very aware that her notes and accounts of life were important, and she recorded events with a historian's eye. A couple of examples will illustrate this quality:

One of her letters to William, her husband, written April 17, 1865, gives many details of the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln, starting with ".....I must write to night to inform you of the sad intelligence we received Saturday evening although you may hear of it ere this reaches you. Our President is dead (underlined) shot through the head by a miserable villian and Sec Seward was stabbed three or four times & his son had his skull broken...........Lincoln was shot in the theatre. They may have caught the fellow his name is Booth he is son of the tragedian Booth of Chicago........"

An obviously assertive wife, she constantly cajoled William to write more often, and to tell her what he wants to name their new baby. She teased him at one point, saying "....By the way, ain't you afraid I will turn democrat--you know you used to say I was a democrat". [This from a woman writing 55 years before women's suffrage!][K-P Letters, Group Four, Letter #29, pp.6-7]

In May 1866 Nette & William made preparations to move their family to their new home in Jackson. William began a diary with notes he made and letters he wrote to Nette as he & the rest of the scouting party (Brothers Irve, Robert, George, and good friend Charlie Heath)located a homestead in Jackson County, Minnesota. Almost immediately, Nette took over writing the journals. [See JOURNALS OF ANTOINETTE PORTER KING & THE KING-PORTER FAMILY LETTERS pp 81-84] The actual migration by conestoga wagon began Thursday October 4th, took 9 days, & ended Friday, Oct.12th, when Nette wrote "Arrived at our new roofless home about 10 PM, dirty tired & hungry & wind blowing a hurricane". An article from the Jackson Co. Pilot (9 Feb 1930-see file) describes the living conditions Nette & her family endured, sharing living quarters with the Barneys under twelve boards that were "all that could be procured at the mill" until William & the others could build log cabins. Any Minnesota native can relate to the kind of weather that means they endured in late October for at least two weeks until they were under shelter. The clipping mentioned above goes on to say "Mrs. King took boarders that fall".

She & William & their children moved into the village of Jackson in the fall of 1872. They lived for several years in a house owned by Mr. Frost. In 1878 they built the first of several homes in Jackson. Their last home, built in 1891, was a large home in what was then the country outskirts of Jackson. They moved into it on May 21. Her second journal is replete with details of finishing and settling into that home.[This house is still standing and there are several photographs of it in the file.]

Nette was an active civic leader all her life. [See numerous references in file.] She founded or helped found many of Jackson's civic and secular organizations, and her journals are filled with descriptions of many of those beginnings. A few of the most interest are the note on Sunday July 7, 1867: "....organized Sabbath School last Sunday at our house. Had six scholars. Had ten today"; also, on January 15, 1868, she noted " .....school meeting at C.H. Heaths, the first school meeting in Dist. No. 9". Later letters between Nette and her friend Narcissa Brooks spell out their attempts to create programs for the Womens' Relief Corps by choreographing performances of new nursery rhymes such as "Mary Had a Little Lamb." [K-P Letters, Group Eight, pg.7]

Two of her sons, Selah Samuel and John Lebbeus, became early editors and founders of Minnesota newspapers (THE JASPER JOURNAL and THE JACKSON COUNTY PILOT). Her son Willie Porter was an early photographer who recorded many of the earliest developments in southern Minnesota and also lovely photographs of children. Her daughter Nellie was one of Jackson's early school teachers, and later the wife of Edward Davies, a Jackson bred entrepreneur, who built the first building in Lakefield, MN, and gave that town its name; several years later he was an early builder and a eventually bank president in Pipestone, MN.

Nette was also a loving mother and grandmother to her large family. She nursed first her brother Lib, then her sister Vie through excruciatingly long-suffering deaths of consumption. Many letters survive from these two demanding periods in her life. Her despair is evident and she never doubted the need for her self sacrifice on behalf of her siblings. [See K-P Letters, Group Seven] When her son Willie's first wife died, also of consumption, she provided a home & cared for her little granddaughter Mary King (RIN# 200), then seven months old, until she (Nette) died when Mary was 10. According to a newspaper tribute to her at the time of her death [see file], Nette's last statement, as she died, was said to be "Be good to each other and above all take care of little Mary".

DEATH: Careful search of Jackson vital records has proved that her death was not officially recorded. This is surprising, given her status in the community, although death certificates were not required until 1914. Several family letters written to her and by her in December of 1895 give no hint of any serious illness. A search through a local newspaper, the JACKSON REPUBLIC, yielded only a vague clue. On March 6, 1896, in the local issues column, there is this statement: "The friends of Mrs. W.V.King will be sorry to learn that she is still unable to sit up." The following issue, for the next week, is missing from the file. A posthumous article in the same paper refers to a 3 month long siege with a "fatal malady", and heroic efforts to save her life, but to date it is not possible to determine what caused her death. One suspects either a stroke or the possibility of tuberculosis, which killed her entire family, but there is no specific evidence to support that conclusion.

BURIAL: In a letter dated Feb 26th, 1897, to his son Selah, living in Jasper, William wrote instructions for Nette's tombstone [Jasper was known for its beautiful granite, & had developed an industry for mining & carving tombstones]. In the letter, he said "About the inscription on the Monument. I would like to have Nellie's [his daughter] opinion about it. If you can't see her would prefer something like this

Antoinette L. Wife of W.V. King
Born Dec. 12th 1835 Died.March 26th 1896

with the words following: Here is sweet rest

"If you or Nellie prefer any other words than those above you can substitute them instead. On the North face Will wants the words

Mary E. Wife of W.P. King
[Born] Feb 28-1854 [Died} Feb. 28-1887

....I want room left on the front face for my epitaph below your Mother." The words on the stone are exactly as he suggested.

To the side and directly behind Nette & William's plot is that of William's sister Eliza & her husband M.S. Barney, their cherished companions throughout their lives, constantly mentioned in her journals. Immediately behind this plot are the graves of their son John & his family. Their son Willie & numerous members of his family are buried in the same cemetery, as are several of their grandchildren.

Especially moving to the family historian are those words "Here is sweet rest." One certainly hopes that is so, for she richly deserved it.

CHILD 1 - Willie Porter KING

He was born at or near the home of his paternal grandparents, John & Hannah King. Walworth Co. birth records did not start until 1873, but census records show his parents living in Adams before he was born there. Another confirmation of his age is in the Wisconsin 1870 census taken 1 June 1870, "Household #4, 13 years old, at school, born Wis."

His given name was Willie, not William. In later years, he was often called & he signed himself as Will or William, but he was always very pleased that his name was actually Willie. His brothers and some of his friends called him "Bill",& he occasionally signed that nickname to letters. There was a poem he loved to recite, which several of his grandchildren remember well. It went as follows: " My mother calls me Willie ... My father calls me Will .... My teacher calls me William.... But the fellas call me Bill."

The certificate states "87 years 29 days. Cause of death " Diabetes mellitis/ Sunstroke"

He was on his knees working in his garden when he was stricken, and died a day later. He had never in his life been a patient in a hospital before that day.

He and his wife Mary (Marit Rovang) are buried in the first row of graves in Riverside Cemetery, in a separate plot than his parents. Next to them is the grave of their son William Vance. Also buried with them are their daughter Kittie & her husband, and two grandchildren who died in infancy. One, Leitha, was the daughter of Robert & Mildred King. The other, James, was the newborn son of Irve (Pete) & Rose King.

After Mary's death, Will assisted his father in the county auditor's office for awhile. Some time in the spring of 1888, he studied photography and acquired photographic equipment. Later that year,leaving his little daughter Mary in the care of his mother, Willlie moved to Windom to start a photo gallery, which he operated for the next several years.

In his notes Willie wrote "September 1864. Father enlisted for the war and mother Nellie and I went back to Grandfathers where we lived until the spring of 1866. Then we moved to Austin, Minnesota. Farmed there that summer and in October moved to Jackson and took up pioneer life in dead earnest."

He was nine years old when his family moved to their new homestead in Jackson County. Again, from his diary notes "...arriving at our homestead on the eve of October 12, 1866. Ar[r]iving on Section 28 Town 101, Range 34. At that time a nameless township, but later named Wisconsin Township in Honor of its early settlers who came from the State of Wisconsin. clay, burnt green wood in an old Charter Oak cook stove and suffered with the cold all through that winter which was a very cold and stormy winter. Let me say that the different families living in the township would get together at times and enjoy a very pleasant afternoon."

In later life, he also recorded his vivid impressions of his first sight of his new home. [King-Porter Family Letters, Group Nine] Many details of his early life are also to be found in his mother's journals [Journals of Antoinette Porter King, original papers in custody of the Minnesota Historical Society]

In 1878 he moved to a farm in Hunter Twp., along with his parents, where he and his father formed a partnership in farming & stock raising. William King was soon reelected to the position of County Auditor, and returned to Jackson to live. Willie continued to farn in Hunter Township for several more years.

Major health problems plagued Willie and Mary from shortly after their marriage. Mary suffered from consumption, and was in increasingly frail health. Their first baby, Bessie Viola, died of whooping cough just before her second birthday. About two years later, their second daughter, christened Genevra Mary, was born. Mother Mary's health, as reflected in frequent entries in Antoinette's diary, became critical. At that point the young couple left the farm andmoved back to Jackson so that Mary could be cared for by her sister and mother-in-law. Her death, on her 33rd birthday, is recorded in painful detail in Antoinette's diary. [Vol Two, pp. 87-88]

In 1891 he moved to the frontier town of Jasper,taking his photo gallery with him. There he joined forces with his brother Selah in helping build the new little town. He erected a photography tent attached to the new office building of the JASPER JOURNAL, newly created and edited by Selah. Will opened a gallery there and took many of the first photographs of the town. [Pipestone Co. Hist. Soc. records]. Some time around 1890 he built a second photography studio on the main street of the nearby hamlet of Hills, MN. This building is still standing [See photos in file], but was moved one block (to 204 Central Ave., between 2nd & 3rd streets) when the hardware store on Main Street expanded & needed room for its new blacksmith. [Source for this information is an interview conducted by RKF July 1992 with an elderly Hills resident Olaf Nielsen & publication HILLS OUR TOWN 1890-1990. See file] Further confirmation that Will operated both studios for some period of time came from old photographs purchased by RKF in July, 1992, from Robert Kolbe, an antique dealer in Sioux Falls, which have the logo "W.P.King, Hills and Jasper, Minn."

He had a studio in Jasper until 1896, the year his mother died. At that point he & Mary Rovang King moved their family back to Jackson to live with & care for his father & provide a home for little 10 year old Mary, the surviving child of his first marriage.

After returning to Jackson upon his mother's death in 1896, he lived there the rest of his life, where he was well known as one of the earliest settlers and one of its best story tellers.

About 1898 he built a large frame home at the north end of Main St. in Jackson to house his photography studio & the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT, at that point owned & edited by his brother John. The family lived on the second floor. Reginald George King was the first child born there. Willie & Mary lived there all the rest of their lives. [The house was torn down sometime in the 1960's]

He regularly spoke at civic functions and wrote essays for the newspaper, often recounting his early memories of Jackson history.

King, William P., July 1857, 42, Wisconsin; Mary , W[ife], May 1871, 29, Iowa; Grace Pauline, D[aughter] Sep 1892, 7, Minnesota; William V, S[on], Feb 1895, 5; James H.P., S, Oct 1896, 3; Reginald G.,S,June 1898, 1; Mary G., D, July 1886, 13

An artist, a raconteur whose stories extended back to the very beginnings of Jackson, a dreamer, a gentle and genial man, stone-deaf from about the age of 50, he was much beloved by his family and fellow citizens.

He loved literature, especially poetry and could recite volumes of it from memory. According to his youngest daughter Kittie, at night he would retire early to his bed and commit new poems to memory. He jotted down his own and other poems and sayings in a pad he called his "Scribble Book." He was a life-long Democrat, fascinated with politics and history. He was the author of many articles on the early history of Jackson Co., many of which were published in the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT.

His vision of life, articulated in his diary, which he kept off & on for 27 years encompassed much information about late 19th & early 20th century Minnesota life, such as swimming in a swimming hole & going to school in Austin in 1866; his first sight of Jackson, then just "a laid out plat for the village.,..not a building or a tree, just fresh burnt off prairie and the only thing to show was the stakes that marked the blocks & lots"; the first, false Armistice of WWI, & finally the real end of WWI. His last entry, on July 1, 1944, provides a fitting epitaph for his vision. He wrote " As I pick up this scrapbook and look it over I get some idea of how time is on the wing. Almost 26 years ago we were waiting for the end of World War #1 and now just as eagerly and more so than then we are waiting for the curtain to be rung down on World War #2 with the hope that it will be the last of wars. In the first war I had two sons one who was electrocuted shortly after getting back. The other died a few years.. [unintelligible]...from the effects of gas he got in the war. Now in this war I have three grandsons and the fourth just enlisting and I at the ripe age of 87 the 9th of this month am marking time waiting for the return of my grandsons and nephews. God grant that they may return safely." [K-P Letters, Group Ten] His death came 39 days later, without his knowing that all of them would safely return.

His philosophy of life was further articulated in an article he wrote for the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT the year before his death. The main focus of the article was his recollection of the first winter his family spent in Jackson. But he began by quoting an unnamed author:

Because I have loved life, I shall have no sorrow to die. I have sent up my gladness on wings, To be lost in the blue of the sky. I have run and leaped with the rain. I have taken the wind to my breast. My cheeks like a drowsy child To the face of the earth I have pressed. Because I have loved life, I shall have no sorrow to die.

Commenting on that first hard winter in Wisconsin Twp., he said in the same article:"Today when I am told than I cannot have certain things [the article was written in the middle of World War II], I can tell them, 'alright, I learned my lesson to go without things that I would have very much liked to have, during my first winter in Minnesota. Out of that bunch of the early pioneers of Wisconsin Township, I only know of two who are alive today, myself and Alice Barney Smith [his cousin] now living in Pennsylvania.

"Today we meet with so many who are dissatisfied with the rationing of food and other things and I want to say to them that if they now had to go through what our folks had to contend with in the winter of 1867, they would think and know that they lived in the very best state in the union with good warm homes, plenty to eat, warm clothing and everything to be thankful for and willing to sacrifice in order to bring about everlasting peace not only to us of this land of plenty but to all the downtrodden people of the world.

"Last Wednesday evening I had the pleasure of attending the Presbyterian Diamond Anniversary and although my deafness prevented my hearing anything that was said or letters that were read, I had the pleasure of viewing the pictures shown upon the screen by Mayor Iverson, and it would be useless for me to try to describe the sensations and thoughts that passed through my mind as I looked upon the people and buildings of that long ago, for to that sturdy bunch of the early pioneers we of today owe all that we feel proud of in our county. I myself feel that life has been well worth living from the fact that I was privileged to live the greater part of my life in Jackson County. In conclusion let me quote from an unknown author:

"And Lord, may my shouts be ungrudging and , A tribute that comes from the heart; And let me not cherish a snarl or a sneer, Or play any sniveling part;

CHILD 2 - Nellie Greenwood KING

Her birth predates official Walworth Co. records (they start in 1873). She was born on Christmas Day at or near her King grandparents' home in Adams, Walworth County, Wisconsin. Her father was working the adjacent farm.

She was named Nellie Greenwood for her maternal grandmother, Ellen "Nelly" Greenwood Hilton. There has been an Ellen/ Nellie in each of at least six King generations.

This is Antoinette's beloved little Nellie, who is the subject of a good deal of attention in both of her mother's journals. Her birthday is frequently recorded there. She was nine years old when her family trekked by conestoga wagon across the prairie from Wisconsin to settle in Minnesota. Her childhood, education, experiences as a school teacher, activities at home and with her friends, prolonged visits to family in Wisconsin, her courtship with & marriage to her husband, and her letters to her mother are all chronicled in both the journals and King family letters.

She died oftuberculosis at a sanitorium outside of St. Paul, Minnesota

Funeral services were held at her home, conducted by Rev. B.L. Main. There was a burial rite of the Order of Eastern Star at the gravesite. Among many others, numerous relatives attended [according to her obituary] Among thm were her father & his second wife; her brothers John & Selah & their wives; and her daughter Kitty & her husband, Clarence Stearns.

The family plot (Block A, Lot 174, sp 1,2,3,4) is dominated by a large obelisk in the center with the name Davies. Of her six children, four of whom died unmarried, only Burr is buried here. Her husband and his second wife,Allie Humble, are buried in this plot, but, strangely enough, there is only one marker, with Nellie's name, and no markers for the others. Standing there, in what seems a very incomplete final resting place, one feels the sadness of all the untimely deaths in this family.

At age two, she moved with her family to Crawford County, WI., where they lived and her father farmed until 1864. Her mother brought Nellie & her older brother Willie back to the King grandparents' home to stay during the time her father was serving in the army, from 1864 to 1865.

After William was discharged in 1865, he moved his family to Mower County, MN, where he worked as a farm hand until the final move to their newly acquired homestead in Jackson County, MN.

An item in her brother John's obituary in the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT [12 Nov

1964] states " For a few years the King family resided in Hunter Twp. on what is now the Arnie Thompson farm, six miles west on TH 16. ......A sister, Nellie.. taught in the schoolhouse a short distance west of the home place. Her transportation to school often was in a cart drawn by oxen......"

After their wedding, Nellie moved with her husband to Pipestone and remained there thirty-two years, the rest of her life. Her obituary describes her as "one of Pipestone's most prominent women."

Family letters include a number from her to her mother & one from her to her brother Selah, all written after she was married. Interestingly enough, several of her later letters to "my dear Ma" are signed "your Billy", which must have been a pet name her mother had for her.

CHILD 3 - Selah Samuel KING

His birth predated official civil records in Walworth Co.

He was born in the home of his paternal grandparents, John and Hannah King, in Adams,Walworth County, WI, while his father was serving in the army during the Civil War. [William was a hospital patient in Johnsonsville, Tennessee at the time.] Letters between his parents attest to Selah's birth. On October 21, when he was seven days old, his mother wrote," ...I wish you could see our baby boy...he is a fine little fellow... has a nice head with quite a lot of black hair. His eyes are dark blue. I think they will be black".. William replied, on October 26, "...I received a letter from Lucy (his sister) informing me of your confinement and the information that I am the father of another boy. I was so glad to hear of it I could hardly refrain from shedding tears. I would give almost anything to see the little fellow--give him a good kiss for me and don't forget Willie and Nellie...".

The King family moved to Austin, Mower Co., in the fall of 1865, after William was discharged from the Army, and William worked for a farmer there until the next summer, when the family made its way to Jackson County, MN, and established a homestead in what became Wisconsin township. Selah was 2 years old at the time. In 1873 the family moved into the village of Jackson after William was elected county auditor. Selah grew up and was educated in Jackson.

The first Federal census for Jasper showed a population of 372.

In the spring of 1914, Selah "disposed" of the JOURNAL. We don't know just why the family decided to leave Jasper--perhaps the tragic loss of two daughters in 1911 & 1912 made them lose heart? [A third daughter, Dorothy, was born in Jasper in May of 1912. She and her younger sister, Carol, often referred to themselves as "the replacements." Clearly, they felt their parents had them primarily to assuage their grief at the loss of their first two daughters.] Whatever the reason, Selah resigned from the JOURNAL and moved his family to Jackson, where he was Assistant Postmaster for a year.

In 1915 he moved his family to Flandreau, home of his wife's parents, and purchased the MOODY COUNTY ENTERPRISE, which he published for the next five years. Carol Kathryn, the fifth and last child, was born there in 1915.

Death: Selah fell down the basement stairs in his home, injuring his back, and died after a lingering illness.

His funeral services were held in the Flandreau Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. K.J. Cardy. There was a Masonic service at the grave. The remains of the two little daughters who died in Jasper were moved to graves in Flandreau, next to their father, and eventually, their mother.

CHILD 4 - John Lebbeus KING

He was born before the institution of vital records in that area. The only King child born in Jackson County, he was born in a log cabin four miles east of Jackson in Wisconsin Township.

His birth was recorded in his mother's journal. The passage reads "Thurs Aug 11th Had company again. Wm went after them before daylight this morning, E [her sister-in-law Eliza King Barney], E.Heath and Mrs. Thomas. Also a little stranger arrived about 9 & 1/4 oclock this morning. Guess we will call him John Lebbeus King. Rather cool & raining a little. Plenty of flies".

He was named for his paternal grandfather John King; his middle name is for his maternal great-grandfather Lebbeus Porter. He may also have been named to honor his uncle, Lebbeus Effingham Porter, whose tragic death occurred just three months before John's birth. [His mother wrote poignantly about her brother's death in her journal.]

One boyhood experience he enjoyed relating was a trip he made at the age of 12 to visit his grandparents at his parents' early home in Wisconsin. He loved to recount the thrill of crossing the Mississippi River on a train. Especially exciting was the fact that the crossing between MacGregor, IA and Prairie du Chien, WI, was made on a pontoon bridge, the rail being attached to barges.

Another never forgotten incident occured when he was about 10, and walked several miles into Jackson to celebrate the Fourth of July. With 10 cents in his pocket, he felt he had fared sumptiously on a few clusters of dried raisins, crackers & a stick of candy.

The 1900 census shows him still living with his father & step-mother. Although he courted his future wife for more than 14 years, they did not marry until he was 37!

US Census:King, John L., 34, b Minn, Fa b England, Mo b NY, res in state 34 yrs, in dist. 10 yrs, occup- pation printer. He was apparently living alone at this time.

He was well known as "Jackson County's oldest native son" (JACKSON COUNTY PILOT obituary) much interviewed in his old age, including by noted author MacKinley Kantor for his book SPIRIT LAKE. He wrote many articles about Jackson's early history and loved to tell anecdotes of his early experiences. (See obituary & file)

After Lillian, his wife died, he lived in his own home well into his 80s, cared for, according to a newspaper clipping (See file) by a sister-in-law (Carrie Ramsdell King,RIN# 217, widow of his brother Selah). He moved into the Jackson Sunset Home when it was opened in 1956. (He was living there when RKF & family visited him in the early 1960s). He lived there until his death.

He was buried in a plot with his wife & their two still born sons. The plot is immediately next to the grave site of his parents, Antoinette & William King

In his obituary, his survivors were listed as "his son-in-law & daughter, Mr. & Mrs. John W. (Louise) Snyder of Oakridge, Ore., and two grandsons, Stuart, now with the U.S. Air Force in Formosa and Bill, at home." Out-of-town relatives at the funeral service were Robert St. Clair (his 1st cousin once removed, son of Nellie Barney & Will St. Clair) of Mason City, Ia.; Dr. L.E. Aurelius (newly widowed husband of his niece
Bonnie Davies, whose death had occurred just 3 months previousof St. Paul; Kenneth, Paul, Carol & Dorothy King (nieces & nephews, children of his brother Selah) of Minneapolis; Mrs.Fred Tolberd of Mankato & Mrs. Wendell Fleming of Garden City.

At the time of his death he was Jackson County's oldest native son. He was widely known as the owner & editor of the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT, a founder of the Minnesota Farmer-Laborer party & as a delegate to the National Democratic Convention that nominated Woodrew Wilson. MacKinley Cantor came to Jackson to interview him when writing "Spirit Lake." John's mother certainly got her wish that "we could always be proud of Johnnie."

HUSBAND - Lebbeus Effingham "Lib" PORTER-68

Source: ALPK holo. gen.; journal; family letters (See file)

Named for his grandfather Lebbeus Porter (RIN# 71). His middle name is the name of a town north of London, & may provide a clue to his Porter family forebears. Needs research.

He was a year old baby when his family moved west.

Family files provide extensive information about him, including a pre-nuptial letter to Nellie and several letters to William King. The two young couples moved together in 1864 from their homes in Walworth Co. to Eastman, Crawford CO., Wis., & farmed together there. That is the address from Williams letters from Lib were written. William was in army service in "Dixie" Lib was worried about the possibility of being drafted, & relieved to have been exempted by a doctor who "knew him of old". His health was obviously a continuous concern. He wrote many details to William about the disposition of Wm's stock & grain.

Antoinette's journal provides many details about him: the early life on the farms outside Jackson; his prolonged illness with and repeated attempts to recover from tuberculosis; the birth & death of his little son; and the sad final details of his death after several years of a losing battle. He seemed to have almost a mystical feeling he would get better if only he could get back to his Wisconsin home and at the end, leaving behind his wife & little daughters, one of them a weeks-old baby, he persuaded his brother Irve to make a desperate dash with him bedded down in a sleigh for a 100 mile trip in the midst of severe mid-winter snow & ice storms,crossing the semi-frozen Mississippi River by either rail or ferry or both. The trip took 6 days & he lived only a few hours after arriving at his family's home. His wife, Nell & his sister did not have any news of him or his death until April 8th ---21 days after he left them.

Once again, ALPK provides the last news of him when in her journal she tells about the letter she received from her sister Viola (RIN #70) giving the specific details of his funeral & burial. In her entry of Tues 12th April, she writes "Poor boy only live(d) nine hours after he got home. They got to Whitewater Friday afternoon about 3 o'clock & (he) died Sat morn about 1 o'clock. What a tedious journey. It was all Irve could do to get him home alive. Had to carry him in his arms all the way. He died the 26th of March. Was buried the next day Sunday in the graveyard where Father & Mother & Bro William lie near the yellow school house in Troy Wisconsin. Elder Delany from Whitewater preached his funeral sermon. Text in Psalms".

RKF & JGF visited the small & exquisitely tranquil Adams Cemetery in June 1990 We truly felt we had come full circle with Lib.

WIFE - Ellen Mary (Nell/Nellie) KING-57

Doc: Birth rec. ALPK holographic genealogy; US Censuses; family rec Elwood Branfort

Name Ellen follows many generations in King family of daughter named Ellen,

HUSBAND Lebbeus Effingham "Lib" PORTER-68 Yr of Birth 1837
WIFE Ellen Mary (Nell/Nellie) KING-57 Yr of Birth 1838

rec. show marriage registered in Elkhorn, Walworth Co, Vol 4, pg 63--same date. Needs checking] That record lists the following: Father of the Groom: John Baird; Mother of the Groom: Sarah Baird; Father of the Bride: John King; Mother of the Bride: Hannah king; Witnesses: George King and Selma Porter [sic --most likely her daughter Zella Porter].

The Bairds farmed together for the next 14 years. An article in the WHITEWATER REGISTER May 3, 1888, says "Mr. & Mrs. H.E.Nourse [Lucy King], Mr. & Mrs. Robert King,& Mr. & Mrs. L.W.Coombe [Nell's daughter Lenora] Sundayed with Mr. & Mrs. James Baird near Troy Center." This small note speaks to the close family ties.

A year after James Baird's death, records at the Register of Deeds office in Clay Center, Kansas show land purchased by Ellen Baird, 80 acres (5 1/2 of NE 1/4 35-6-3) in Goshen Twp, purchase date Aug 10, 1900. However, there is no evidence that she ever moved there, and, indeed, some time in the summer of 1890, she moved to Jasper, Minn., "to live with her daughter, Mrs. L.W.Coombe." [Letter by W.P.King in the 25th Anniversary Ed. of the JACKSON REPUBLIC). Her presence in Jasper was also noted by her namesake niece, Nellie King Davies, in a letter to her brother Selah. (See King Letters) She visited the Branforts at least once, as shown in a four generation photograph taken in about 1913. [See file].

In the May 1895 Minnesota census for Pipestone Co., Village of Jasper, she is recorded as "Bard (sic), Ellen,55,b. NY, period of residence in state & enum. dist. 5 yrs, occupation General Merchandise. She was probably assisting her son-in-law Levi with his general store [it is quite likely that she was the actual owner of the store. Sh may have invested money she inherited or obtained by selling the farm after James death.]

She moved with the Coombs when they migrated to Colorado, and is listed as living with them in the Denver City Directories of 1909, 1910, & 1911, as well as in the US censuses for 1910 & 1920.

She returned to Jackson frequently to visit family there, and was among those attending her father's funeral there in 1914.(See his obituary in FGR #10)

She later owned a home at 2244 Grape St, Denver, where she was living when she died. (See photo in file)

Death/Burial: The Denver Post of Monday, November 13, 1933, carried an item in the Obituaries by the Olinger Mortuary: Ellen Baird of 2244 Grape St. mother of mrs. LE Coombes [Leonora(Porter)Coombes]died SundayNov 12, 1933. Services at the St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Tuesday at 9:30 am.

Her body was cremated and her ashes were interred in the Fairmont Mausoleum located at East Alemada and South Quebec Streets in Denver. At the time of her death she was 95 years, 5 months and 8 days old.

often called Nell or Nelie. Most immediately, she was named for her maternal grandmother Ellen (Nelly) Hilton. In early letters & Vol I of ALPK journal, she was always called "Nell" or "Nellie", and signed herself that way in letters. But in later life, she was always referred to as Ellen, and appears as such in censuses & other official documents.

First Marriage: Walworth Co. Marriage Rec. Vol 2, p 69. Married to Lebbeus Porter by William Jolliffe.[Lebbeus was Antoinette Porter's brother, & Nell's brother William Vipen King was Antoinette's husband, so they were double brother & sisters in law.] [Historical note: According to the LAGRANGE PIONEER, p.375, "Wm. Jolliffe was the first resident minister of the church at Little Prairie ....coming there in the early 60's, and he was still there & conducted the memorial service for Pres. Lincoln in April 1865."] [See file for details]

Family recoeds indicate that their first child, Zella, was born in Batavia, in Crawford ~~Sheboygan~~ Co., WI, in 1862. ~~Some time after that Nell & Lib moved to~~ Eastman, ~~in Crawford Co~~, where they farmed with or near Antoinette & William King for a few years. When William King went into the army, Lib looked after his farm. [illegible]

Always in poor health, probably tuberculosis, Lib was frequently ill and unable to work. Yet he & Nell seem from letters to have had a positive outlook and optomism about their future. He was almost called up in a draft at the end of the war, but it seems unlikely he would have been able to serve. (See family letters).

When the war ended, the two young couples, her sister Eliza & her husband M.S. Barney; two other King brothers, Robert & Albert, all moved together to take up homesteads near Jackson Minn, in October 1866. In December of that year, according to an article in the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT, Ellen, Lib & little Zella were living in Wisconsin Twp.with M.S. & Eliza (King) Barney & their two children on Sect 32, SE 1/4. Some time that winter the Porter's log home was completed & they moved in to their own home ALPK's journal tells that story in detail.

Life on the prairie above Jackson must have been extremely difficult for Nell & Lib, as they struggled through harsh winters, the death of their beloved second born, little Georgie, and Lib's health continued to worsen. This culminated in early 1870, first with the birth of their third child,Lenora, literally as her father was dying. One can only imagine the horror for Nell of having her poor, desperately sick husband, supported by his brother Irve, leave in the middle of a blizzard, to make a wild, futile 6 day trip back to Wisconsin in the vain hope that he could be helped there. That left her with a month old baby and an 8 year old, and she did not have word for 21 days of his death just hours after he arrived at his father's home.

Nell moved back to Wisconsin a few months after Lib's death, and her daughters grew up there in the midst of both their King and Porter families. She still held the title to her land in Wisconsin Twp in 1872 (AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF JACKSON CO MINNESOTA, pg 128)but disposed of it later & never moved back there.

Second Marriage: (Walworth Co. Mar. Rec. Vol.3 p 267)On Feb. 20, 1876, Nell was married to James Baird, a widowed family friend 18 years her senior. [Branfort

Doc: Birth date & place from ALPK journal vol 2. Frequently mentioned in ALPK journal. Also marriage noted in LAGRANGE PIONEER

Named Cornelia for her paternal great-grandmother Cornelia Ann Dann

Parents moved from Batavia to Walworth Co. some time after the end of the Civil War; moved to Jackson Co., MN, with her when she was 4 years old. After her father's death, when she was 8, she moved back to Walworth County with her mother and lived there until her marriage.

Marriage: Walworth Co. Marriage Certificate Vol. 4 p. 180 #69. Married by the Rev. W.W. Comor of East Troy. Witnesses were George King & Sarah F. Branfort [Family rec. of Elwood Branfort gives wedding date as April 1--official doc. is April 4--check next time in Wis.]

In 1885, a year after their marriage, she & her husband to moved to Goshen Twp., Clay County, Kansas, where they purchased the N 12 NE 35-6-3 section on July 28. They built a small sandstone house, had 5 children & farmed there until Feb 5, 1900, when they purchased the adjoining farm (NW 1/4 35-6-3) where they built a new frame house & had one more child. After farming for 30 years, in the spring of 1915, they moved to Clay Center,at 1513 Seventh St. & both remained there rest of their lives.

Letters to ALPK

CHILD 2 - George Irving PORTER-265

Source: Entries recording birth, life, death & burial in ALPK Journal. Last entry is especially poignant, " Friday 19th Quite cold, cloudy & dreary. Buried little Georgie this afternoon. He was fourteen months old. The funeral was held at the house of B.H. Johnson".

He was probably named George for his paternal uncle George King (RIN# 61) & Irving for his maternal uncle Irving Porter (RIN# 69)

Burial: He was almost certainly buried in a cemetery in Wis. Twp. , site not determined as yet. Later, on October 20, 1872, ALPK notes in her journal "... Wm & I & Mrs. Johnson went up to the graveyard to select a spot for little Georgie. We are going to move him." RKF & JGF visited grave in Riverside Cemetery in June 1990, & were pleased to discover him in the same plot with his loving aunt & uncle, Antoinette & William King. (Grave photo in file)

CHILD 3 - Leonora Ellen (Nora) PORTER-267

Doc: Jackson Co. Birth Records: Book A, page 2, Line 10. Hers was the first birth recorded in Jackson Co. Her aunt, Antoinette Porter King,recorded her birth in her journal. She was barely a month old when her father left his little family on the prairie in Minnesota to make a tragic return to his home in Wisconsin, in the vain hope his life could somehow be spared if he got there. So Lenora never knew her father, but his sister, her Aunt Antoinette Porter King, always stayed close to her & mentioned her frequently in her journals.

Carried name Leonora of Long Island Dann family; Ellen for Hilton/King family Called "Nora" in ALPK first journal, and most of her life. In Vol 2 of ALPK's journal, references to her were all as "Leo", but that seems to have been her aunt's pet name for her, not one she generally used.

Lenora's mother left Jackson with her two small daughters a few months after the death of her father, and Lenora grew up in Wisconsin in the midst of both her King & Porter relations.

Marriage: Walworth Co. Marriage Certificate #106253 Vol 7 p. 52 . Married in M.E. Church by the Rev. William Bennett. Witnesses were John Cameron & Minnie King (her cousin). ALPK recorded in her journal:"Thurs (Feb) 23 Leonora's wedding day. Quite pleasant all day.........Leo & Levi are coming to Minn. on their wedding trip. Mr & Mrs Levi W. Coombe. Expect them Sat morning. Then, on Sat 25:Cold as fury & a terrible wind. Train did not get through until eve. Levi & Leo were staid at Sherburne. Think this is a fearful country. Don't blame them." Again, on Mon 27:" Leonora is 18 years old today. She is a darling sweet girl." Finally, on Wed (March) 2:"Cold & stormy. Robert & family start for Wis. tonight. Levi & Leo go back with them. It will be so lonesome without them but I think they will enjoy life better down there."

Moved to the new village of Jasper, Minn. in 1888 with her husband and later her mother. Minn. Census of May 1895, lists the following: Coombe, L.W., 33,M,W,b. Wis, 7 yrs in state, 7 yrs in Enum Dist, Gen Merchant; Combe, Nora E., 25,F,W, b. Minn. 7yrs in state & in Enum Dist; Coombe, Lucy H., 3,F,W, b. Minn, 3 yrs in state & Enum Dist; Baird, Ellen, 55,F,W, b. NY, 5 yrs in state & Enum Dist.

Not certain when they moved to Colorado, but they are not in either the Minn or the Wis census for 1900, so date is presumed to be before that. First concrete date to date is in the Denver City Directory of 1909, where she is listed as a "asst J.N.Hall", & she, Levi & Ellen are living at 921 20th Ave.

In 1910 she was a sec. Drs Hall & Hopkins, r. 2244 Grape; in 1911 & 1912 her occupation was "steno 452 Metropolitan Bldg." In 1912 only she is listed, & presumably Levi died in that year, pending further research.

At one point she was in possession of ALPK's journal (Vol 1). The brown paper wrapping which covered it when RKF received it from Carol King (in 1989) had a postal return address from her in Denver, when she had mailed it to John Lebbeus King (her cousin) some time in the 30's. Unfortunately the wrapping was lost.

In the 1920 census, she was widowed, 49 years old, no occupation, living with daughter & son-in-law, Lucy & Herbert Stebbins. Her mother, Ellen Baird, was also living there.

Death: Recorded in newpaper clipping from JACKSON CO. PILOT, 8 Jan 1942: "John L. King received the sad message Tuesday forenoon bearing the news that his cousin, Mrs. Leonora E. Coombe, had died suddenly when stricken with a heart attack at her home in Denver, Colorado. Mrs. Coombe was the daughter of an early Jackson County pioneer family, her parents being Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Porter, who homesteaded in Wisconsin Township in 1866, where Mrs. Coombe was born in 1870, the old home now being owned by Virgil Jones. Mrs. Coombe was also a cousin of W.P. King and up to a few years ago had made annual visits to Jackson for the purpose of visiting relatives."

Parents were John Baird, farmer & Sarah Baird, born in Ireland. Not certain when they immigrated to America, with how many children, or when they came to Walworth Co. Like his father, James Baird was a farmer in Walworth Co.

The US 1870 Census for Walworth Co., Sugar Creek Twp., lists the following: James Baird, age 48, Farmer, 6000, 1125, b. Ireland. Under him are w Anna, 43; s Samuel, 19; d Agnes, 20; d Sarah, 16; d Mary, 13, m Sarah, 87.

Some time after his 1st wife died he married Ellen King Porter, & continued to farm until his death.

Death: Elkhorn Court House, Walworth Co. Death Reg. Vol 3 p 144 # 110798.
Cause: Blood poisoning Where died: Troy Age:69 No listing of cemetery work on his house". Meanwhile, Elisa is still in Wis. with Alice, their newly born baby. On Sat Nov 10 1866, ALPK records " Lib & Mitchell moved today....". The next day, Sunday, she notes " Rather cold. M.S., Elisa, Nelly, G[eorge] & I went to meeting.....". The Barney family is now settled in their new home.

A deposition by Wm.V. King (2 Jan 1880) states that from 1866 to 1873 he & Mitch lived on adjoining farms [in Wisconsin Twp.]; from 1873 to 1878 "we both lived in Jackson near each other....Since last date have lived 11 miles from each other." Was an early postal service worker in Jackson area. His obituary says he "retired in 1885."

A newspaper clipping from the August 12, 1876 issue of the JACKSON REPUBLIC gives the following account " M.S. Barney is the last Jacksonian to return satisfied with home and disgusted with Kansas, Missouri, and intermediate points. Traveling two or three thousand miles to find only a day's work with grasshoppers close on his track all the way, and nothing but poor health, poor water, poor people, poor country and worse than poor society are what did the business for him." This was during the deadly years of grasshopper infestation, when many early Jackson settlers were desperately looking elsewhere. The same paper, on 13 Sept 1879, notes that "M.S. Barney is building a neat new frame house on his farm in Wisconsin Township." The grasshoppers had finally gone, and he & Eliza lived there for a number of years.

Another clipping, pencil marked with the date 1884, reads " M.S. Barney has bought on A.H. Strong the store building south of THE REPUBLIC office and will improve it with a cellar and foundation and build on another story. He expects to put in a stock of groceries on the lower floor and use the rest of the building for residence rooms. We are glad to have Mr. Barney pitch his tent in Jackson."

He seemed to have difficulty accepting that each new daughter was once again not a boy. Newspaper clippings of the time, as well as ALPK journal notes, refer to his expressed disappointment.

"Declaration for the increase of an invalid pension" from Jackson, Minn. 23 Aug 1887 stated "...totally disabled from performing any manual labor--mind affected by reason of sunstroke so as to incapacitate me from transacting business". Similar document 8 Feb 1888 stated "...the sunstroke unfits me mentally for performing or transacting business, by reason of being rendered at times insane, totally unconscious of what I was doing." Statement 5 July 1881 from Jackson stated "...that Dr. Million treated me in 1862 at camp hospital, Jackson, Tenn., for diarrhea;...that in 1863 I was treated by Dr. Whitnell for flux [diarrhea] and was sent home on sick furlough..."

Pension was granted (Cert. 228-590) for lumbago, cephalalgia [head pain] & vertigo the results of sunstroke: $6/mo from 20 July 1865; $8/mo from 31 July 1882; $16/mo from 10 Feb 1886. According to his deposition for the pension application for Wm. V. King in Feb. 1894, he had "no occupation for 8 or 9 years". P.O. address listed at that time was Jackson, Minn.

In 1898 he declared his living children to be: Juniatta R. b 23 June 1860; Alice L. b 31 Aug 1866; Clara L. b 9 Oct 1868; Nellie H. b 8 May 1872; Maude

HUSBAND Mitchell Servitus "M.S." BARNEY-276 Yr of Birth 1832
WIFE Elizabeth Annis (Eliza) KING-59 Yr of Birth 1840

E.A. b 23 Dec 1875; Antoinette G. b 16 Jan 1879.

At the time he applied for his increased pension (24 Sept 1908) he lived in Owatonna, Steele Co., Minn. [with daughter Nellie] & claimed to be totally incapacitated. (Note in his handwriting 26 April 1906 stated he left Kansas City, KS & had gone for an extended visit to his daughter in Owatonna). In 1906 he had lived in Kansas City, Wyandotte Co., KS [with daughter Clara]; in 1905 in Mainesburg, PA [with daughter Alice]; in 1903 in Columbus, Cherokee Co., KS; in 1900 in Jackson, Minn.

Living children he declared 16 Mar 1915: Mrs. Alice Smith, Mansfield, PA; Mrs. Clara L. Bushnell, Kansas City, KS; Mrs. Nellie St. Clair, Owatonna, MN; Mrs. Maude B. Ellis, Rock Valley, IA; Mrs. Antoinette G. Nichelson, Burlington, WY; Mrs. Juniatta Robinson, Superior, WI. He stated that his wife, Elisabeth A. Barney, died at LaGrange, WI, 1 May 1900.

At the time of his death he was living at 1929 7th Ave., Greeley, Colo. with his daughter Mrs. Maude E.A. Ellis.

Though neither of them died in Jackson, he and Eliza are buried there next to their dear life companions William and Antoinette. Their tombstone says " He gives His beloved sleep" . They certainly earned it. (Photos of gravesite in King file)

Other marriages:

Rebecca Jane MITCHELL-4455

WIFE - Elizabeth Annis (Eliza) KING-59

Doc: Husband's Civil War pension files; ALPK holo. gen.; several censuses; ALPK journal; family letters.

Birth: Date on tombstone 1849. In deposition she gave for brother Wm. V. King's pension application (See file), date 16 Feb 1894, her age is given as 53 years, which would make her birth date 1840 or 1841. Deposition was given in Feb, her birthday is in May, so 1840 seems more logical. Also, 1850 US Census for Walworth Co. gives her age as 10. Most definitive, primary source for age: ALPK journal entry May 27 1880 "...Eliza B. 40 years old today."

US Census 1870 for Wis Twp., Jackson Co., Minn., gives her birthplace as New York

Usually referred to as "Eliza" (sometimes spelled "Elisa", but in her own letters she always uses the "z"; she often signed her letters & always signed legal documents as "Elizabeth".)

First name possibly for her paternal grandmother, Betty Brierly. Middle name, Annis, probably for her father's sister, Annes, mentioned in letters her grandmother Nelly Hilton wrote to her mother & father, Hannah Hilton & John King. (See King-Porter Family Letter File)

The King-Porter Family letters contain several she wrote to Antoinette, her sister-in-law, two before & two after her own marriage. They are chatty & funny & affectionate. They are also articulate & written in beautiful hand writing. The file also contains a letter she wrote to her brother William when he was in service in the Civil War.

According to 1860 US Census Walworth Co., LaGrange, p. 44-45; family 284, she was a school teacher.

Marriage: Walworth Co. Marriage Index #3 pg 43. Married in LaGrange Twp. by James B. Cooper of Heart Prairie (Methodist Episcopal Minister)

Not clear where she & Mitch met--possibly she was in living with a family member in Waukegan, which is less than 50 miles from LaGrange?..or possibly Mitch met her brother William when they were both discharged in the summer of 1865?? She lived in LaGrange Twp. most of her life until she and her husband moved to Jackson in October 1866 either with or to join the rest of the King family in establishing homesteads.

A clipping from the Jackson County Pilot (see file) describes a reunion many years later of some of the early pioneer women of Jackson. About Eliza, it says "Mrs. M.S.Barney came in 1866 and commenced keeping house under twelve boards, all that could be procured at the mill in Jackson. These were set up on section 28, Wisconsin township, and served as a residence until a log house was built. [This was with a 6 weeks old baby & a 5 year old step-daughter]. Nette, in her journal, tells us that on October 28th "....Mitchell at work on his house."

Eliza and Mitch were active participants in the development of Jackson, frequently mentioned in Antoinette's journal,including many details of their daily lives, illnesses,birth of children, etc.

A journal entry on Sun 29 May 1870 reads "...Elder Savage organized S.S. [Sunday School] at our S. House [School House]. Eliza Barney chosen Superintendent." A newspaper clipping from the JACKSON REPUBLIC issue dated Saturday, August 12, 1876, reads "The gentler sex failed to exercise their newly acquired prerogative at the school meeting in this town last Saturday evening, as not one of them put in an apearance. The gentlemen present, however, were disposed to acknowledge not only the propriety of the ladies votinh but to hold offices as well, and elected Mrs. M.S. Barney as Director for the ensuing year. The report of the Tressurer showed the district to be in a healthy state financially. A special tax of $220 for teachers' wages and $40 for fuel was voted. It was also voted to have school six months during the coming school year."

She also was frequently reported both in ALPK journals & newspaper clippins to have organized the music for funerals & other special events in Jackson.

Worked in the County Auditor's office as a secretary & book keeper under the supervision of her brother William from 1889 through 1894 & some periods before that.(See her deposition above mentioned)

Made numerous trips to visit her daughters & their families after their marriages--to Pennsylvania, Kansas, & Wisconsin. Trips recorded in ALPK journal.

Death/Burial: Mitch's deposition states they were living in Jackson in 1900, but he also states that she died in LaGrange. Their burial plot in Jackson's Riverside Cemetery under lovely old shade trees is directly adjacent to that of William & Antoinette, not just their family but their most trusted friends and companions throughout the difficult pioneer years.

CHILD 1 - Alice Leadora BARNEY-277

Doc: Her father's Civil War pension papers, Nat'l Archives, Washington, D.C.
Family rec.; 1995 letter from gr-dtr Betty Earle Chilson

She was a 6 weeks old baby when her parents moved from their family home in Wisconsin to the new homestead in Jackson!

Frequently mentioned in ALPK journal--playmate to Selah King. First mention is Friday Jan 11,1867: "Mitch & Elisa went to Clear Lake.....left babe with me".

First mention by name is 16 Sept 1867,"...Taking care of Alice. Elisa is going to wean her".

One other sweet reference which shows the bond between aunt & niece is recorded March 12, 1873. "......Alice [age 7] is here tonight. Selah [age 9] & her are having fine times. She is a nice little girl & he is a nice little boy. I love them both ever so much."

There are two letters in the family file which she wrote to her Aunt Antoinette Porter King, one in 28 Mar 1891, the other 15 July 1892. Both are addressed Troy, Penn. She speaks of her little girl named Bessie in both letters, of her new baby girl, not by name, in the second one. She also talks about several of her sisters, & her lonesomeness for her family, & her concern for her aunt's health.

She & her husband are listed in the 1900 US Census, PA, Tioga Co., Mansfield

It is interesting to note that Alice maintained close contact with her family. ALPK journals make reference to several visits made by Eliza King Barney to visit her daughter Alice & family in PA. Also other family members visited her. Sister Maude Barney visited from 15 Aug 1895 until 26 Apr 1896. Sister Antoinette came to visit 3 Aug 1901, went to Mansfield Normal to study music, & stayed in PA until 16 Apr 1902. Sister Nell & her husband, Will St. Clair, came from Owatonna, MN, on 28 Jul 1907 & stayed until 8 Aug.

Her father, M.S. Barney, "spent a year with us in 1905", when he was 73 years old, according to Bessie Smith Chamberlin's diary. Another reference, in Alice' diary, also says "Pa does not like Pennsylvania."

In addition, Alice & her family also made numerous return trips to Jackson. Alice went to Minnesota 9 August 1887, taking baby Bessie with her, for a nearly 3 month stay. (She wrote in her diary that "Bessie was weaned & learned to creep while there.") Again, from her daughter Bessie's log book, we know that she was in Jackson for a period of time in 1902. Later, Bessie wrote "Oct

29th 1900 My Mother, Dad, Nellie, Lillian, Irene & I went to Jackson, Minnesota to live with Grandpa Barney. I went to High School there. We came back to Pennsylvania in Spring 1901. [Alice's mother Eliza King Barney died May 1, 1901, a fact also noted in her diary.] At least one other trip is recorded, in June 1913,when Alice took Laurence, at 8 years the youngest child, on a visit to her sister Nell in Owatonna, visiting several other relatives at the same time, returning to PA 2 Aug 1913.

Her father deposed in his pension application on March 16, 1915, that her address at that time was Mansfield, PA., a few miles from Mainesburg.

Not certain where she lived at time of death or where she is buried.

CHILD 2 - Clara Lucy BARNEY-278

Doc: Father's Civil War pension documents; her birth described in ALPK journal Fri Oct 9th 1868: "Eliza has another little girl born this eve."

Information about children & husband transmitted in 1994 letter from Margaret Ellis

She is frequently mentioned over several years in ALPK journal

Marriage: Newspaper clipping, undated "MARRIED.- On Tuesday, Dec. 3rd, at the residence of the bride's parents in this city, Rev. Cheadle officiating, Mr. Jackson Bushnell to Miss Clara Barney, both of Jackson. The contracting x parties to this happy event are well and favorably known to the people of this community, and they start out in their new relations with the best wishes of all who know them. THE PILOT acknowledges the receipt of a generous supply of excellent cake for which please accept thanks, congratulations and best wishes."

Her father lived with her part of the years between her mother's & his deaths.

Family records give her place of residence & death as Kansas City,Missouri; could have been Kansas City, KS. Needs research

CHILD 3 - Nellie Hannah May BARNEY-279

Doc: Father's Civil War pension documents; 1994 letter from Margaret Ellis

Carried two old family names: Nellie, or Ellen, for her grandmother & her maternal aunt; & Hannah for her grandmother, Hannah Hilton Birthdate confirmed in ALPK journal, where she describes Nellie's birth in detail. The entry reads "Wed 8th Have been over to Elizas since yesterday. Her little babe was born yesterday forenoon. She has another little girl".

Marriage doc. by wedding invitation (Copy in file; original in possession of RKF). It says "Mr. & Mrs. M.S. Barney request your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Nellie, to Will F. St. Clair, Tuesday afternoon, February tenth at half past two o'clock,

Attended funeral of Wm. V. King, her uncle, in 1914. (His obituary)

HUSBAND Mitchell Servitus "M.S." BARNEY-276 Yr of Birth 1832
WIFE Elizabeth Annis (Eliza) KING-59 Yr of Birth 1840

Father's papers document her birth date; that she was living in Owatonna, Minn. 16 Mar 1915.

According to CKK, she was living at the Sunset Home in Jackson at the time of her death. Body was taken to Owatonna for burial. Needs further research.

CHILD 4 - Maude Elizabeth Annis BARNEY-280

Source: Father's Civil War pension documents; Holographic genealogy Carol King family rec.

She was born between the end of ALPK's first journal and two years before the start of the second, so therefore there is no personal reference to her in the journals.

She was a charter member of the Jackson Chapter of the Eastern Star, Chapter # 142, and was honored as one of five living charter members at a 50th anniversary celebration in Jackson in 1950.

Married twice: First to Dr. Burr Ellis, had 3 children; then to his older brother Fred, had 1 daughter. [Brothers were from Rock Valley, Iowa]

Living in Rock Valley, Iowa in 1914, according to W.V.King obituary. At that time was Mrs. F. Ellis. Documented by father living there 16 Mar 1915.

Living at 1929 7th Ave., Greeley, Colo. 6 Oct 1919, when her father died. He was living with her.

Probably lived in Denver, CO with her daughter Margaret at time of death.

Ashes interred in Jackson Riverside Cemetery.

Other marriages:
18 Mar 1911 Fred B. ELLIS-911

CHILD 5 - Antoinette Grace BARNEY-281

Source: Father's Civil War pension documents; Holo.Geneal. CKK; ALPK journal

Entry in ALPK journal Thurs. Jan 16th: "Baby Barney born this morning early". Second entry Thurs. Feb. 20: "Eliza says she has named the baby Antoinette after me". Paired with these is a clippinf from the Saturday, January 25, 1879 issue of the JACKSON rEPUBLIC, to wit: "He's a girl again over at Barney's and Barney is once more about disgusted."

According to her father's deposition, she was living in Burlington, Wyoming 16 Mar 1915.

According to CKK, she lived in Byron, Wyoming.

(Burlington & Bryon are both in Big Horn County in north-central Wyoming)

Note made by Betty Ekhern Cunningham, copied from note made by her mother, Mary

HUSBAND Mitchell Servitus "M.S." BARNEY-276 Yr of Birth 1832
WIFE Elizabeth Annis (Eliza) KING-59 Yr of Birth 1840

King Ekhern Krambeck:" Nette Barney Nicholson died Oct 1966 (age 88). Only Maude Barney Ellis left of that generation--lives with daughter in Denver."

CHILD 6 - John Mitchell BARNEY-3599

Birth & Death: Jackson Co. Death Register Book A : Barney Male 1 day, died same day Parents: M.S. & Eliza

This baby leaves a poignant memory because of a reference in ALPK journal the day Clara Lucy Barney, the third girl in the family was born. Antoinette writes " Eliza has another little girl born this morning. M.S. disappointed because it was not a boy." Two more little girls were added to this family before this boy baby made his appearance--for just one day.

Family record submitted by Margaret Ellis gives birth & death date as July 13, 1880. Could there have been two boy babies in successive years who were born & died on same day? Needs clarification.

HUSBAND Mitchell Servitus "M.S." BARNEY-276 Yr of Birth 1832
WIFE Rebecca Jane MITCHELL-4455 Yr of Birth 1831

HUSBAND - Mitchell Servitus "M.S." BARNEY-276

Doc: Civil War pension documents, Natl Archives; Death & Marriage Certificates; Censuses; ALPK journal; family letters; tombstone

Parents were Perus & Electa A. Barney. 1830 Census for Rutland,New York (Roll 92 p 118) shows Persis Barney, b/w age 30-40; with a wife b/w 20-30; 2 sons age 5-10; 2 daughters under 5. (Next door is Hart Barney, possibly a brother.) He moved his family to Illinois sometime after Mitchell's birth in 1832. On Mitch's Death Certificate, his mother's name is given as E. Morton, or possibly Maslow; birthplaces of both parents listed as "unknown".

First marriage, to Rebecca Jane Mitchell, in 1859. (Most likely in Illinois) The 1860 US Census for Illinois, Washington Co., Tisriw(??) Twp., P.O.Osborne, p 727, Dwelling #506, Family #472 shows: Mitchell Barney, age 27, Farmer, b. NY, value of real estate $250, value of personal property $100. Living in the same household are: Rebecca Barney, 29, b. KY; Mary C.,15, b. KY;Jas. W., 12, M, b. IL; Amand E., 9, b IL; & E. , 22, M (?), b IL. (All of these are indicated as Barneys by ditto marks; not sure who they are except his wife, Rebecca.) Their daughter Juniatta was born 23 June 1860 (obviously shortly after the census was taken). Rebecca died 30 Oct 1863 at Irvington, IL.

An affadavit in his pension papers, from Jackson, Minn, 24 Dec 1883, gives his residences for the 5 years previous to his enlistment in 1861: 18 mo just previous thereto in Irvington, Ill; for balance of time just before that at St. Paul, Minn., with the exception of 6 mo at Waukegan, Ill. Occupation: Farmer.

Affadavit from 2 men who enlisted with M.S. Barney: "...in the month of September, A.D. 1861, that we all lived in the town of Irvington, county of Washington, state of Illinois; that we all lived in one house together and worked on a farm. We were together at the aforementioned place about 8 months from that time until he enlisted....". [Unfortunately we did not record their names; they may well be 1 or 2 of the names listed on the above detailed 1860 census, living with the Barneys]

Served in army in Civil War. He enlisted for 3 years at Cairo Ill. on 10 Sept 1861. Served in Co. K, 31st Ill. Vol. Inf.. Personal description: age 28; height 5'8"; complexion sandy; hair auburn, eyes blue. Enlistment expired & he was discharged 4 Jan 1864 at Big Black, Miss. He re-enlisted in the same company immediately as a "Veteran Volunteer" & served with it until his final discharge 19 July 1865 at Louisville, Ky. Bounty paid before discharge $210; bounty still due $190.

He served as an infantry private; promoted corporal 25 June 1862; reduced to private again when returned from desertion 20 Mar 1863. Promoted to 2nd Sgt (date? probably after desertion). On 24 July 1865 was brevetted 2nd Lt., Co. K, 31st Regt, Illinois Volunteers. (Latter presumably an honorific; he had been discharged 5 days before.) Prior to entering service was a shoemaker.

Statement from Adjutant General's Office, War Dept, 20 April 1887: "This man deserted [at Memphis] on or about 11 Feb 1863, but he returned to the service on or about 20 Mar 1863, under the President's Proclamation dated 10 March 1863, and appears to have complied with the conditions thereof....the charge of desertion no longer stands against him. The record of the fact he was absent in desertion from or about 11 Feb 1863 to on or about 20 Mar 1863 cannot, however, be expunged."

In line of duty at Atlanta, GA, on 15 July 1864 he "was sun struck and during Sherman's March to the Sea he was attacked with lumbago". He was treated "for sunstroke at hospital at Rome, GA, and for lumbago by regimental surgeon." He rejoined his Regt about Oct 1864 and accompanied it on the march to Savannah. "In or about Dec 1864 while with Regt on said march and by exposure in line of duty" he contracted lumbago that was treated only by regimental surgeon. He was also in a regimental hospital in Vicksburg, Miss., in summer 1863 & in regimental hospital at Jackson, Tenn., for rheumatism. (Cf. below for more details on latter.)

Resided from discharge until 1866 at Waukegan, Ill. His pension deposition states: "I claim pension for disease of the kidneys. Said disability was incurred at Vicksburg, Miss., in June 1863 and caused by exposure and hard fighting and marching, digging gopher holes and constant fighting and exposure to the weather and at the taking of Vicksburg [it fell 4 July 1863] I was sent home on sick furlough.....I visited my father's farm in the fall of 1865 but was sick all winter and had to walk with a cane and have chairs around the house all of which I can prove and tell the truth."

Second marriage: (Certificate in pension file). At the time of his wedding to Elisa, his residence is listed as Wawkegan(sic), Ill., occupation "farmer". Not certain as yet when or how they met. His deposition in William King's pension file [See RIN# 49] states he had known Wm. since "the summer of 1865, when he came out of the army". In his deposition for Albert King, in that pension file [See RIN# 60] he stated he first met Albert in Aug 1865 when he was "visiting John King" . [He was undoubtedly courting Elisa]. Mitch says "he met Albert again in Oct 1865 at the same place when he (Mitch) returned". That is when he & Elisa were married. Their marriage certificate dated 15 Jan 1898 states " Married Elisa Annis King Barney 10 Oct 1865 at Adams P.O., LaGrange, WI by James B. Cooper, M.E. Minister". (see Elisa's file for Wis. doc)

They most likely lived with the senior Kings during the first year of their marriage. On May 22,1866 Antoinette records in her journal that Mitch is one of the party who "started for the West" to look for homesteads; on June 1st she writes they located homesteads "in Jackson, Jackson Co., Minn.. On Tuesday July 10, she notes that the party "left Jackson for home". (a note somewhere says they used this time to cut & gather the logs needed to build their homes when they returned in the fall.) On Tues, July 17th, 1866, after the party wearily wearily returned to Austin, Minn.,that Antoinette writes " Irve & Mitchell started for Wis". In his deposition for Albert King Mitch states he "worked with him (Albert) on his father's farm during harvest time". He next appears in Nette's journal on Tues 16th Oct, in Jackson,when she notes "Lib & Mitchell came ....All hands at work on the house". On Sun 28 Oct she notes"....Mitchell at work on his house". Meanwhile, Elisa is still in Wis. with Alice, their newly born baby. On Sat Nov 10 1866, ALPK records " Lib & Mitchell moved today....". The next day, Sunday, she notes " Rather cold. M.S., Elisa, Nelly, G[eorge] & I went to meeting.....". The Barney family is now settled in their new home.

HUSBAND Mitchell Servitus "M.S." BARNEY-276 Yr of Birth 1832
WIFE Rebecca Jane MITCHELL-4455 Yr of Birth 1831

A deposition by Wm.V. King (2 Jan 1880) states that from 1866 to 1873 he & Mitch lived on adjoining farms [in Wisconsin Twp.]; from 1873 to 1878 "we both lived in Jackson near each other....Since last date have lived 11 miles from each other." Was an early postal service worker in Jackson area. His obituary says he "retired in 1885."

"Declaration for the increase of an invalid pension" from Jackson, Minn. 23 Aug 1887 stated "...totally disabled from performing any manual labor--mind affected by reason of sunstroke so as to incapacitate me from transacting business". Similar document 8 Feb 1888 stated "...the sunstroke unfits me mentally for performing or transacting business, by reason of being rendered at times insane, totally unconscious of what I was doing." Statement 5 July 1881 from Jackson stated "...that Dr. Million treated me in 1862 at camp hospital, Jackson, Tenn., for diarrhea;...that in 1863 I was treated by Dr. Whitnell for flux [diarrhea] and was sent home on sick furlough..."

Pension was granted (Cert. 228-590) for lumbago, cephalalgia [head pain] & vertigo the results of sunstroke: $6/mo from 20 July 1865; $8/mo from 31 July 1882; $16/mo from 10 Feb 1886. According to his deposition for the pension application for Wm. V. King in Feb. 1894, he had "no occupation for 8 or 9 years". P.O. address listed at that time was Jackson, Minn.

In 1898 he declared his living children to be: Juniatta R. b 23 June 1860; Alice L. b 31 Aug 1866; Clara L. b 9 Oct 1868; Nellie H. b 8 May 1872; Maude E.A. b 23 Dec 1875; Antoinette G. b 16 Jan 1879.

At the time he applied for his increased pension (24 Sept 1908) he lived in Owatonna, Steele Co., Minn. [with daughter Nellie] & claimed to be totally incapacitated. (Note in his handwriting 26 April 1906 stated he left Kansas City, KS & had gone for an extended visit to his daughter in Owatonna). In 1906 he had lived in Kansas City, Wyandotte Co., KS [with daughter Clara]; in 1903 in Columbus, Cherokee Co., KS; in 1900 in Jackson, Minn.

Living children he declared 16 Mar 1915: Mrs. Alice Smith, Mansfield, PA; Mrs. Clara L. Bushnell, Kansas City, KS; Mrs. Nellie St. Clair, Owatonna, MN; Mrs. Maude E. Ellis, Rock Valley, IA; Mrs. Antoinette G. Nichelson, Burlington, WY; Mrs. Juniatta Robinson, Superior, WI. He stated that his wife, Elisabeth A. Barney, died at LaGrange, WI, 1 May 1900.

At the time of his death he was living at 1929 7th Ave., Greeley, Colo. with Mrs. Maude E.A. Ellis.

Though neither of them died in Jackson, he and Eliza are buried there next to their dear life companions William and Antoinette. Their tombstone says " He gives His beloved sleep" . They certainly earned it. (Photos of gravesite in King file)

Doc: Civil War Pension papers of M.S.Barney.

US Census Illinois for 1860 lists her as 29, b. Kentucky; also a Mary C., age 15, b. KY; Jas W, 12, b. IL; Amand(a) E, 9, b. IL; & E., 22, b. IL. Not certain who any of these people are. They are indicated by ditto marks to have the last name of Barney, but they are never again mentioned in any of Mitch ney's later records. Could she have had an earlier marriage? (She'd have been only 14 when Mary was born). Needs further research.

CHILD 1 - Juniatta (Juna) BARNEY-906

Doc: 1870 US Census Minn.,Jackson Co., Wisconsin Twp.,p 129, Dwelling 4, Family 4: Barney: Moses, 31, farmer, b. NY; Edith, 30, keeping house, b.NY; Jane, 10, at school,b. Illinois; Alice, 3, at home,b. Wis.; Cora, 1, at home, b. Minn. "Jane" is undoubtedly Juna.

Apparently moved to Jackson with father & his new wife & baby daughter in 1866, when she was 6 years old. Frequently mentioned in ALPK journal. First mention by name not until December 1st, 1868, when ALPK says "......Juna came up & brought me some buttermilk, also a short note from Elisa." [This was the first JGF & RKF knew of Juna] Friend, playmate & sometimes baby-sitter for King, Barney & Heath children.

1880 US Census Minn Jackson Co., Wis. Twp., p 003: Barney, Junia, 19, servant, b. Illinois; Fa b. NY; Mo. b.NY or NJ (not clear)[Earlier 1860 Illinois census clearly gives mother's birthplace as Kentucky]

Her father's pension papers in 1915 give her married name as Robinson, address as Superior, Wisconsin

HUSBAND - Robert Hilton KING-58

Doc: Birth date on his Civil War enlistment papers; ALPK holographic genealogy. She also described his wedding in her journal. Civil War service & pension records in National Archives, Washington.

Named Robert Hilton for several Hilton ancestors. He was the first King with that name.

War Service: Volunteered at Madison, Wis, Jan. 4, 1864, for 3 years. Served 2 years 3rd Reg. Co. D&I Wis. Vol. (3rd) Barstow's Cavalry. Mustered out Sept. 29, 1865.(Enlistment papers refer to Bounty due $40) Papers also state: Occupation, farmer; Hazel eyes; Brown hair; Fair complexion; 5 ft 5 in tall.

After the war,he returned to his father's farm in LaGrange. In 1866 he moved to Jackson with the other Kings & Porters and was part of all the early days there, frequently mentioned in ALPK's journal. In 1868 he returned to Adams, Wis. for a couple of years. He returned again to Jackson Co. in 1871, where he moved to Wisconsin Twp. & later to Hunter Twp.. With his brother Albert, he acquired a substantial herd of cattle (see clippings JACKSON REPUBLIC). He was several times elected a Supervisor or an Assessor for Wis. Twp.

Marriage: Jackson Co. Marriage Rec. Book A, p 43. " Robert H. King of Nobles Co. to Arminta F. Bratt, at Petersburg by Rev. Edward J. Hamilton. Witnesses: Wm. V. King, M.S. Barney, A.D. King". [Years later, in his deposition for a pension, Robert at one point said he could not remember the name of the minister; later he stated it was Rev. Savage, the minister he had known through most of his youth in Jackson. Town record assumed to be more accurate, also ALPK journal entry below.]

ALPK in her journal set the scene for the wedding with this entry : "Wed (April) 30th ....Robert has just been here & invited Wm & I to go to his wedding which he says will come off tomorrow eve at Albert's. Pretty late in the day to receive invitations but rather guess we will go as weddings are rather rare occasions now days." She must have forgiven them the short notice, as two days later, on Fri, May 2, she made another entry, describing the wedding as follows " Robert & Minnie are married & I wish them lots of happiness & good luck. Mr. Hamilton the Presbyterian minister married them. They both looked very nice & they are a nice couple."

Possibly affected, as were so many others, by the grasshopper scourge, in mid-1875 he & brother ~~George~~ Albert sold their cattle & farms and prepared to move to Texas. Between 1875 & 1880 he lived in Kaufman Co., Texas--it is not clear what he did there, but probably farming or ranching.

He returned to Jackson Co.on Tuesday, Oct. 5, 1880 (ALPK Jour Vol 2 entry that date: "Robert came this afternoon all the way from Texas--has been gone five years--glad to see him") He settled his family on a farm in Hunter Twp. and was there until 1888. Once again, Antoinette announced the move in her journal, entry dated Fri March 2 "Robert & family start for Wis. tonight.... Levi & Leo [Leonora Porter Coombe & her husband Levi Coombe] go back with them. It will be so lonesome without them, but I think they will enjoy life better down there."

The reason for Robert's return to Walworth Co. seems to have been that his brother George bought their father's farm & Robert farmed there until 1899. WHITEWATER REGISTER MF P 44362 Aug 11, 1887-July 25,1889). (Another note in the same issue records: "Mr. Robert King spent the past week with relatives in Millard".)

A biographical sketch about John King & his family in LAGRANGE PIONEERS (pub 1935 by the LaGrange Ladies Aid Society, Walworth County, Wis. p.134) states "This couple [Robert & Minnie] worked the home farm during the nineties".

He is recorded in the Wis 1890 Veteran's Census Walworth Co. WI 001 ED 111 LaGrange, so he was living in Wisconsin then.

After his father's death, Robert returned again to the Jackson area,according to his own deposition, from 1899 to 1910.

Minnesota Census for 1905, Jackson Co, Jackson, ED 15, Sheet 17, Nos.69-73: King, Robert, 64, b Wis, Fa b England,Mo b England, res in state 11 yrs, re in enum dist 2 yrs 8 mo; Minnie, 49, b NY,Fa & Mo b NY, res in state 10 yrs, in enum dist 2 yrs 8 mo; Lillian, 25, b Texas,, occupation teacher; George, 19, b Minn, occupation farm laborer; Barney, Nettie, 25, b. Minn, fa b Ill, Mo b NY, occupation Teacher.[Nettie Barney was the daughter of Robert's sister Eliza (King) Barney.]

At some point during these years Minnie began to suffer from depression or melancholia. The frequent trips to & from may have been to bring her closer to her family. Robert's niece,Bessie Chamberlin, wrote in her diary that "Uncle Robert lived on a prairie near Jackson,Minn. Coz Lillian [his daughter] kept house for him." Minnie was finally hospitalized in Wisconsin in 1906 for most of the rest of her life. Some time between 1907 and 1910, Robert moved to Kansas to live with his son George. He lived there until his death.

His grandson, Robert George King, in a letter dated 8 May 1997, wrote that "My dad bought a farm north of Clay Center in 1907. My dad and Grandpa built a house on this farm in 1917." The original house is still there, lived in by Robert's great-grandson, Greg King.

The 1910 US Census for Garfield Twp,Clay Co, KS [012, 0009, 0019]shows him, age 68, living with George H., age 24.

In the 1920 US Census, Garfield Twp, Clay Co, KS [Vol 11 ED 9, Sheet 4, Line 41, we find the following household: King, George H., 33, b. Wisconsin; Clara, 27, b. Kansas; Hilton S., 8, b. KS; Helen S., 3 1/2, b. KS; Robert H., 77, b. WI.

Depositions in his pension file [National Archives].attest to his multiple physical problems (several strokes, paralysis on his left side, vertigo, double inguanal hernia, poor vision) & to the need for both George & his wife Clara to provide extensive physical care during his last years of life. He was granted a pension [Cert.# 1,040.315] in 1907, which was gradually increased from $8 per month to $72 monthly just before his death in 1927.

Lived in Millard, Walworth Co., Wis., "with the Lewises" before marriage to Robert. Further research needed to determine who they were; also her parents.

Frequently mentioned in ALPK journal during years they lived in Wisconsin Twp. & other parts of Jackson Co.

At some point during her later years, Minnie began to suffer from severe depression (what was then called "Melancholia"). Finally she was hospitalized in a state institution, where she remained for the rest of her life.

Death/Burial: Death recorded Walworth Co Death Reg Vol 15 p 629. She was buried at Millard with the Lewises, but her body was later moved by her daughter Susie (King) Harris to the Round Prairie Cemetery with her husband in his parents' plot. (Photos in file)

HUSBAND - George Henry KING I-61

Doc: B & D dates on tombstone; also ALPK Holographic genealogy (Original Carol King; copy in file)

Designated George Henry King I because his nephew named for him (RIN # 272)

May have served in Civil War. Letter from his brother Robert H. King to their sister-in-law ALPK, dated Aug 27, 1864, written from Fort Hamer (state not known to date) says " GHK has gone up town today so I have taken possession of his tent with his permission. How I wish he was going to stay as long as I shall have to. We have first rate times. O he gave me his picture. I wish you could see it. I dont believe that you would know it. He dont look like the same person that he did three years ago. Well, five months more will see him out and I shall have very near tow years to serve......." Needs research.

Apparently living in Austin, Minn., in May 1866, when ALPK journal begins. Went with original party searching for homesteads, was with them when they located land in Jackson Co., made a claim to SE qtr. Sec. 29, Wisconsin Twp. Not clear whether he ever lived there. According to "LaGrange Pioneers", p.134, he .."always remained ..resident of LaGrange". Need further research to determine status of Wisconsin move/ homestead .

According to bio sketch on Kings in LAGRANGE PIONEER,pp. 134-35, " George H. King and wife were a most happy and companionable couple and fine neighbors. He was a shrewd business man and a good farmer. He loved dogs, hunting and fishing, being one of our first to go North deer-hunting. When the old homestead was sold in 1905, George built a home on his own farm nearby where he and his wife spent their declining years."

Frequently mentioned in articles in WHITEWATER REGISTER: account of wedding, other incidental news of him which serves mostly as proof of his lifetime residence in Adams. Two examples: Issue of Thurs Mar 15, 1888--"Spring makes changes in people's affairs as well as in the weather. Geo. H. King has bought his father's farm. Robert, his brother, from Jackson, Minn., moved down a few weeks past & works said farm".(Doc: WHITEWATER REGISTER MF P 44362 Aug 11, 1887-July 25, 1889). Issue of Sept 14, 1899 records " George King has taken down the old Holladay wind-mill and erected a new steel one. (Doc: WHITEWATER REGISTER MF P 45235 Sep 7, 1899-Apr 11, 1901)

Photos of grave obtained by Carol King in 1989 & by RKF in 1990. Relatively new and uniform tombstones suggest possibility that George &/or his wife Sarah provided new tombstones for his parents' gravesite before his or their deaths.

He stated that he was a farmer before entering service and after that until 1878 "when I was in a wagon factory. I could not do more than half a man's work...."

A deposition by a fellow soldier from his reg't, Byron Hughes of Minn., attests how deathly ill Albert was. Mitchell Barney, his brother-in-law, also made a deposition for him,date not dictated. Doc: ALPK journal; Family letters; obituary

Albert brought her from her home in Millard back to Jackson after their wedding. Good friend & frequently mentioned in ALPK journal.

ALPK journal entry July 1879: "Poor dear Lona died the 14th Mon at Lawrence Texas of typhoid fever & congestion of the brain. Albert brought her remains back to Wis. She is buried in Sugar Creek, her old home."

Date & place of death from statement by daughter Minnie Belle Day in her father Albert King's pension file. Daughter stated that she accompanied her mother's body to Millard, Wis, where she was buried. [She accompanied her father as he brought her mother's body back to Wisconsin. Minnie was then 11 years old.]

Obituary from Elkhorn (Wis.) INDEPENDENT: Mrs. Lona V. King died at her home in Lawrence, Texas, July 14th, aged 31 years, 8 months and 5 days. Her funeral services, conducted by Rev. A.J.Brill, were held in the church at Millard, on Sabbath morning, July 20th, and were attended by a large circle of relatives, friends and acquaintances who gathered from LaGrange, Sugar Creek and Troy to pay the last tokens of respect to her whose life was made up of sweet, winning, teachable ways that express better than words in whom she hath believed....... Mrs. King's sickness-typhoid fever, which culminated in congestion of the brain-was of short duration, only fourteen days.....[see file for copy of entire obituary]

CHILD 1 - Minnie Belle KING-283

Source: ALPK journal(p.27) records date & time of her birth in her parent's home. Probably named for her aunt Minnie Bratt (RIN# 269), wife of her father's brother Robert Hilton King (RIN# 58).

Born & lived in Jackson Co. until 1876 when her family moved to Lawrence, TX when she was 8 years old. Lived there until her mother's death in 1879. Accompanied father with her mother's body back to Wisconsin, most likely stayed there with family & lived in Walworth Co. most of her life. This determined because she is not in census with her father or second family & several facts record that she lived in Walworth Co:

First are several references to her in the Whitewater Register (MF P44362 Aug 11, 1887-July 25, 1889). On Nov. 24, 1887,the paper records " Miss Minnie King went to Palmyra last week to learn dressmaking of Mrs. E. Bishop". On Mar. 29, 1888, the newspaper states " Miss Minnie King went to Millard Sunday to visit relatives".

Second,the publication entitled "LaGrange Pioneers", pub. 1935, in a biographical sketch of the King family, on page 134, 5th paragraph, lists her as follows, " Only three descendants of the family remain in the LaGrange vicinity: Mesdames Robert J. Harris and George Keith now of Whitewater, daughters of Robert H. King; and Mrs. Minnie Day, Janesville, daughter of Albert D. King".

HUSBAND - Willie Porter KING-20

Doc : ALPK (his mother) Holographic Genealogy written about 1892 [Copy in file] Walworth Co. birth records did not start until 1873. Census records show both parents living in Adams before he was born there. Listed in Wisconsin 1870 census, 1 June 1870, household #4, as 13 years old, at school, born Wis.

His given name was Willie, not William. In later years, he was often called & he signed himself as Will or William, but he was always very pleased that his name was actually Willie. His brothers and some of his friends called him "Bill",& he occasionally signed that nickname to letters. There was a poem he loved to recite, which several of his grandchildren remember well. It went as follows:

My mother calls me Willie
My father calls me Will
My teacher calls me William
But the fellas call me Bill.

His education was obviously spotty, as he was the main helper on his father's farm, and his father was often absent on other business. He was still in school at age 16 [ALPK journal], not certain he graduated high school.

He moved with his family as a boy of nine to homestead in Jackson Co. in 1866. Many details of his early life in his mother's journal,also in his own retrospective journal [See file for complete journal. Copy also in Porter-King Family Papers Collection Minnesota Historical Society].

First Marriage: Jackson Co. Register Book A, page 279: "Willie Porter King of Jackson to Mary E. Trumbull by J. Kirkwood Alexander. Witnesses: Wm. V. King & R. Brown" Entry in ALPK journal Sun Jan 1st: A moderately fine day. Alice, Nellie, Selah, John, Wm & I went over to Mrs. Wilson's to attend Will & Mary's wedding. They were married this afternoon by Rev. J.K. Alexander. Quite a nice time & very nice supper. May Heaven bless them both is my best wish."

He assisted his father in the county auditor's office for several years.

In 1878 he moved to a farm in Hunter Twp., along with his parents, where he and his father formed a partnership in farming & stock raising. When his wife's health began to fail, they moved back into Jackson.

After her death, in 1888, he left his daughter Mary in the care of his mother Antoinette King in Jackson, and he moved to Jasper,helping to build that new frontier town. Some time in the spring of 1888, he studied photography & acacquired photographic equipment. That summer he erected a photography tent attached to the new office building of the Jasper Journal being edited by his brother Selah. He opened a gallery there and took many of the first photographs of the town. [Pipestone Hist. Soc. records]. He may have also started a photograph gallery at that time in Windom. Sometime around 1890, according to Olaf Nielsen [see file for interview with RKF July 1992 & HILLS OUR TOWN 1890-1990] he built a studio in Hills on the main street. This building is still standing (See photos in file), but was moved one block (to 204 Central Ave.,

Hills first?? —

between 2nd & 3rd streets) when the hardware store on Main Street expanded & needed room for its new blacksmith. Old photographs purchased July 1992 from Robert Kolbe, an antique dealer in Sioux Falls, have the logo "W.P.King, Hills and Jasper, Minn." [An important, as yet unanswered research question is to determine if that is where he met Marit Rovang]

Second Marriage: [Doc: Minnehaha Co. Courthouse, Sioux Falls, So.Dak. Rec.Bk. B, p.11] Application for marriage, facing page Certificate of Marriage. Both dated Jan 1, 1892. Witnesses: Allan Thorne & Ernest Johnson. Thorne was the Clerk of the Circuit Court who signed the marriage application; no information who Ernest Johnson was. Both bride & groom stated in the application that at that time they lived in Jasper. [Transcript of application & certified copy of marriage license & certificate in file].

In a letter to his mother dated July 15, 1892, his cousin Alice Barney Smith writes "....I am glad Will has a good wife. He will be so much better contented than living around to hotels."

He had a studio in Jasper until 1896, the year his mother died. At that point he & Mary Rovang King moved their family back to Jackson to live with & care for his father & provide a home for little 10 year old Mary, the surviving child of his first marriage.

He lived in Jackson the rest of his life, where he was well known as one of the earliest settlers and one of its best story tellers.

About 1898 he built a large frame home at the north end of Main St. in Jackson to house his studio & the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT, at that point owned & edited by his brother John. The family lived on the second floor. Reginald George King was the first child born there. Willie & Mary still lived there all during RKF's childhood. [It was torn down sometime in the 1960's]

1905 Minnesota Census, Jackson Co, Jackson, ED 15, Nos 65-74: King, Willie P, 47; Mary R, 34; Genevra M., 18; Grace P., 11; William V., 9; James H., 8; Reginald, 6; Nellie, 5; Viola, 3; Irve, 9/12.

At various times he was Jackson's Fire Chief [see SOUVENIR OF JACKSON in files for photographs], City Assessor, & Justice of the Peace. He was a Court Commissioner from 1907-1940.

But he was primarily a photographer, an artist who took many of the earliest pictures of the new towns of Jackson, Jasper & Hills, as well as others. His many surviving photographs show imagination and individuality rare for his time, especially those he took of children. His work is documented in a book now being assembled of the work of early photographers in the Sioux Falls, S.D. area. Many of his photographs exist, some in RKF's files, many held by other family members, some in historical societies in the towns mentioned, yet others on sale in at least one antique shop in Sioux Falls.

He loved literature, especially poetry and could recite volumes of it from memory. According to his youngest daughter Kittie, at night he would retire early to his bed and commit new poems to memory. He was a life-long Democrat, fascinated with politics and history. He was the author of many articles on the early history of Jackson Co., many of which were published in the PILOT.

His vision of life, articulated in his diary, which he kept off & on for 27 years (copy in file) encompassed much information about late 19th & early 20th century Minnesota life, such as swimming in a swimming hole & going to school in Austin in 1866; his first sight of Jackson, then just "a laid out plat for the village....not a building or a tree, just fresh burnt off prairie and the only thing to show was the stakes that marked the blocks & lots"; the first, false Armistice of WWI, & finally the real end of WWI. His last entry, on July 1, 1944, provides a fitting epitaph for his vision. He wrote " As I pick up this scrapbook and look it over I get some idea of how time is on the wing. Almost 26 years ago we were waiting for the end of World War #1 and now just as eagerly and more so than then we are waiting for the curtain to be rung down on World War #2 with the hope that it will be the last of wars. In the first war I had two sons one who was electrocuted shortly after getting back. The other died a few years..[unintelligible]...from the effects of gas he got in the war. Now in this war I have three grandsons and the fourth just enlisting and I at the ripeage of 87 the 9th of this month am marking time waiting for the return of my grandsons and nephews. God grant that they may return safely." His death came 39 days later, without knowing that all of them would safely return.

Death: Jackson Co. Death Reg. Book F, p. 99, # C, 87 years 29 days. Cause of death " Diabetes mellitis/ Sunstroke" He was on his knees working in his garden when he was stricken, and died a day later. He had never in his life been a patient in a hospital before that day.

He and his wife Mary are buried in the first row of graves in Riverside Cem., next to the grave of their son Vance. Buried with them are two grandchildren who died in infancy. One, Leitha, was the daughter of Robert & Mildred King. The other, James, was the newborn son of Irve (Pete) & Rose King.

An artist, a raconteur whose stories extended back to the very beginnings of Jackson, a dreamer, a gentle and genial man, stone-deaf from about the age of 50, he was much beloved by his family and fellow citizens.

His philosophy of life was well articulated in an article he wrote for the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT the year before his death. The main focus of the article was his recollection of the first winter his family spent in Jackson (see FGR #10, his father's history). But he began by quoting an unnamed author: "Because I have loved life, I shall have no sorrow to die. I have sent up my gladness on wings, to be lost in the blue of the sky. I have run and leaped with the rain.

I have taken the wind to my breast. My cheeks like a drowsy child to the face of the earth I have pressed. Because I have loved life, I shall have no sorrow to die."

Commenting on that first hard winter in Wisconsin Twp., he said in the same article:"Today when I am told than I cannot have certain things [the article was written in the middle of World War II], I can tell them,'alright, I learned my lesson to go without things that I would have very much liked to have, during my first winter in Minnesota. Out of that bunch of the early pioneers of Wisconsin Township, I only know of two who are alive today, myself and Alice Barney Smith [his cousin] now living in Pennsylvania"

"Today we meet with so many who are dissatisfied with the rationing of food and other things and I want to say to them that if they now had to go through what our folks had to contend with in the winter of 1867, they would think and know that they lived in the very best state in the union with good warm homes, plenty to eat, warm clothing and everything to be thankful for and willing to sacrifice in order to bring about everlasting peace not only to us of this land of plenty but to all the downtrodden people of the world."

"Last Wednesday evening I had the pleasure of attending the Presbyterian Diamond Anniversary and although my deafness prevented my hearing anything that was said or letters that were read, I had the pleasure of viewing the pictures shown upon the screen by Mayor Iverson, and it would be useless for me to try to describe the sensations and thoughts that passed through my mind as I looked upon the people and buildings of that long ago, for to that sturdy bunch of the early pioneers we of today owe all that we feel proud of in our county. I myself feel that life has been well worth living from the fact that I was privileged to live the greater part of my life in Jackson County. In conclusion let me quote from an unknown author:

'And Lord, may my shouts be ungrudging and clear,
A tribute that comes from the heart;
And let me not cherish a snarl or a sneer,
Or play any sniveling part;
Let me say "There they ride on whom laurels bestowed
Since they played the game better than I";
Let me stand with a smile by the side of the road,
And cheer as the winners go by.'

Until we meet again.

W.P.King"

WIFE - Mary Elizabeth TRUMBULL-198

Doc: Marriage Rec Jackson Co Book A P 279 "Willie Porter King of Jackson Co to Mary E. Trumbull 1 Jan 1882 by J. Kirkwood Alexander. Witnesses: W.V.King & R.Brown.

HUSBAND Willie Porter KING-20 Yr of Birth 1857
WIFE Mary Elizabeth TRUMBULL-198 Yr of Birth 1854

Father was Horace Theodore Trumbull, b. 25 Feb 1831; m. 2 Apr 1853 at Libertyville, Lake Co., Ill, to Melissa A. Hagerty, b. in Ireland. The family seems to have moved to Jackson some time in the mid 1870s. Horace d. 19 Sep 1907; she d. 3 Mar 1859. Their son Will was a friend of Willie King's, & that may be how Willie & Mary met.

ALPK, in the 2nd volume of her journal, wrote, on Sunday January 1st 1882: "A moderately fine day. Alice, Nellie, Selah, John, Wm & I went over to Mrs Wilsons to attend Will & Mary's wedding. They were married this afternoon by Rev J K Alexander. Quite a nice time & very nice supper. May Heaven bless them both is my best wish."

After the wedding, the young couple lived on their farm in Hunter Township. On Dec 17,1882, ALPK wrote "The little baby girl born this morning." There are numerous notes about family visits, and on July 16, 1883, this note:"Mary came down to see the Dr. She is quite poorly." This was the first warning that Mary's health was quite fragile.

Matters worsened when baby Bessie developed whooping cough, and on September 25, 1884, Antoinete wrote: "Little Bessie died this morning. On September 26, the following: "A rainy dreary day. Buried little Bessie today...How lonely Will & Mary will be without their baby. How she has suffered & Mary is quite poorly Hope she will feel better when she is rested. Will & Mary are staying with us for awhile. Mary is very poorly. On December 3, "Mary started for Chester Neb to visit her sister Mrs Brown. Hope the change of climate will help her. In March, 1885 "Mary came home in March but not really any better. Her visit was not as beneficial as we hoped."

Antoinette's journal was spotty throughout these several years, as she and her family struggled with the deaths of her sister Vie, her two grandchildren, & William & daughter Nellie's poor health. She made no further reference to Mary's health until Sunday, July 18, 1886, when she wrote, "Called up bright & early to receive a visitor who arrived at 1/2 six A.M. A little granddaughter. Will & Mary feel quite proud of their little 7 lb girl."

Although there is no further reference to her health in the next year, Mary obviously became gradually weaker, and on February 14, 1887, ALPK wrote the first of a series of notes:"Belle Rollins [Mary's sister] & Marys father have made us quite a visit...this morning they left us. It was a sad parting with Mary. They will never meet again in this world..." Thurs 24 "Mary failing every day."....Fri 25"Mary up & dressed for the last time. Poor girl she is surely going."....Sat 27 "Mary failing fast--great difficulty in breathing. Dr Portmann came in to see her this eve. Said she would not live long. She says it is all right,she is ready & willing to go. Poor child." Mon 28 "Mary rested better the latter part of the night but she is going, surely going. Will Trmbull came about noon. As the sun went down Mary ceased to breathe. Mary is dead."

The last of ALPK's notes, March 2:" Poor Mary was buried this afternoon. Mr Cheadle preached her sermon from the 23rd Psalm. The singing was very nice. We all miss Mary."

NOTE: Neither Jackson or Jasper vital records have a record of Mary's death. She almost undoubtedly died of tuberculosis.

CHILD 2 - Genevra Mary KING-200

Doc: Jackson Co. Birth Rec. Book A, p. 87, item 2; Family rec. from grdtr. Roberta Cunningham Bromeling

Always called "Mary". In later life, called "Grma" by her grandchildren

Her mother died when she was seven months old. She was brought up in Jackson by her grandmother, Antoinette Porter King, after her mother died. Her father, Will Porter King, remarried and lived in Jasper with his second wife Mary Rovang, and their children of that marriage, until Antoinette died when Mary was 10 years old. (When ALPK died in 1896, her last words were said to be,"Take care of little Mary"). Antoinette also wrote about Mary in letters to her cousin Louise Dann Wilson (RIN# 116--See file). Mary's father & step-mother moved back to Jackson at this point & from then on she was more or less a member of their family. In a note found in her papers long after her death, she wrote that she "lived in Pipestone as a child and in Flandreau before & after young girl & marriage." Not sure when that would have been or with whom--needs further research.

Baptised in 1902 & confirmed in 1905, both by Bishop Whipple in the Episcopal Church in Jackson, Minn. She was said to have always been very proud that the bishop had baptised & confirmed her. [This suggests that either the Kings or her mother's family were Episcopals early on--needs further research]

Education: Graduated Jackson High School 1906. Passed state examination & received Minnesota Common School Certificate for First Grade Sept.1, 1908.

Occupation: School teacher in Minnesota for a number of years. Taught in Jackson area schools,1906-07 Hunter Twp; 1907-08 Johnson Twp. east of Jackson, a two room country school; 1908-09 Jay Twp., Martin Co., near Sherburn, 1st thru 8th; in August 1909 she was certified to teach First Grade (See file for copy of certificate)1909-10 taught in rural school in Pipestone Co., walking 5 miles down a railroad track each day to get to the school; then 1910-11 taught at rural school near Airlie, Minn., where she met her first husband and married him at the end of the school year.

First Marriage: Doc.letter from daughter Elizabeth dated 21 May 1969 (See file) Her husband died in Oct 1918, age 36 years, 10 months, 24 days, of lobar pneumonia. He was a victim of the flu epidemic, and 4 other people in their little town died that same day. Mary was also stricken with flu, but slowly recovered.

Attended a business college in Sioux Fall, SD, when first widowed; was the bookkeeper at the Flandreau Creamery until her second marriage.

Second Marriage: 29 June 1921 to William Walter Green at Salem, SD. Mr. Green, b. 16 Apr 1871, was Moody County Clerk of Courts, which office he held for 24 years until his death 2 Nov 1933 of nephritis & diabetes

In Sept of 1934 she went to Vermillion, SD, as cook at the Theta Sorority House for 5 years. On July 1, 1938, she started as cook at the State Soldier's Home Hospital in Hot Springs, SD, which position she held until she retired in 1956. At that time she became a member of the home.

Third marriage: 28 Nov 1943 to William Krambeck at Hot Springs, SD. He was b. 20 June 1890 & d. 10 Mar 1948 of asthma complications. He was a member of the Soldier's Home during their marriage. There were no children of this marriage. However, in a recent letter, Mary's granddaughter Roberta states that he was the "Only grandfather on Mom's side we knew...Grpa K. was everything a grandfather should be".

Her daughter Betty, in a letter dated 21 May 1969, detailed her mother's many volunteer activities. She was always active in the Episcopal Church, the Order of Eastern Star, American Legion Auxiliary (Pres. of a chapter), Rebecca (a Noble Grand of its Past Grand Noble Club & a 50 member),WRC (held many offices on local & state level, was a member for 57 years), & OES (50 years). In December 1965 she was awarded a Certificate of Appreciation for "loyal and valuable services given voluntarily to the veteran members at the South Dakota State Soldier's Home". She gave over 2000 hours of volunteer service to the home after her retirement, reading to, playing cards & cribbage with, writing letters for & just visiting with the different men "even in the mental wards where the volunteers didn't want to go." She was a member in later years when it was organized of the World War Widow I, also a member of the Royal Neighbors of America & of the DAVA, The Pine Tree Extension Club of Hot Springs.

Her hobbies were "reading always and while still teaching & before my father passed away she did china painting and had her own kiln for baking the painting on. She did some beautiful pieces of which I [Betty Ekern Cunningham] am very proud. She loved her flower garden of which iris and gladioli were her favorite...and not the least of her hobbies was cooking and collecting recipes of all kinds....." When she was no longer able to volunteer at the Home, she did hand mending at the Infirmary & at Christmas would help in the gift shop wrapping packages. "Her mending was something to behold---such tiny even stitches."

HUSBAND Willie Porter KING-20 Yr of Birth 1857
WIFE Mary Elizabeth TRUMBULL-198 Yr of Birth 1854

Death/Burial: She was a severe diabetic for many years. In Nov 1962 she suffered a severe heart attack from which she never fully recovered. [JGF,RKF & children visited her at the Home in 1965, at which time she was physically quite impaired, but mentally sharp & able to enjoy our visit]. She became quite senile & was no longer able to recognize her family. She died at the Home Infirmary on Feb. 7th at 9:45 am from a cerebrovascular thrombosis, with contributing factors from diabetes. Her daughter, one of her grandsons, one sister, & her Pastor were all with her.

She is buried with William Krambeck in the State Home Cemetery "out there in her beloved Black Hills".

HUSBAND - Willie Porter KING-20

Doc : ALPK (his mother) Holographic Genealogy written about 1892 [Copy in file] Walworth Co. birth records did not start until 1873. Census records show both parents living in Adams before he was born there. Listed in Wisconsin 1870 census, 1 June 1870, household #4, as 13 years old, at school, born Wis.

His given name was Willie, not William. In later years, he was often called & he signed himself as Will or William, but he was always very pleased that his name was actually Willie. His brothers and some of his friends called him "Bill",& he occasionally signed that nickname to letters. There was a poem he loved to recite, which several of his grandchildren remember well. It went as follows:

My mother calls me Willie
My father calls me Will
My teacher calls me William
But the fellas call me Bill.

His education was obviously spotty, as he was the main helper on his father's farm, and his father was often absent on other business. He was still in school at age 16 [ALPK journal], not certain he graduated high school.

He moved with his family as a boy of nine to homestead in Jackson Co. in 1866. Many details of his early life in his mother's journal,also in his own retrospective journal [See file for complete journal. Copy also in Porter-King Family Papers Collection Minnesota Historical Society].

First Marriage: Jackson Co. Register Book A, page 279: "Willie Porter King of Jackson to Mary E. Trumbull by J. Kirkwood Alexander. Witnesses: Wm. V. King & R. Brown" Entry in ALPK journal Sun Jan 1st: A moderately fine day. Alice, Nellie, Selah, John, Wm & I went over to Mrs. Wilson's to attend Will & Mary's wedding. They were married this afternoon by Rev. J.K. Alexander. Quite a nice time & very nice supper. May Heaven bless them both is my best wish."

He assisted his father in the county auditor's office for several years.

In 1878 he moved to a farm in Hunter Twp., along with his parents, where he and his father formed a partnership in farming & stock raising. When his wife's health began to fail, they moved back into Jackson.

After her death, in 1888, he left his daughter Mary in the care of his mother Antoinette King in Jackson, and he moved to Jasper,helping to build that new frontier town. Some time in the spring of 1888, he studied photography & acacquired photographic equipment. That summer he erected a photography tent attached to the new office building of the Jasper Journal being edited by his brother Selah. He opened a gallery there and took many of the first photographs of the town. [Pipestone Hist. Soc. records]. He may have also started a photograph gallery at that time in Windom. Sometime around 1890, according to Olaf Nielsen [see file for interview with RKF July 1992 & HILLS OUR TOWN 1890-1990] he built a studio in Hills on the main street. This building is still standing (See photos in file), but was moved one block (to 204 Central Ave., between 2nd & 3rd streets) when the hardware store on Main Street expanded & needed room for its new blacksmith. Old photographs purchased July 1992 from Robert Kolbe, an antique dealer in Sioux Falls, have the logo "W.P.King, Hills and Jasper, Minn." [An important, as yet unanswered research question is to determine if that is where he met Marit Rovang]

Second Marriage: [Doc: Minnehaha Co. Courthouse, Sioux Falls, So.Dak. Rec.Bk. B, p.11] Application for marriage, facing page Certificate of Marriage. Both dated Jan 1, 1892. Witnesses: Allan Thorne & Ernest Johnson. Thorne was the Clerk of the Circuit Court who signed the marriage application; no information who Ernest Johnson was. Both bride & groom stated in the application that at that time they lived in Jasper. [Transcript of application & certified copy of marriage license & certificate in file].

In a letter to his mother dated July 15, 1892, his cousin Alice Barney Smith writes "....I am glad Will has a good wife. He will be so much better contented than living around to hotels."

He had a studio in Jasper until 1896, the year his mother died. At that point he & Mary Rovang King moved their family back to Jackson to live with & care for his father & provide a home for little 10 year old Mary, the surviving child of his first marriage.

He lived in Jackson the rest of his life, where he was well known as one of the earliest settlers and one of its best story tellers.

About 1898 he built a large frame home at the north end of Main St. in Jackson to house his studio & the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT, at that point owned & edited by his brother John. The family lived on the second floor. Reginald George King was the first child born there. Willie & Mary still lived there all during RKF's childhood. [It was torn down sometime in the 1960's]

1900 US Census for Minn, Jackson Co, Jackson Village, Vol 26, Sheet 12, Line 31:

King, William P.		July 1857	42	Wisconsin
Mary	W	May 1871	29	Iowa
Grace Pauline	D	Sep 1892	7	Minnesota
William V	S	Feb 1895	5	""
James H.P.	S	Oct 1896	3	""
Reginald G.	S	June 1898	1	""
Mary G.	D	July 1886	13	""

1905 Minnesota Census, Jackson Co, Jackson, ED 15, Nos 65-74: King, Willie P, 47; Mary R, 34; Genevra M., 18; Grace P., 11; William V., 9; James H., 8; Reginald, 6; Nellie, 5; Viola, 3; Irve, 9/12.

At various times he was Jackson's Fire Chief [see SOUVENIR OF JACKSON in files for photographs], City Assessor, & Justice of the Peace. He was a Court Commissioner from 1907-1940.

But he was primarily a photographer, an artist who took many of the earliest pictures of the new towns of Jackson, Jasper & Hills, as well as others. His many surviving photographs show imagination and individuality rare for his time, especially those he took of children. His work is documented in a book now being assembled of the work of early photographers in the Sioux Falls, S.D. area. Many of his photographs exist, some in RKF's files, many held by other family members, some in historical societies in the towns mentioned, yet others on sale in at least one antique shop in Sioux Falls.

He loved literature, especially poetry and could recite volumes of it from memory. According to his youngest daughter Kittie, at night he would retire early to his bed and commit new poems to memory. He was a life-long Democrat, fascinated with politics and history. He was the author of many articles on the early history of Jackson Co., many of which were published in the PILOT.

His vision of life, articulated in his diary, which he kept off & on for 27 years (copy in file) encompassed much information about late 19th & early 20th century Minnesota life, such as swimming in a swimming hole & going to school in Austin in 1866; his first sight of Jackson, then just "a laid out plat for the village....not a building or a tree, just fresh burnt off prairie and the only thing to show was the stakes that marked the blocks & lots"; the first, false Armistice of WWI, & finally the real end of WWI. His last entry, on July 1, 1944, provides a fitting epitaph for his vision. He wrote " As I pick up this scrapbook and look it over I get some idea of how time is on the wing. Almost 26 years ago we were waiting for the end of World War #1 and now just as eagerly and more so than then we are waiting for the curtain to be rung down on World War #2 with the hope that it will be the last of wars. In the first war I had two sons one who was electrocuted shortly after getting back. The other died a few years..[unintelligible]...from the effects of gas he got in the war. Now in this war I have three grandsons and the fourth just enlisting and I at the ripeage of 87 the 9th of this month am marking time waiting for the return of my grandsons and nephews. God grant that they may return safely." His death came 39 days later, without knowing that all of them would safely return.

Death: Jackson Co. Death Reg. Book F, p. 99, # C, 87 years 29 days. Cause of death " Diabetes mellitis/ Sunstroke" He was on his knees working in his garden when he was stricken, and died a day later. He had never in his life been a patient in a hospital before that day.

He and his wife Mary are buried in the first row of graves in Riverside Cem., next to the grave of their son Vance. Buried with them are two grandchildren who died in infancy. One, Leitha, was the daughter of Robert & Mildred King. The other, James, was the newborn son of Irve (Pete) & Rose King.

An artist, a raconteur whose stories extended back to the very beginnings of Jackson, a dreamer, a gentle and genial man, stone-deaf from about the age of 50, he was much beloved by his family and fellow citizens.

His philosophy of life was well articulated in an article he wrote for the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT the year before his death. The main focus of the article was his recollection of the first winter his family spent in Jackson (see FGR #10, his father's history). But he began by quoting an unnamed author: "Because I have loved life, I shall have no sorrow to die. I have sent up my gladness on wings, to be lost in the blue of the sky. I have run and leaped with the rain.

I have taken the wind to my breast. My cheeks like a drowsy child to the face of the earth I have pressed. Because I have loved life, I shall have no sorrow to die."

Commenting on that first hard winter in Wisconsin Twp., he said in the same article:"Today when I am told than I cannot have certain things [the article was written in the middle of World War II], I can tell them,'alright, I learned my lesson to go without things that I would have very much liked to have, during my first winter in Minnesota. Out of that bunch of the early pioneers of Wisconsin Township, I only know of two who are alive today, myself and Alice Barney Smith [his cousin] now living in Pennsylvania"

"Today we meet with so many who are dissatisfied with the rationing of food and other things and I want to say to them that if they now had to go through what our folks had to contend with in the winter of 1867, they would think and know that they lived in the very best state in the union with good warm homes, plenty to eat, warm clothing and everything to be thankful for and willing to sacrifice in order to bring about everlasting peace not only to us of this land of plenty but to all the downtrodden people of the world."

"Last Wednesday evening I had the pleasure of attending the Presbyterian Diamond Anniversary and although my deafness prevented my hearing anything that was said or letters that were read, I had the pleasure of viewing the pictures shown upon the screen by Mayor Iverson, and it would be useless for me to try to describe the sensations and thoughts that passed through my mind as I looked upon the people and buildings of that long ago, for to that sturdy bunch of the early pioneers we of today owe all that we feel proud of in our county. I myself feel that life has been well worth living from the fact that I was privileged to live the greater part of my life in Jackson County. In conclusion let me quote from an unknown author:

'And Lord, may my shouts be ungrudging and clear,
A tribute that comes from the heart;
And let me not cherish a snarl or a sneer,
Or play any sniveling part;
Let me say "There they ride on whom laurels bestowed
Since they played the game better than I";
Let me stand with a smile by the side of the road,
And cheer as the winners go by.'

Until we meet again.

W.P.King"

WIFE - Marit (Mary) ROVANG-21

B/Chr: Family known to have been living in Pleasant Township at the time of her birth. Personal search by RKF in 1990 of Decorah & environs produced much data, including christening record for her older sister Sigrid (at the Washington Prairie Church, but no official record of her birth found to date. Needs

HUSBAND Willie Porter KING-20 Yr of Birth 1857
WIFE Marit (Mary) ROVANG-21 Yr of Birth 1871

further research.

Named for both her great-grandmothers: her father's grandmother Marit Olsdatter Kvien (RIN# 136); and her mother's grandmother Marit Gjermundsdatter Rogn (RIN#177)

In the fall of 1874, at the age of 3, she moved with her family to a homestead farm on the East bank of Mud Creek, one mile south of what is now Hills, Minn.. There she lived in a sod hut for several years, until a wood home was finished. She attended country school nearby.

In 1889-90,she moved to Sioux Falls,S.Dak., where she is listed in the City Directory of those years as Rovang, Mary Domestic, F.W. Pettigrew, Real Estate, res. Vine, NW cor Garfield Ave. (His office is listed at Phillips Ave. NE cor. 9th.). Today (1992) the F.W. Pettigrew Museum in Sioux Falls is a large stone Victorian house, once the home of Mr. Pettigrew's brother, who left it as a memorial museum to Frederick W.. Unfortunately the museum was closed on the day (Monday) when RKF/JGF were there, so we were unable to explore it. However, the director of the Pipestone Historical Society is certain that the domestic help of Mr. Pettigrew have been documented & further research may yield more information.[It was customary in many Norwegian families in Norway, therefore probably also in America, to allow their daughters to serve as domestics in English-speaking homes as a means of learning the language and also perfecting housekeeping skills.]

Mary's sister is also listed in the Sioux Falls City Directory of 1889-90 as Rovang, Sarah, Domestic, 427 W 10th. Sarah is listed again in the 1890-91 directory: Rovang, Sarah, Domestic, 524 S. Spring Ave. Mary does not appear in the subsequent city directories, & as yet it is not certain whether by then she had moved to Jasper, or where or when she met Willie.

She was the only member of her family not to marry a Norwegian. That plus the fact that he was much older (14 years), had previously been married and, even worse from her parents'point of view, was a DEMOCRAT, could account for the fact that they were married in Sioux Falls and not at home as all her sisters were. Also, according ,to Glays Paulson (her sister Betze's daughter), Mary was engaged to marry a farmer in Hills before she met Willie.

After her marriage she devoted herself entirely to caring for her family. An excellent cook & housekeeper whose daughter (Kittie) remembers to this day her mother's incredibly high standards for ironing, she was a strong-willed but quiet woman who seldom left her home. She loved flowers, and always had a large garden, many plants and fresh bouquets all around her home. She also loved birds, and kept several cages of what she called "love-birds" on a high shelf in the large, combined dining-living room. Most often, the doors of the cages were open and the birds flew freely about the room, a situation somewhat intimidating to at least one of her grandchildren! Gladys, her niece, remembers her as a woman who never got excited or upset, for whom things somehow always came out all right. She also commented on the superior manners her children (the King children) had,. and how "kissy" they were all were.

According to her obituary [JACKSON COUNTY PILOT July 1, 1948] she was a member of the Women's Relief Corps, the Royal Neighbors of America, & the American Legion Auxiliary.

CHILD 1 - Grace Pauline KING-22

Doc: Birth Rec Jasper, MN, 1-254-5; Family rec; obituary; newspaper clippings

Born in Jasper where her father had a photography studio. Subject of many of his photographs of children. At age 3 she moved to Jackson with her family, and lived there the remainder of her life, to the age of 94 years, becoming one of Jackson's longest lived and most cherished citizens.

Educated in Jackson Public Schools through two years of high school

Marriage: Jackson Co. Marriage Rec. Book F p 558.

Major source of family information. King family historian of her generation. Vance Freymann (grand-nephew) visited her & taped an interview with her during his junior year at Northwestern University (See file) in which she talked about Jackson & her family's early history. She was the last King to live in Jackson, and her death ended the period of 122 years (1866-1988) that the King family played a major role in development and history of the town.

She was an unusual woman of her time. An accomplished pianist, as a young woman she played the organ in the orchestra pit to accompany the silent movies in the Jackson theater. She joined the Presbyterian Church in 1908, & at her death was its oldest member. For many years she was the organist for the church that her Grandmother Antoinette helped found. She was the pianist for many civic organizations in Jackson, and often led her family in singing around the piano.

She was the first and to this date the only woman Postmaster (Frank Holecek was the Postmaster when he died) for Jackson. She was awarded the job, and held it from 1940 to 1963. She said in an interview that she worked with all men and could remember seeing "only a few women" at postmasters' meeting the first few years. When asked in a newspaper interview what she liked most about her position, she said "I liked working with the public."

She was an officer and held 50 year pins from many organizations, among them Rebekah Lodge, Eastern Star,American Legion Auxiliary,Girl Scouts. In 1968 she was selected as Jackson County's Outstanding Senior Citizen and later that year as one of two outstanding senior citizens for the State of Minnesota. She was honored in this role at the Minnesota State Fair.

She was ordained a deacon of the First Presbyterian Church in Jackson in 1965.

For a number of years, after she herself was rather incapacitated by age and required the use of a walker, she initiated and then operated the small senior citizen center in Jackson, treating her clients with warm understanding. She would walk slowly back to her own home, two blocks away, each noon for her lunch in order to save the center's money, and never equated her own infirmities with those of her elderly clients. Indeed, she once remarked to her niece RKF that she thought " Old folks are a lot more difficult to deal with than adolescents"!! Many biographical sketches are available on her. (See file)

Unfortunately she was senile her last few years & unable to continue to communicate with her devoted family. She died at the Good Samaritan Nursing Home in Jackson. Her funeral service in the First Presbyterian Church was presided over by Rev. J. David Johnson. Her nephew Don King was one of her pallbearers.

CHILD 2 - William Vance KING-23

Doc: Birth Rec. Jasper, MN, 1-301-1; also Birth place & date Soldier's discharge rec. (See file for copy)

Born in Jasper where his father owned a photography studio. He is featured in many early childhood photographs.(See file) Named for his paternal grandfather William V. King. Grandfather was known to dislike his middle name, Vipen, so Vance may have been substituted in order to give this child the same monogram Let avoid the disliked name. (See FGR W V King, RIN#49, for details)

Lived much of his childhood with relatives (Selah?? Rovangs??)in Jasper, again according to the published obituary. Was confirmed in the Norwegian Lutheran Church in Jasper. Returned to Jackson as a young adult, was employed there & lived with his parents.

Military Record: Voluntarily enlisted December 14, 1917 #1866802 Cook Cas. Det., 163rd D.B. Last assigned 2nd Ord. Repair Shop Det.; Served in A.E.F., left U.S. 27 May 1918; Ret. U.S. 9 June 1918. (Family lore says he served in France 11 months). Honorably discharged at Camp Dodge, IA, 5 April 1919. Rec. states he was 5 ft 10 1/2 in tall, blue eyes, brown hair, dark complexion, occupation at time of enlistment truck driver; excellent character, no wounds rec'd. in service. (See file for Rec.)

He returned to Jackson & went to work as a lineman for the telephone company. He was engaged to a nurse from Chicago named Agnes Lee. (Nellie King has her photograph).

He was killed in a tragic accident the summer after he returned from the army. A headline article in the Jackson County Pilot (Number 50 Friday, Aug. 22, 1919 See file) states:

" Last Friday morning Vance King was repairing a telephone wire. He was working on a pole in the west part of town just across the street east of the Rev. Knutson residence. Electric light wires 2300 volts were also fastened to this pole. In some way he touched these wires and immediately was powerless to move of his own accord. He fell back against the wires and this strong electric current ignited his clothing which started to burn. Several people arrived on the scene and Rev. Knutson put in a phone call for the power house so the current could be shut off. It was nearly five minutes before the telephone connection was madeand in the meantime those who had arrived at the scene of the accident were unable to be of any assistance. The current was finally turned off and the body was taken from the wires by means of a rope. At first it was thought that Vance was dead but he began to struggle from the agony of severe burns. He was taken to the office of Dr. Portmann and every medical aid was given him. He survived only a few hours and suffered terribly from the burns which in some places were clear to the bone."

Death: Jackson Co. Reg. Book E, p. 136, # 98. Age 24 years, 6 months, 10 days. Occupation telephone lineman. Cause of death " Electrolasis, accidentally coming in contact with charged line while at work as lineman".

His funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, August 16. All the stores in Jackson closed at that time. The service was conducted in the Presbyterian Church by Rev. Schock. Relatives present from out of town were: G.T. Rovang, grandfather; Tosten Rovang, uncle; Mrs. Knute Helle, aunt { Sarah Rovang}; Mrs. John Helgeson, aunt { Anna Rovang}, & her son & daughter, all of Hills, Minn., and Selah King, uncle, Flandreau, S. Dak.

RKF's father, George King was deeply affected all his life by this terrible death, as indeed was his whole family. Photographs (in file & in possession of Vance Gordon King Freymann) show him to be a handsome, stapping young man, & he seems to have been loved by all. A final quote from his obituary says " Vance King will be missed by everyone who knew him. He had a pleasing, carefree disposition, always seeing the comical side of everything. When he thought his country needed him he entered the service and gave the best he had. He made the supreme sacrifice to country and to duty. The pity of it is that this young man should be taken at a time when he had just stood the test of character and citizenship and was ready to reap the blessing of many years of happiness."

Developed tuberculosis shortly after discharge, supposedly as a result of being gassed in a trench during battle at Argonne.

HUSBAND Willie Porter KING-20 Yr of Birth 1857
WIFE Marit (Mary) ROVANG-21 Yr of Birth 1871

His reputation within the family as a warm and much loved son & brother is poignantly illustrated by a postcard (see file) he sent 3 June 1933 to his brother George from a VA hospital in Tuscon, AZ. The picture on the front of the card is of the hospital. Addressed to "Dear Geo & Rena & Kiddies," his message was "This is the resort I am stopping at this summer. Kind of neat don't you think so........Pretty little girl to make my bed every morning & give me a bath twice a week. As ever, Bro & Uncle, Jim".

His sister Kittie King McGrady, in an interview with RKF [July 1992], indicated that his health problems were compounded by his wife's beliefs, based on Christian Scientism, that he should not be hospitalized or treated medically. Also, she was emotionally unstable (indeed she was in a mental institution and may have been unaware of his death when it occurred). According to Kittie, his friends finally persuaded him to enter the Veteran's Hospital in Glendale, CA where he subsequently died.

His sister Grace made three trips to see him during his last years; her husband Frank Holecek, son Boyd and his brother George all also visited him.
visited him.

Presumption is that he was married, died & buried in Glendale. Records need to be found & site validated.

Educated through high school in Jackson. Was well known locally as a star player on the high school football team.

Delancey was a street next to Pump St.in Manhattan where his great-great-grandmother Ruth Lyman Porter lived in 1821; Delaney was the name of an early Walworth Co. minister known to the Porters and possibly the Kings. Not sure of any significance with either one.

His sister Kittie reminisced that he was an outdoorsman, very private and quiet. An exceptionally strong swimmer, she recalled a time when he swam at least fifty yards in a strong current across the Des Moines River, carrying a cable to the other side for the telephone company. Another family story she remembered is that he hated to wear shoes, even when there was snow on the ground.

HUSBAND Edward W. DAVIES-288 Yr of Birth 1855
WIFE Ellen Greenwood (Nellie) KING-51 Yr of Birth 1859

HUSBAND - Edward W. DAVIES-288

Doc. THE ROSE HISTORY BOOK, PIPESTONE COUNTY BIOGRAPHIES, p 677; also his obituary in the PIPESTONE COUNTY STAR, Vol. 29, No. 9, front page, col. 1.; granddaughter Margaret Stearns Haley

Parents were John & Elizabeth Anne (Owens) Davies, natives of Wales, who had settled in Shropshire a few years before he was born. Family emigrated to America in July, 1857 in a "sailing vessel". Journey took 6 weeks. They settled first in Canada, then in Milwaukee, Wis., later in Rock Co. in Wis., where he was educated. John Davies died in 1909; Elizabeth Davies died in 1907. Both are buried at Riverside Cemetery, next to the Wm. V. King plot, along with their twin daughters Libbie, b. 1862, d. 15 June 1884; and Maria, called "Mari" Davies Avery, b. 1862, d. Aug 14, 1884. Both girls were close friends on the King children and are frequently mentioned in Antoinette's journals, as are their parents. Both died if tuberculosis. Also buried in the Davies plot are two of Ed & Nellie King Davies' children: Gale Harwood, b. 9 Apr 1882, d. 6 Jan 1884; & Elizabeth Louise, b. 22 Aug 1903, d. 20 Jul 1904.

The Davies family became homesteaders (in Middletown township) and pioneer residents of Jackson, Minnesota in 1869. Edward finished his schooling there and held a number of jobs in Jackson---as a store clerk "in the store of the pioneer merchant of Jackson", and for two years as a deputy in the office of the county treasurer. He then accepted a position to manage the yard of the C.L. Colman Lumber company, which was established at the new town of Lakefield. "It was nothing but a bare townsite in July, 1879, and the very first building erected was the office of the Colman Lumber Company, which young Davies himself built." He is also credited with giving Lakefield its name.

In 1879 he was transferred by his company to the "then infant village of Pipestone" and was manager of the lumber yard there for seven years. [US Census for Village of Pipestone, 1880, lists "E.W.Davies, 25 yr old, Lumber agent, b. England. There were only 7 households on that page!]

He began his career in banking in 1886 by acquiring an interest in the Pipestone Co. Bank (now the Pipestone National Bank). He began as a cashier, and four years later he was promoted to President. He held that position for many years. He was an officer of several more banks & institutions, mayor of Pipestone from 1923 to 1925, active in many civic organizations. Member of Shrine, a life member Osman Temple of the Mystic Shrine in St. Paul. He was for 20 years a member of the Southwestern Minnesota Sanatorium Commission & very active in its affairs.

Either as an entrepreneur or as a mentor, or both, records from Jasper show him involved in a number of enterprises there as the new village developed:

From the HISTORY OF PIPESTONE cOUNTY jOURNALISM, "The first issue of the Jasper Journal appeared on July 27, 1888. For many years it was co-owned by Selah S. King & E.W.Davies, the former being in active charge." (Selah was Ed's brother-in-law, 9 years his junior)

From the JASPER JOURNAL (June 6, 1963)"Lumberyard business began in

HUSBAND Edward W. DAVIES-288 Yr of Birth 1855
WIFE Ellen Greenwood (Nellie) KING-51 Yr of Birth 1859

Jasper in Dec 1888 when E.W.Dvies, TA Black & JH Taylor formed a corp. with Taylor mgr."

The first Jasper Business Directory, pub. March 12, 1889, listed "General Merchandise, Davies and Coombe." (Levi Coombe was Ed's wife's cousin)

Another newspaper item, from the PIPESTONE STAR, week of June 19, 1909: "Banker E.W.Davies and son Burr, of this city, accompanied by J.H. Taylor, of Jasper, left Saturday on a trip to the Seattle Exposition."

Second Marriage: In Pipestone July 22, 1914 to Allie I. Humble. b. Pipestone 19 Sept 1885. (Her parents were Herbert Humble, b. England & Gertrude Green, b. Pipestone.) They had one child, a daughter named Elizabeth Anne, born May 23, 1919. Called "Tin". Married 19 Feb 1949 at White Bear Lake to John Uppgren. He d. 27 Oct 1988. She still lives at White Bear Lake. They had 3 daughters: 1) Anne Davies Uppgren, b. 18 Jul 1951, Mpls., MN,d. 5 Dec 1972, Mankato, MN. 2) Nancy Allison Uppgren, b. 17 Jan 1954, Mpls. WIFE - Ellen Greenwood (Nellie) KING-51

B/Chr: Birth predates official Walworth Co. records (they start in 1873). Doc. from ALPK genealogy. A biography of her husband in THE ROSE HISTORY BOOK, PIPESTONE COUNTY BIOGRAPHIES, p. 677, states she "...was born in Walworth County, Wisconsin, on Christmas Day, 1858".

Named Ellen, called Nell or Nellie. [The name Ellen appears in every generation of the King/ Greenwood families for at least 4 generations, and she is probably named Ellen Greenwood for her great-grandmother Nelly Greenwood Hilton (RIN# 182.]

Born near or at her King grandparents' home, when her father was farming near them. At age two, in 1861, moved with her family to Crawford Co., Wis.. Her mother brought Nellie & her older brother Willie back to the King grandparents' home to stay during the time her father was serving in the army, from 1864 to 1865. After he was discharged, in 1865, the family to Austin, Mower Co., Minn., where her father worked for a farmer until he and her mother finally moved their family to Wisconsin Township, Jackson Co., Minn., where they homesteaded.

This is Antoinette's beloved little Nellie, who is the subject of a good deal of attention in both of ALPK's journal. She was ~~nine~~ 6 1/2 years old when her family trekked by conestoga wagon across the prairie to settle in Minnesota, a journey much detailed in her mother's journal. The later journal chronicles Nellie's education, experiences as a school teacher, activities at home and with her friends, and her courtship with her future husband.

An item in her brother John's obituary in the JACKSON COUNTY PILOT, 12 Nov 1964 states " For a few years the King family resided in Hunter Twp. on what is now the Arnie Thompson farm, six miles west on TH 16. ....A sister, Nellie.... taught in the schoolhouse a short distance west of the home place. Her transportation to school often was in a cart drawn by oxen......"

Marriage: JACKSON COUNTY MARRIAGE RECORD, Book A, p. 253. "Edward W. Davies of Pipestone Co., to Nellie G. King of Jackson Co., 5 Jan 1877, by Rev. J. Kirkwood Alexander. Witnesses: William V. King [bride's father], M.V. Baldwin, E.L. Brownell, E.A. Barney [bride's paternal aunt, Eliza King Barney]"

Entry in ALPK journal:" Wed Jan 5 Nellies's wedding day. A cold, stormy blizzard--but not so bad but what the company came. Ceremony took place about 2 o'clock P.M. Had dinner directly after & then most of the guests returned home. M.S., Eliza, Rob, Minnie & Mari stayed. Wm. went back to town."

After their wedding, she moved with her husband to Pipestone and remained there thirty-two years, the rest of her life. Her obituary describes her as " one of Pipestone's most prominent women."

Family letters (RKF has copies, originals in possession of Dorothy King) include a number from her to her mother & one from her to her brother Selah, all written after she was married. Interestingly enough, several of her later letters to "my dear Ma" are signed "your Billy", which must have been a pet name her mother had for her.

She was converted to Christian Science early in her marriage (according to her granddaughter, by a neighbor named Mrs. Marsh) & refused medical treatment for herself & her children. Four of her six children preceded her in death, two of them of tuberculosis, the others of treatable illnesses. She also died tragically early of tuberculosis. Her granddaughter writes that she "was carried downstairs for the service [her daughter Kittie's wedding] in their front parlor. A month later she was gone." According to her obituary, she died in a Tbc sanatorium in Minneapolis, with her husband & two daughters at her side. Her body was returned to Pipestone for burial. (Her husband was a trustee of the Southwestern Minnesota Sanitorium Commission for many years after her death).

Burial: Funeral services were held at her home, conducted by Rev. B.L. Main. There was a burial rite of the Order of Eastern Star at the gravesite. Among many others, numerous relatives attended [according to her obituary in the PIPESTONE COUNTY STAR, 9-30-1913, Pg 1, col 2 Para 1]. Among them were her father & his second wife; her brothers John & Selah & their wives; and her only surviving child, her daughter Kitty & her husband, Clarence Stearns.

The family plot (Block A, Lot 174, sp 1,2,3,4) is dominated by a large obelisk in the center with the name Davies. Her husband and two of her children (Gale & Burr) areburied there, but, strangely enough, there is only one fairly marked with her name, and no markers for the others. Her husband's second wife, Allie Humble, is also buried in this plot. Standing there, in what seems a very incomplete final resting place, one feels the sadness of all the untimely deaths in this family.[See photo in file]

CHILD 1 - Gale Harwood DAVIES-289

Doc: ALPK journal entry for April 10: Quite pleasant this morning & good news from Pipestone. Nellie has a young son. I must go up & see her. Postcard (in file) she wrote from Pipestone April 10, 1882, says " Nellie and the boy are doing well".

Later, on April 14, she wrote:" [Nell] & baby doing nicely. Baby a wee little fellow--hardly weighs three pounds, but seems to be quite strong. My first grandchild.

In another journal entry, she wrote: "Little Gale was taken sick Fri & died Sunday morning Jan 6th. We don't know what ailed him unless it was Scarlett Fever. He was very sick. Went into convulsions. Mrs. Davies & I went up to the funeral. Oh how sad. The dear little man could not talk to us. He looked so pretty. Poor Ed & Nellie--how hard to give him up, their darling. But God has given them another, a bright little girl. May it be spared to bless & comfort them".

Doc: Pipestone Vit.Rec. Died at age of "one year, 10 months & 17 days"

Burial: Newspaper clipping JACKSON REPUBLIC:" E.W. Davies, of Pipestone City, came to Jackson Wednesday, bringing with him and interring in the Jackson cemetery the remains of his baby boy Gale, who died 6 January".

CHILD 2 - Kittie Alta DAVIES-290

Doc: ALPK journal; family letters; daughter's rec.; newspaper clipping

Graduated from Pipestone High School. Had an education in music in Chicago.

Marriage: Married at noon at her parents' home.(Service detailed in newspaper clipping in family file). Ceremony performed by Rev. Burdette L. Main of the Methodist Episcopal Church. King family out-of-town guests included W.V. King(her grandfather); Willie P. & Selah S. King (her uncles); Nellie King Porter Baird (her great-aunt); and Mary King Ekern (her cousin). The young couple took the train that night to Sioux City, Iowa, where they lived for some time.

ALPK journal entry: "Fri Dec 18 Letter from Ed saying a little girl came to them yesterday. Now they have two children. Little Gale has a sister."

Converted to Christian Science, apparently by her mother. When her son Edward was afflicted with measles, she said "There is no one sick in this house" & apparently refused to acknowledge his illness. Her daughter Margaret feels that contributed to his death. According to Margaret "Things went down hill from there, and he died in July. My Mother did not attend the funeral, went to bed and never got up. She died 9 months later."

WIFE Ellen Greenwood (Nellie) KING-51 Yr of Birth 1859

Her daughter affirmed that Kittie died of tuberculosis, the same disease which killed her mother & her two brothers.

Obituary of her grandfather Wm. V. King, June 16, 1914, lists her in attendance. Also, her mother's obituary, lists her in attendance at the funeral on Sept.30, 1913, only a month after Kittie's wedding.

CHILD 3 - Burr Ellis DAVIES-295
Birth: Carol King Holographic genealogy

Must have been named for Dr. Burr Ellis, first husband of Maude Barney (RIN# 280)--his cousin. Source for this both Carol King & Chris Holecek Educated in Pipestone schools, later obtained a business education. Began career as banker, held position at First National Bank of Woodstock, according to obituary. (See King file) Was a Mason.

Death: Died of tuberculosis after a long period of poor health and illness. His grandmother Antoinette Porter King and his uncles Willie Porter King and Selah Samuel King were among relatives attending his funeral.

Photographs of grave site taken in 1990 by RKF in file.

CHILD 4 - Frank Edward DAVIES-294
Doc: Family rec.

Death: Apparent cause of death was a kidney disorder. His mother was a practicing Christian Scientist & apparently refused to acknowledge his medical problems. (See file for letter from his niece Margaret Stearns Haley)

Burial: Margaret Stearns verifies he is buried in family plot in Pipestone

CHILD 5 - Bonita Iselet "Bonnie" DAVIES-292
Doc: Family rec.

Some family records give her middle name as "Isolette", others as listed. Latter spelling considered more accurate because submitted by her niece.

Lived with her sister Kittie & Kittie's husband Lawrence Stearns after their son Edward was born in 1915. Their home was on Linwood Ave in St. Paul, is still standing & still owned by the Stearns family

She was unable to have children because of a thyroid condition. After marriage she & her husband lived in St. Paul. She lived there at time of father's death (1936) & presumably there or near there for the rest of her life. She was the only child to survive both her parents.

According to Margaret Stearns Hanley, her niece, she died at her home in St. Paul

HUSBAND Selah Samuel KING-52 Yr of Birth 1864

HUSBAND - Selah Samuel KING-52

Doc: Birth predates official civil records in Walworth Co. Doc. from daughters Carol & Dorothy King; ALPK genealogy, also PIPESTONE COUNTY BIOGRAPHIES, THE ROSE HISTORY BOOK, p. 757.; US Censuses

Birth Rec: Walworth Co. Vol I p 193

Born while his father was serving in the army during the Civil War [Wm. was a hospital patient in Johnsonsville, Tennessee at the time.] Letters between his parents attest to Selah's birth. Antoinette writes, on October 21 [the baby was 7 days old] " ...I wish you could see our baby boy he is a fine little fellow has a nice head with quite a lot of black hair. His eyes are dark blue. I think they will be black".. William replies, on Oct. 26, "....I received a letter from Lucy {his sister} informing me of your confinement and the information that I am the father of another boy. I was so glad to hear it that I could hardly refrain from shedding tears. I would give almost anything to see the little fellow--give him a good kiss for me and don't forget Willie and Nellie...". With his parents' separation, there was much difficulty deciding on a name for him. Antoinette wrote, on Oct. 31st, "....Everyone wants to know what I am going to call him so if you have any name selected send word. Willie says his name is Albert Henry & Nellie says he must be called Cousin Acors. Father thinks he ought to have one grandchild named after the celebrated President Lincoln......" Months later, after William had neglected to address the question of the baby's name in his several letters to her, Antoinette was still writing, on Feb. 10, 1865, "..tell me what you want to name him and whether you like the name of Melvin Selah". Finally, at some point, he was named Selah for his ~~mother's father, his grandfather~~ Selah Smith Porter (RIN #64).(Original letters ~~in possession of Carole King; RKF has copies in file~~) M/FS

Maternal grandfather

See K-P Fam Letters

He was also named Samuel for his uncle Samuel Lyman Porter, who wrote several letters to Nette calling his "little namesake" Samuel Selah, & expressing his pleasure in the name. [See King-Porter Family Letters]

The family moved to Austin, Mower Co., in the fall of 1865, after William was discharged from the Army, and William worked for a farmer there until the next summer, when the family made its way to Jackson County and established a homestead in Wisconsin township. Selah was 2 years old at the time. In 1873 the family moved into the village of Jackson after William was elected county auditor. Selah grew up and was educated in Jackson.

In the spring of 1885 he moved to Pipestone & began his career as a printer, working in the office of the REPUBLICAN. In 1888 he was in the new town of Jasper, launching the JASPER JOURNAL in a little hurriedly built building. The first issue was dated July 25, 1888, and it continued successfully for a long time under Selah's editorial management. The paper was a five column quarto. ~~In the spring of 1914, he "disposed" of the JOURNAL.~~

He was appointed Postmaster of Jasper in the summer of 1888 & served 4 years. He was again appointed in 1897 & held the office for the rest of the 22 years he lived there.

In the first edition of the JASPER JOURNAL, July 22, 1888, he wrote eloquently and fulsomely about the glories of the new little town--the beauty of the countryside, the rich stone quarries, the abundance of spring water, the excitement & even elegance he saw in some of the first buildings, the hundreds of settlers being brought in by the new railroad, etc. (copy in file).

The first Federal census for Jasper, in 1890, showed a population of 372.

It is uncertain why the family decided to leave Jasper--perhaps the tragic loss of two daughters in 1911 & 1912 made them lose heart? A third daughter, Dorothy, was born in Jasper in May of 1912. Then, in about 1913, Selah resigned from the JOURNAL and moved his family to Jackson, where he was Assistant Postmaster for a year.

In 1915 he moved to Flandreau & purchased the MOODY COUNTY ENTERPRISE, which he published for the next five years. Carol, the last child, was born there in 1915.

He was a member of the Blue Lodge & Chapter of the Masonic fraternity & of the Eastern Star; a Worthy Patron at Jasper & also a member of the Woodman Lodge.

There was a Masonic service at the grave. The two ittle daughters who died in Jasper were moved to graves in Flandreau, next to their father and eventually, their mother. WIFE - Carrie Jane RAMSDELL-217
Doc. Pamela King

Carrie Jane Ramsdell was one of five (?) children of Mary Nixon Ramsdell (Scots) and William Ramsdell(English). Her father was well-known as a representative to the Dakota Territory (a position hostessed by her sister Leone, called by Carrie's children "Aunt Oney".) Her brothers, Chester and Leonard, were both pharmacists. Her sister Kathryn Ramsdell Lee was a talented artist whose paintings and drawings are hung in the home of Pamela King. The family lived in Flandreau, which later became South Dakota. ??

why not mother

Carrie was one of the first graduates of the Univ. of South Dakota, graduating summa cum laude. She was said to have taken Greek and calculus.

After living in Jasper, MN, for 17 years, the family moved to Flandreau, where Carrie's family lived. When her husband died in 1920 after falling and injuring his back, she was left widowed with a young family: Paul was 12, Dorothy, 8 & Carol, 5. Kenneth, 21, was living on his own in Minneapolis.

Carrie Jane lived her entire life with Paul, Dorothy and Carol. At some poiint in the 30s(?), they moved to Minneapolis. Her sister, Kathryn Ramsdell Lee, joined them there sometime in the 1950s.

Kathryn and Kenneth bought a duplex together in 1949; Kenneth, his wife and daughter lived upstairs, while "Aunt Kate" lived downstairs until her death by cardiac insufficiency in the summer of 1952. Kenneth and June King continued to live in the house at 4340 Drew Ave. S., Mpls., MN, until 1975.

Death/burial: Carrie Jane suffered a stroke at 81, lingering with home care for many months until her death in Nov. 1956. She is buried Flandreau, SD, where one of her farms was located.

CHILD 1 - Kenneth William KING-218
Doc: Birth Rec Jasper MN 1-436-6

According to his daughter, Carr-

As the oldest child, he was much doted upon. An early photo shows Kenneth about two years old sitting in a little red wagon by the dining room table. He always loved wagons and told many stories about the care and attention he lavished upon them. He was deeply affected by the deaths of his sisters when he was 11 years old. He was especially close to his sister Beth, 3 years his junior, of whom he loved to say,"About pies--I liked the filling and she liked the crust." He was also much affected by his parents', particularly his mother's, grief. From this time on his relationships with his family seem to have been strained.

× As a teenager, Kenneth worked with many German workman doing construction and learned to love German culture, food and language.

Education: Graduated high school at Flandreau, SD. Attended the Univ. of Minnesota briefly.

Service: Volunteered for the U.S. army after trying to enlist with the Highland Infantry.

— Where did he work? Name of company

He lived in Minneapolis after ~~the~~ WWI war. His father urged ~~his~~ Kenneth to return in 1919 to Jasper to work with him on the paper, saying business was booming and would go farther with Kenneth's help. His father's death in 1920 may have precluded that move. Kenneth never moved back to rural Minnesota.

Occupation: Salesman for a Minneapolis printing company; throughout the 20's and 1930's, Kenneth worked as a salesman for many companies, including Cunard and the White Star Line. He loved traveling by train across the United States and seeing the world. It was the kind of education he reveled in and it opened up his life. Throughout his professional life he continued to be a salesman, working for Remington Rand and Acme Visible business systems. He seemed to enjoy work that left him time for other pursuits. He continued his interest in photography for the rest of his life. He continued to work into his early 70's while his daughter finished graduate school.

his siblings would come to Jackson in the summer to visit their Uncle John & Aunt Lillian King.

Hobbies: From his early youth he was excited about riding the new railroad trains, an interest and a passion that continued for him all through his life. He had a passion for photography and started the Minneapolis Color Photo Club. He was a photographic artist, capable of finding articulated composition and the majesty of light in everyday life. He enjoyed stamp collecting. As a connoisseur philatelist, he treasured the skill of craft.

He and his brother Paul were very interested in genealogy, traveling & gathering a good deal of information, especially about the King family.

Marriage: At age 44, he met and after a very short courtship of a few weeks married June Eleanor Hermstad of northeast Minneapolis, 20 years his junior. No family attended, although June's parents sent out engraved announcements of their daughter's marriage.

The couple moved to a basement apartment on South Freemont St.in Minneapolis where they lived for about six years. Their daughter, Pamela Jane, was born there. There were no other children.

Kenneth and his mother w~~ife~~'s sister Kathryn bought a duplex together in 1949. Kenneth, his wife & daughter lived upstairs, while "Aunt Kate" lived downstairs until her death (by cardiac insufficiency) in the summer of 1952. Kenneth & his wife & daughter continued to live in the house at 4340 Drew Ave. S., Mpls., MN, until 1975.

A man of enormous intelligence and ability to make fine distinctions beyond the grasp of most, he maintained throughout his life a conflicted relationship with his brother, sisters, wife and daughter.

His health, imperiled by constant cigar smoking, began to decline at age 75. He suffered from macular degeneration. At age 80 he had prostate surgery at Methodist Hospital. He began a rapid mental decline & was entered into a nursing home in Hastings, MN. Six months later, he died of lung cancer.

WIFE Carrie Jane RAMSDELL-217 Yr of Birth 1872

Late in life married Mary Ann ~~Jones~~, head nurse of Fairview-Southdale Hospital, in Edina, MN. There was about a 15-year difference in their ages.

Their marriage and subsequent move into Paul's house separated the Paul-Carol-Dorothy family triad. Carol and Dorothy moved into their own apartment in Minneapolis, and then later moved to Philadelphia.

Paul and Mary Ann had been married about 6-7 years when on a vacation to France to visit ~~distant French~~ cousin on the Ramsdell side of the family, Jean-Pierre Panayoutou, Mary Ann was accidentally drowned by a strong undertow while swimming off the western coast of France. Paul, a strong swimmer, had saved one of Jean-Pierre's little girls, Vassilia, but was unable to save Mary Ann. The tragedy is greater since the couple had truly begun to enjoy their married life together.

Mary Ann's body was returned to Minneapolis and was buried there.

Carol and Dorothy returned to Minneapolis to live with Paul as they had ~~done~~ before his marriage, but it was an arrangement that no longer worked. Paul had enjoyed his marriage and courted another nurse, Patricia Klauck (a former nun), who returned his interest. Unfortunately, she was in her 40s and did not accept the marriage proposal of Paul who was now in his 60s. Her rejection may have led to Paul's suicide by carbon monoxide asphyxiation.

HUSBAND John Lebbeus KING-53 Yr of Birth 1870
WIFE Lillian Francena HURD-224 Yr of Birth 1874

HUSBAND - John Lebbeus KING-53

Birth: Birth recorded in journal kept by his mother, Antoinette Porter King. Passage reads " Thurs Aug 11th Had company again. Wm went after them before daylight this morning, E (probably sister-in-law Eliza Barney), E. Heath, and Mrs. Thomas. Also a little stranger arrived about 9 & 1/4 o'clock this morning. Guess we will call him John Lebbeus King. Rather cool & raining a little. Plenty of flies".

Named for his paternal grandfather John King (RIN#54); middle name from his maternal great-grandfather Lebbeus Porter (RIN# 71), & possibly also for his Uncle Lebbeus Effingham Porter (RIN# 68), his mother's brother, whose tragic tragic death occurred just 3 months before his birth, and about which she wrote so extensively in her journal.

First King child born in Jackson Co. Born in a log cabin on what in 1964 was the Earl Jackson farm, four miles east of Jackson in Wisconsin Twp. Educated in Jackson. Moved to Jasper, lived with and apprenticed as a newpaperman with his brother Selah, learning the printer's trade. He went to Clifton, Kansas, in 1893, where for two years he edited a Populist newspaper. Made his home at that time with relatives in Clay Center (Robert King &/or his daughter??). He returned to Jackson & was for a short time deputy to his father, Jackson County Auditor. He bought and began publishing the Jackson County Pilot in November 1896, in partnership with J.C. McCroden. They published under the firm name of King & McCroden until 1900, when he bought out his partner's interest. According to his obituary," It was the county's only Democratic newspaper, and he made the publication an influential voice in affairs of the county". In 1923 he formed a partnership with S.J. Vasen & H.B. Johnson, employees for 10 years. "The trio with Mr. King as editor operated the newspaper successfully for 30 years, selling the plant to Lyle & Vila George in 1953." John King was editor of the Pilot for over 50 years!

He was an "old line Democrat", starting at the turn of the century when he really took an active interest in county, state, and national politics. He was present at the convention which nominated Woodrow Wilson for President and worked hard for his election. In 1940 he was a Second District Democratic presidential elector. The Pilot also helped elect two of his close friends, John A. Johnson & Winfield Scott Hammond, to the governorship of Minnesota. (Both men died in office). It was through Hammond that he was appointed Jackson postmaster in 1914, an office he filled until 1923. He was also the Deputy Oil Inspector, an appointment he received from Gov. Johnson in 1903. For four years he was chairman of the Democratic county central committee & was also a member of his party's state central committee for two years. He held offices in the Second District Editorial Ass'n., the Jackson Kiwanis & the Jackson Building & Loan Ass'n.. He held membership in various branches of the Masonic fraternity. He was a strong booster of Jackson, & instrumental in numerous successful development efforts, such as the power plant. He fought hard to keep Jackson as the county seat (against a good deal of pressure from powers in Lakefield--see file)

He was well known as "Jackson County's oldest native son" (Jackson Co. Pilot obituary) much interviewed in his old age, including by MacKinley Kantor for his book SPIRIT LAKE. He wrote many articles about Jackson's early history, and loved to tell anecdotes of his early experiences. (See obituary & file)

He lived in his own home after his wife died well into his 80s, cared for, according to a newspaper clipping (See file) by a sister-in-law (Carrie King RIN# 217). He moved into the Jackson Sunset Home when it opened in 1956.(He was living there when RKF & family visited him in the early 1960s). He lived there until his death.

HUSBAND - Levi W. COOMBE-297

Doc: History of Walworth Co., P.K. Gen note p 8

Parents were Thomas Coombe & T.B.Hutchings. Thomas Coombe was born in 1814 in Cornwall, England, brought up on a farm there &, in 1839, married Miss Hutchings. In 1849 they emigrated to the USA with 3 children. They were early settlers in Wisconsin, coming directly there upon arrival in the USA. They settled in Palmyra, pyrchased & farmed 80 acres there. He bought an additional 240 acres in Sect 8, Troy, in June, 1870. He farmed his land all his life and died there.

1870 US Census for Palmyra, Walworth Co, WI,lists the following: Thomas Coomb, fa,60,b.Eng; Thomasa,mo,46; Serina, 21, b Eng; Oliver, 18, b Wis; Rosepha, 16, b.Wis; Eliza,14, b Wis; Emma, 12, b Wis; Henry, 10, b Wis; Levi, 8, b Wis; Ella, 6,b.Wis. The census also records that their next door neighbors were Jacob & Dorothy Kling, lifelong friends & neighbors of John & Hannah King, and George Eelbeck, whose daughter Sarah married George King.

Levi grew up on his father's farm and lived there until shortly after his marriage in 1888. The newlyweds moved that year to the new village of Jasper, Minm. The Minn census of 1895, Pipestone Co, Village o Jasper, shows the following household: Fam.#24 Coombe, LW,33,M,W,b. Wis,Period of Res Minn 7 yrs,Res in Enum Dist 7 yrs, occupation General merchant; Coombe, Nora E,25,F,W, b.Minn,Res in Minn & Enum Dist 7 yrs; Coombe, Lucy H,3,F,W,b. Minn.,Res in Minn & Dist 3 yrs; Baird, Ellen,55,F,W,b.NY,Res in state & dist 5 yrs.

Some time before 1900, the Coombes moved away from Minn & Wis (they are not in either census), probably to Colorado, although that is not certain. They first appeared in Denver in the Denver City Directory of 1909: Coombe,Levi W.,clk The May, r 921 20th Ave; Coombe, Lenora E. Miss, asst J.N.Hall, r. 921 20th Ave. At the same address is Baird, Ellen M. Mrs. [Note: A Levi Coombs is in the directories as early as 1900, but he definitely is not ours]

The 1910 US census for CO, Denver Co, city of Denver(MF 1374128 ED 104 Sheet 23B) as follows: #2044 Coombe, Levi W,Head,M,W,48,b.WI,fa & mo b. Eng., occ. Clothing salesman; Coombe, Lenora E.,Wife,40,b.MN;1 ch now living; Coombe, Lucy H.,18,no employment; Baird, Ella(sic)M.,mother in law,73,Wid,3 ch, 2 living.

The Denver City Dir. for 1911 shows: Coombe, Levi W, salesman,r. 2244 Grape. In 1912 only Lenora is listed, & in the next record found to date, the 1920 census, she is recorded as widowed. His presumed date of death is about 1912, needs further research.

WIFE - Leonora Ellen (Nora) PORTER-267

Doc: Jackson Co. Birth Records: Book A, page 2, Line 10. Hers was the first birth recorded in Jackson Co. Her aunt, Antoinette Porter King, also recorded the birth in her journal.

Carried name Leonora of Long Island Dann family; Ellen for Hilton/King family Called "Nora" in ALPK first journal, and most of her life. In Vol 2 of ALPK's journal, references to her were all as "Leo"(also in family letters of that time), but that seems to have been a nicknameshe used for that period in her life, not one she generally used.

She was barely a month old when her father, in the midst of a blizzard, left his little family on the prairie in Minnesota to make a tragic return to his home in Wisconsin, in the vain hope his life could somehow be spared if he got there. So Lenora never knew her father, but his sister, her Aunt Antoinette Porter King, always stayed close to her & mentioned her frequently in her journals.

Ellen, Nora's mother, left Jackson with her two small daughters a few months after the death of her father, and Nora grew up in Wisconsin in the midst of both her King & Porter relations.

Marriage: Walworth Co. Marriage Certificate #106253 Vol 7 p. 52 . Married in M.E. Church by the Rev. William Bennett. Witnesses were John Cameron & Minnie King (her cousin). ALPK (in Minnesota) recorded in her journal:"Thurs (Feb) 23 Leonora's wedding day. Quite pleasant all day.........Leo & Levi are coming to Minn. on their wedding trip. Mr & Mrs Levi W. Coombe. Expect them Sat morning." Then, on Sat 25: "Cold as fury & a terrible wind. Train did not get through until eve. Levi & Leo were staid at Sherburne. Think this is a fearful country. Don't blame them." Again, on Mon 27:" Leonora is 18 years old today. She is a darling sweet girl." Finally, on Wed (March) 2:"Cold & stormy. Robert [Robert King, Lenora's uncle]and family start for Wis. tonight. Levi and Leo go back with them. It will be so lonesome without them but I think they will enjoy life better down there."

Moved to the new village of Jasper, Minn. in 1888 with her husband and later her mother. Numerous letters [see King-Porter Family Letters] from Selah King in Jasper and Nellie King Davies, in Pipestone, to their mother, between 1889 and 1895 detail their life there. The Minn. Census of May 1895, lists the following: Coombe, L.W., 33, M, W, b.Wis, 7 yrs in state, 7 yrs in Enum Dist, Gen Merchant; Coombe, Nora E., 25, F,W, b. Minn. 7 yrs in state & in Enum Dist; Coombe, Lucy H., 3, F,W, b. Minn., 3 yrs in state & Enum Dist; Baird, Ellen, 55,F,W, b. NY, 5 yrs in state & Enum Dist.

Margaret Haley, granddaughter of Nellie King & Ed Davies, wrote to RKF [Feb 18, 1997] that her father, Clarence Stearns, married to Nellie's daughter Kittie, lived with the Coombes while attending high school in Pipestone between 1900 and 1904. [This is interesting information because we have been unable to find them in the 1900 Minn. Census]

Not certain when they moved to Colorado, but it would have been after Clarence Stearns' graduation in 1904. First concrete date to date is in the 1909 Denver City Directory, where Nora is listed as a "asst J.N.Hall", & she, Levi & Ellen "Bard" are living at 921 20th Ave.

In 1910 she was listed in the Directory as "sec. Drs Hall & Hopkins, r. 2244 Grape; in 1911 and 1912 her occupation was "steno 452 Metropolitan Bldg." In 1912 only she is listed. Presumably Levi died in that year, pending further research.

HUSBAND Levi W. COOMBE-297 Yr of Birth 1862
WIFE Leonora Ellen (Nora) PORTER-267 Yr of Birth 1870

At one point she was in possession of ALPK's journal (Vol 1). The brown paper wrapping which covered it when RKF received it from Carol King (in 1989) had a postal return address from her in Denver, when she had mailed it to John Lebbeus King (her cousin) some time in the 30's. Unfortunately the wrapping was lost.

In the 1920 Denver census, she was widowed, 49 years old, no occupation, living with her daughter & son-in-law, Lucy & Herbert Stebbins. Her mother, Ellen Baird, was also living there.

Death: Recorded in newpaper clipping from JACKSON CO. PILOT, 8 Jan 1942: "John L. King received the sad message Tuesday forenoon bearing the news that his cousin, Mrs. Leonora E. Coombe, had died suddenly when stricken with a heart attack at her home in Denver, Colorado. Mrs. Coombe was the daughter of an early Jackson County pioneer family, her parents being Mr. and Mrs. L.E. Porter, who homesteaded in Wisconsin Township in 1866, where Mrs. Coombe was born in 1870, the old home now being owned by Virgil Jones. Mrs. Coombe was also a cousin of W.P. King and up to a few years ago had made annual visits to Jackson for the purpose of visiting relatives."

CHILD 1 - Lucy H. COOMBE-447

Doc: Birth Rec pipestone Co 1-212-1. Record states she was b. in the "village of Jasper", Fa Levi W., b. Wis; Mo Nora b. Minn.

She was named for her maternal great-aunt, Lucy King

Moved to Colorado with her parents when she was about 6 or 7 years old. (Not certain yet just when they moved, but it was after the Minn Census of May, 1895, when the family is recorded in Jasper, Pipestone Co & Lucy H. is 3 years old.they years old. They were not in either Minn or Wis in 1900. First time move to Colordo is certain is in the 1909 Denver City Diectory.

1910 US Census for Denver shows her living with her parents & her grandmother, 18 years old, not employed.

Her husband moved into the apartment building where she was living with her parents some time before 1912 (doc. in Denver City Dir. of that year) & it seems likely that is how they met.

No doc. of marriage to date. 1920 US Census for CO., Denver Co.,Denver City, lists her as wife of Herbert Stebbins, age 27, b. Minnesota, Mo & Fa both b. Wisconsin.(but her Mother was born in Minnesota)

In a letter dated Mar. 16, 1969, Kenneth King wrote that she "lives on Federal Road in Denver", which presumes she was still alive at that time. (The Stebbins last previous known address was in 1947, on Federal Blvd.)

Parents were Resolved Ezra Day & Lovina Kinney

Occupation on census given as "Laborer in Implement Factory, wage worker. Also says home was rented, not owned.

WIFE - Minnie Belle KING-283

Source: ALPK journal(p.27) records date & time of her birth in her parent's home. Probably named for her aunt Minnie Bratt (RIN# 269), wife of her father's brother Robert Hilton King (RIN# 58).

Born & lived in Jackson Co. until 1876 when her family moved to Lawrence, TX when she was 8 years old. Lived there until her mother's death in 1879. Accompanied father with her mother's body back to Wisconsin, most likely stayed there with family & lived in Walworth Co. most of her life. This determined because she is not in census with her father or second family & several facts record that she lived in Walworth Co:

Letter to ALPK JWM
in Sp 6

First are several references to her in the Whitewater Register (MF P44362 Aug 11, 1887-July 25, 1889). On Nov. 24, 1887,the paper records " Miss Minnie King went to Palmyra last week to learn dressmaking of Mrs. E. Bishop". On Mar. 29, 1888, the newspaper states " Miss Minnie King went to Millard Sunday to visit relatives".

Second,the publication entitled "LaGrange Pioneers", pub. 1935, in a biographical sketch of the King family, on page 134, 5th paragraph, lists her as follows, " Only three descendants of the family remain in the LaGrange vicinity: Mesdames Robert J. Harris and George Keith now of Whitewater, daughters of Robert H. King; and Mrs. Minnie Day, Janesville, daughter of Albert D. King".

Marriage: Marriage Cert. of Walworth Co. Vol. 7 p 413 #109536. Married by Rev. Wm. Whitford of Rock Co. Witnesses: George King (her brother), George W. Kinnie (prob. his ~~cousin~~ uncle or cousin)

Birth date confirmed in father's pension file. File has statement she made 11 May 1926: Stated her name Minnie Belle Day; Age 44; Resided at Footville, Wis. Mother's name: Malona Van Lewis (King). Mother died 14 July 1879 at Lawrence, Tex. She (& her father)accompanied the body to Millard, Walworth Co, Wis, where she was buried. [Her stated age wrong. She was actually 48 in 1926]

At time of second marriage to Mary King, he was manager of the Farmer's Elevator at Airlie, Minn., and also ran the (general) store, post office & filling station beside the elevator. In 1916 he moved his family to Flandreau, SD, where he went into the manufacturing business with his brothers Helmer & Will.

Four other people died on that same day in that small village. Mary, his wife, was also ill and could not attend his funeral, but eventually she recovered.

WIFE - Genevra Mary KING-200

B/Chr.: Jackson Co. Birth Rec. Book A, p. 87, item 2; Family rec. from grdtr. Roberta Cunningham Bromeling

Always called "Mary". In later life, called "Grma" by her grandchildren

Her mother died when she was seven months old. She was brought up in Jackson by her grandmother, Antoinette Porter King, after her mother died. Her father, Will King, remarried and lived in Jasper with his second wife Mary Rovang, and their children of that marriage, until her grandmother died when she was 10 years old. (When ALPK died in 1896, her last words were said to be "Take care of little Mary"). Antoinette also wrote about Mary in letters to her cousin Louise Dann (RIN# 116) (See file). Her father & step-mother moved back to Jackson at this point & from then on she was more or less a member of their family.

See K.P. Family

In a note found in her papers long after her death, she wrote that she "lived in Pipestone as a child and in Flandreau before & after young girl & marriage." Not sure when that would have been or with whom--needs further research.

Jenkins.

Baptised in 1902 & confirmed in 1905, both by Bishop Whipple in the Episcopal Church in Jackson, Minn. She was said to have always been very proud that the bishop had baptised & confirmed her. [This suggests that the Kings were all Episcopals early on--needs further research]

HUSBAND Frank Martin HOLECEK-305 Yr of Birth 1889
WIFE Grace Pauline KING-22 Yr of Birth 1893

HUSBAND - Frank Martin HOLECEK-305

Doc:Not in Jackson birth rec, although thought to have been born & lived entire life in Jackson.

Businessman, band leader of Lakefield & Jackson bands for many years. Music teacher; taught cornet to Don, Bob & Ruth Ellen King . Postmaster of Jackson for many years.

Died of cirrhosis of the liver after a prolonged illness.

WIFE - Grace Pauline KING-22

Doc: Birth Rec Jasper, MN, 1-254-5; Family rec; obituary; newspaper clippings

Born in Jasper where her father had a photography studio. Subject of many of his photographs of children. At age 3 she moved to Jackson with her family, and lived there the remainder of her life, to the age of 94 years, becoming one of Jackson's longest lived and most cherished citizens.

Educated in Jackson Public Schools through two years of high school

Marriage: Jackson Co. Marriage Rec. Book F p 558.

Major source of family information. King family historian of her generation. Vance Freymann (grand-nephew) visited her & taped an interview with her during his junior year at Northwestern University (See file) in which she talked about Jackson & her family's early history. She was the last King to live in Jackson, and her death ended the period of 122 years (1866-1988) that the King family played a major role in development and history of the town.

She was an unusual woman of her time. An accomplished pianist, as a young woman she played the organ in the orchestra pit to accompany the silent movies in the Jackson theater. She joined the Presbyterian Church in 1908, & at her death was its oldest member. For many years she was the organist for the church that her Grandmother Antoinette helped found. She was the pianist for many civic organizations in Jackson, and often led her family in singing around the piano.

She was the first and to this date the only woman Postmaster (Frank Holecek was the Postmaster when he died) for Jackson. She was awarded the job, and held it from 1940 to 1963. She said in an interview that she worked with all men and could remember seeing "only a few women" at postmasters' meeting the first few years. When asked in a newspaper interview what she liked most about her position, she said "I liked working with the public."

She was an officer and held 50 year pins from many organizations, among them Rebekah Lodge, Eastern Star,American Legion Auxiliary,Girl Scouts. In 1968 she was selected as Jackson County's Outstanding Senior Citizen and later that year as one of two outstanding senior citizens for the State of Minnesota. She was honored in this role at the Minnesota State Fair.

She was ordained a deacon of the First Presbyterian Church in Jackson in 1965.

HUSBAND Frank Martin HOLECEK-305 Yr of Birth 1889
WIFE Grace Pauline KING-22 Yr of Birth 1893

For a number of years, after she herself was rather incapacitated by age and required the use of a walker, she initiated and then operated the small senior citizen center in Jackson, treating her clients with warm understanding. She would walk slowly back to her own home, two blocks away, each noon for her lunch in order to save the center's money, and never equated her own infirmities with those of her elderly clients. Indeed, she once remarked to her niece RKF that she thought " Old folks are a lot more difficult to deal with than adolescents"!! Many biographical sketches are available on her. (See file)

Unfortunately she was senile her last few years & unable to continue to communicate with her devoted family. She died at the Good Samaritan Nursing Home in Jackson. Her funeral service in the First Presbyterian Church was presided over by Rev. J. David Johnson. Her nephew Don King was one of her pallbearers.

CHILD 1 - Boyd King HOLECEK-306

HUSBAND James Hilton Porter KING-24 Yr of Birth 1896
WIFE Myrtle DOTTE-814 Yr of Birth 1900

HUSBAND - James Hilton Porter KING-24

Doc: Birth rec Soldier's discharge rec. (See file for copy) Not in birth rec Jackson or Jasper. He was first King child of his family to be born in Jackson.

Named James for his paternal Great-Great-Grandfather; Hilton for his paternal Great-Grandmother, Hannah Hilton; and Porter for his paternal Grandmother, Antoinette Louise Porter (whose death 7 months before his birth precipitated his family's move back to Jackson from Jasper) . Lived in Jackson, worked as a mechanic until he enlisted in army during WWI.

Military Record: Enlisted in Minn. National Guard as Private in Bat. "B", 2nd F.A., 4 Sep 1917. Enlisted US Army 29 Apr 1918 at St. Paul, Minn., #957313 as Sergeant 1st Class 316th Repair & Salvage Co., 306 Brig. T.C.. Served in A.E.F. 30 Aug 1918 to 17 Mar 1919. Fought in France in Argonne-Meuse sector Nov 1-11 1918 Discharged at Camp Grant, Ill. 11 April 1919. Rec. states he was 5 ft 9 in, fair complexion, brown hair, blue eyes, received no wounds in service, in good condition, of excellent character. Rec'd bonus of $60, entitled to travel pay to St. Paul, Minn. (See file for copy of rec.) Developed tuberculosis shortly after discharge, supposedly as a result of being gassed in a trench during battle at Argonne.

His reputation within the family as a warm and much loved son & brother is poignantly illustrated by a postcard (see file) he sent 3 June 1933 to his brother George from a VA hospital in Tuscon, AZ. The picture on the front of the card is of the hospital. Addressed to "Dear Geo & Rena & Kiddies," his message was "This is the resort I am stopping at this summer. Kind of neat don't you think so........Pretty little girl to make my bed every morning & give me a bath twice a week. As ever, Bro & Uncle, Jim".

His sister Kittie King McGrady, in an interview with RKF [July 1992], indicated that his health problems were compounded by his wife's beliefs, based on Christian Scientism, that he should not be hospitalized or treated medically. Also, she was emotionally unstable (indeed she was in a mental institution and may have been unaware of his death when it occurred). According to Kittie, his friends finally persuaded him to enter the Veteran's Hospital in Glendale, CA where he subsequently died.

His sister Grace made three trips to see him during his last years; her husband Frank Holecek, son Boyd and his brother George all also visited him.
visited him.

Presumption is that he was married, died & buried in Glendale. Records need to be found & site validated.

WIFE - Myrtle DOTTE-814

Doc: Family rec. Name given in JACKSON COUNTY PILOT, 9 Sep 1927, in item which stated "James King and Miss Myrtle Dotte of Glendale, CA visited with Mr. & Mrs. W.P.King. They left for his home in Glendale on Saturday."

Probably married in California. No children. They lived in Glendale

WIFE	Myrtle DOTTE-814	Yr of Birth 1900

A Christian Scientist, she was apparently adamantly opposed to medical treatment for her husband James when he developed tuberculosis, effectively delaying his treatment. According to Kittie King McCrady, Myrtle suffered from a serious mental disorder, & when last known, was a patient in a mental hospital in Glendale, California. Kittie thinks she never knew her husband died.

Fought a long battle with alcoholism. Stopped drinking 1 February, 1952, the day his first grandchild was born, saying "If I'm going to be a grandfather, I want to be the kind my grandchildren can be proud of". Never had another drink. WIFE - Serena Josephine (Rena) LEVERSON-13

Birth recorded in Jackson Birth Register, Book A,pg. 172,#12. One of twins (Anna Otilda RIN #39); always listed after Ann, so probably born second. She was educated through eighth grade in a country school a mile from her farm home. Students were from the four families living on the adjoining farms.Language spoken in school was Norwegian. Her teacher was a member of the Slabaaken family, the mother (later) of Evie Watland. [The last time RKF took Rena back to Jackson,in Nov. 1985, we visited the local nursing home, & Evie's Mother was a patient there, being wheeled around in a wheelchair by her daughter Evie. She She was then just 100 years old & Rena was 90, so there had not been much difference in age when one was the teacher and the other the pupil.]

Marriage recorded in Jackson Marriage Register Book H, pg. 473. Ceremony performed in parish house of Our Savior's Lutheran Church by Rev. T.J.Knutson.

HUSBAND Reginald George KING-12 Yr of Birth 1898

Lived in many homes in Jackson---27 in all. Finally had her own home, moved into it Jan. 26, 1954, and lived happily there for the next 19 years. Lived in Jackson all her life until the last 7 years, when failing health & eye sight made it necessary for her to move to Villa Manor, a residential care facility in Omaha, near her son Bob. She maintained an independent living apartment for most of those years, finally moving to a semi-independent apartment there, but she was mentally alert and always able to care for herself until the very end of her life.

She kept house essentially as a Norwegian house-wife, following the strict rules of housekeeping she had learned as a child. She was a prodigious baker of Norwegian delicacies and maintained many of the old traditions, especially at Christmas. She was always the historian and story teller of her family's life and her children & grandchildren were much enriched by the knowledge of their Norwegian heritage which she gave them.

HUSBAND Jerry KELLY-307 Yr of Birth 1904
WIFE Nellie Theoline Antoinette KING-25 Yr of Birth 1900

HUSBAND - Jerry KELLY-307

Doc: Family rec. His parents were Meldon Kelly & Jennie Wren. Grandfather was Jeremiah Kelly, b. 1740.

Three other siblings were b. in Rodman: 2 sisters, 1 brother

Farmer for many years in Canova, SD. His son Wilbur wrote (in a letter dated 1 Feb 1994--see file) "I don't know if you were aware that my Dad was in very poor health from May of 1939 until his deat in 1965. We moved to Iowa in 1941 because his doctor told Dad he only had about a year to live and Dad wanted us to be near relatives. In 1946 his health had improved enough to move back to South Dakota. In 1957 his health began to fail again so the folks moved into Canova where they were managers of the Canova Cafe from 1957-1962. In 1964 Dad became bed-ridden until his death in 1965."

The places where the Kellys lived were:
1925-1936---on 2 farms south of Lakefield, MN
1936-1941---on a farm west on Canova, SD
1941-1946---on a farm north of Milford, IA (on Lake Okoboji)
1946-1957---on 3 farms west of Canova, SD
1957-1965---lived in anova, SD, in 2 diff. houses, until his death

He died after a lingering illness & was buried in the Canova Cemetery, as was his son Dean.

WIFE - Nellie Theoline Antoinette KING-25

Doc: Jackson Birth Reg B 104 10

Born in Jackson. Lived in Hills, Minn., with her Aunt Anna (her mother's sister) & Uncle John Helgeson from age 4 to age 16. She was bilingual in English & Norwegian, and was said to be a very special favorite of her Grandma Rovang, as she was the only grandchild with whom Grandma could speak in Norwegian. Returned to her parents' home in Jackson after she was confirmed in the Lutheran Church at Hills.

All her names have family meaning: Nellie for numerous generations of Ellens (usually called "Nellie") in the King family, most recently her father's sister, her aunt Ellen/Nellie Greenwood King Davies; Theoline for her mother's sister, her aunt Theoline Rovang; and finally Antoinette for her grandmother Antoinette Louise Porter King Education: Attended high school & normal training school (teacher training) in Jackson.

Good source of information about Rovangs & Kings, especially anecdotal information. (See file for taped conversation with RKF c. 1990)

FirstMarriage: License Jackson Co. (Bk I,515) says he was 21, she was 24. Witnesses Chas. Winn & Viola King (her sister)

After her husband's death in 1965, she & her son Dean continued to live in Canova until 1976.

Married a second time in 1976, to Rz Carl Hart. They lived on his farm west of Canova until his death. He died in 1982 at Howard, So Dak, & is buried at Spencer, SD. She then lived in Canova with her son Dean, nursing him through a After his death, in 1984 she moved to Phoenix, AZ, & later to Mesa, Az, where she lived in a condominium she shared with her daughter Kay.

RKF visited them in 1986 and again in 1991, and obtained much information about both the King & Rovang families.

Death: Died in her daughter's home after a long illness from cancer. A letter from her son Bill, written to RKF about a week before her death, says"It is sad to see her now as she is so frail and weak. She knew me but spoke very little. After a few words she would go to sleep with me holding her hand. She always knows Kay but does not always know where she is. Some times when her mind is not clear she speaks in Norwegian."

After her death, her daughter Kay prepared a lovely video-tape memorial to her mother, which was played at a memorial service held in Kay's home.(Copy in file).

Burial: At her own request, she was buried in the Mesa cemetery near where her daughter Kay lives. Her name & death date are also engraved next to her husband Jerry Kelly, on their tombstone in the Canova Cemetery, Canova, SD.

HUSBAND - Robert Delancy KING-29
Doc: Jackson Birth Rge B 109 172

Educated through high school in Jackson. Was well known locally as a star player on the high school football team.

Name Robert goes back many generations in King family, most recently was his grandfather's brother's name.(Robert Hilton King II, RIN# 58). Delancey was a street next to Pump St.in Manhattan where his great-great-grandmother Ruth Lyman Porter lived in 1821; Delaney was the name of an early Walworth Co. minister known to the Porters and possibly the Kings. Not sure of any significance with either one.

His sister Kittie reminisced that he was an outdoorsman, very private and quiet. An exceptionally strong swimmer, she recalled a time when he swam at least fifty yards in a strong current across the Des Moines River, carrying a cable to the other side for the telephone company. Another family story she remembered is that he hated to wear shoes, even when there was snow on the ground.

HUSBAND Kenneth William KING-218 Yr of Birth 1899
WIFE June Eleanor HERMSTAD-1113 Yr of Birth 1919

HUSBAND - Kenneth William KING-218
Doc: Birth Rec Jasper MN 1-436-6

As the oldest child, he was much doted upon. An early photo shows Kenneth about two years old sitting in a little red wagon by the dining room table. He always loved wagons and told many stories about the care and attention he lavished upon them. He was deeply affected by the deaths of his sisters when he was 11 years old. He was especially close to his sister Beth, 3 years his junior, of whom he loved to say,"About pies--I liked the filling and she liked the crust." He was also much affected by his parents', particularly his mother's, grief. From this time on his relationships with his family seem to have been strained.

As a teenager, Kenneth worked with many German workman doing construction and learned to love German culture, food and language.

Education: Graduated high school at Flandreau, SD. Attended the Univ. of Minnesota briefly.

Service: Volunteered for the U.S. army after trying to enlist with the Highland Infantry.

He lived in Minneapolis after the war. His father urged his return in 1919 to Jasper to work with him on the paper, saying business was booming and would go farther with Kenneth's help. His father's death in 1920 may have precluded that move. Kenneth never moved back to rural Minnesota.

Occupation: Salesman for a Minneapolis printing company; throughout the 20's and 1930's, Kenneth worked as a salesman for many companies, including Cunard and the White Star Line. He loved traveling by train across the United States and seeing the world. It was the kind of education he reveled in and it opened up his life. Throughout his professional life he continued to be a salesman, working for Remington Rand and Acme Visible business systems. He seemed to enjoy work that left him time for other pursuits. He continued his interest in photography for the rest of his life. He continued to work into his early 70's while his daughter finished graduate school.

He had an enormous capacity for friendship; he enjoyed friends and relatives. outside his immediate family. He was a favorite cousin of R.George King. He & his siblings would come to Jackson in the summer to visit their Uncle John & Aunt Lillian King.

Hobbies: From his early youth he was excited about riding the new railroad trains, an interest and a passion that continued for him all through his life. He had a passion for photography and started the Minneapolis Color Photo Club. He was a photographic artist, capable of finding articulated composition and the majesty of light in everyday life. He enjoyed stamp collecting. As a connoisseur philatelist, he treasured the skill of craft.

He and his brother Paul were very interested in genealogy, traveling & gathering a good deal of information, especially about the King family.

HUSBAND Kenneth William KING-218 Yr of Birth 1899
WIFE June Eleanor HERMSTAD-1113 Yr of Birth 1919

Marriage: At age 44, he met and after a very short courtship of a few weeks married June Eleanor Hermstad of northeast Minneapolis, 20 years his junior. No family attended, although June's parents sent out engraved announcements of their daughter's marriage.

The couple moved to a basement apartment on South Freemont St.in Minneapolis where they lived for about six years. Their daughter, Pamela Jane,was born there. There were no other children.

Kenneth and his wife's sister Kathryn bought a duplex together in 1949. Kenneth, his wife & daughter lived upstairs, while "Aunt Kate" lived downstairs until her death (by cardiac insufficiency) in the summer of 1952. Kenneth & his wife & daughter continued to live in the house at 4340 Drew Ave. S., Mpls., MN, until 1975.

A man of enormous intelligence and ability to make fine distinctions beyond the grasp of most, he maintained throughout his life a conflicted relationship with his brother, sisters, wife and daughter.

His health, imperiled by constant cigar smoking, began to decline at age 75. He suffered from macular degeneration. At age 80 he had prostate surgery at Methodist Hospital. He began a rapid mental decline & was entered into a nursing home in Hastings, MN. Six months later, he died of lung cancer.

WIFE - June Eleanor HERMSTAD-1113
Doc:Pamela King

Swed ⟷ Norse

Parents were Leif Hermstad and Eleanor Elvira Johnson.

~~Named for her mother and for month of birth.~~

June is ~~her parents'~~ an only child. A talented musician like her mother, her hopes of getting formal training and becoming an opera star were dashed on religious grounds by her parents whose restrictive Swedish Convenant bias ~~felt~~ dictated that this was a too-narcissistic profession. She worked as a secretary until her marriage.

and

Family History: June's mother, Eleanor Elvira Johnson was the last child of Anna Karlotta and Louis Johnson who emigrated from Dahlsland, Sweden, with five children: Mabel, Hildur, Chester,Arthur and another little girl. The family name of "Johnson" was apparently adapted from the real family name of "Janson" so as to appear more American.

Anna Karlotta & Louis first moved to Wisconsin, where the three little girls died of diphtheria between 1882-1884.

The Johnsons then moved to northeast Minneapolis, 1910 Pierce St., NE, which at that time was considered a Scandinavian ghetto. Eleanora was born when Anna was 45. "Nora" was her parents'last child and took care of her mother, who lived downstairs in the same house for the rest of her life. Louis Johnson worked in northern Minnesota as a cook for the lumberjacks. Later in life, he was a nightwatchman for the Pillsbury Co., dying of Alzheimers.

Anna Karlotta played an important role in bringing up her granddaughter June, and died shortly after her great-granddaughter, Pamela King, was born. [Pamela still has two spinning wheels, one of which is the original wheel brought to the US from Sweden.]

Eleanor Hermsted, June's mother, was known as "Nora". She was a well-known singer in the Swedish Convenant church in Minneapolis, who thoroughly enjoyed her role in that milieu. Because of her more public persona, she enjoyed a family reputation as being a lover of shoes and jewellry, being remembered after her death as the woman who came to rural Wisconsin to visit her husband's relatives wearing red shoes. Nora quit Edison school in Minneapolis after eighth grade to work at a pickle factory. Later in life, she worked in cafes in northeast Minnneapolis where her friends would come in to eat. Towards the end of herlife, she worked in the Union Home for the Elderly, beloved for her singing and her ability to speak Swedish to those who had forgotten English. Nora died at age 81 in a Minneapolis nursing home of cardiac insufficiency about 1974.

Insert here

Nora met Leif Hermstad in a skating rink in 1916. Since he was Norwegian, not Swedish, this was an element that apparently was considered before the marriage. Their common interest seemed to focus on their mutual interest in the church (Svenska Tabernaklet).

Leif Hermstad was one of many children of the Hermstand family who emigrated from the Trondheim region of Norway. Leif's father married a woman with the last name of Sand. Leif worked for many years as the traffic manager for the Pillsbury Company in Minneapolis. The majority of the Hermstad relatives live and farm in the area of Luck, Wisconsin. He died at home at age 62 either of cardiac insufficiency or stroke.

HUSBAND - Herbert Cobb STEBBINS-3604

Doc: US Census 1910 & 1920 (see below); Denver City Directories for 1910, 1911, 1912, 1941 (see below); Colorado Genealogist; obituary

His grandparents were H.Herbert Stebbins & Clara Hardy. His grandfather was b. in Grand Rapids, Michigan, 26 Aug 1848. He entered the army 30 Aug 1862, when he was 15 years old, as a musician in the 1st Mich Eng. & Mech Reg. He was taken prisoner on 14 Sept 1862 at Munfordsville, Tennessee, paroled, sent to Camp Chase, Ohio & discharged later that year. He worked in Michigan, primarily in the drug busunes & railroading until he moved to Colorado. His grandmother was the daughter of Nelson Hardy, also of Grand Rapids, Michigan. H. Herbert, his brother Fred L., & possibly their father, all moved to Clear Creek, Golden, Boulder Valleys, in Colorado in 1872, where they started a drug business & H. Herbert was also a railroad ticket & freight agent. In 1879-80 he started a drug business in Black Hawk, Gilpin Co, CO, where he remained. [Source: History of Clear Creek & Boulder Valley, Colorado, 978.8 H2b. FHL, SLC--see file]

His parents were Herbert Franklin and Mary (Cobb) Stebbins. He states in 1920 census that they were both b. in CO. The HISTORY OF CLEAR CREEK & BOULDER VALLEY, COLORADOhas an extensive bio sketch on H.Herbert Stebbins, his grandfather.(See file). His father died in Denver November 3, 1950 at the age of 80. His residence at time of death was 4275 Knox Court. He was buried at Riverside Cemetery. His obituary states he was a Colorado redident for 78 years, a Denver resident 60 years. He moved to Denver from Blackhawk, Co. He was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan. He was educated in Denver. In 1921 he formed theinsurance firm Cobb & Stebbins, from which he rertired in 1940. He married Mary Cobb in 1891, and was survuved by her & 4 sons: Herbert C., Eugene B., Leonard, & Raymond H.; also his sister, Mrs, Hunter Henderson of Tampa.

On his mother's side, the family were also early Denver residents. At the time of her birth in 1873, her parents' home was at 14th & Curtis Streets, where the City Auditorium now stands. Her grandfather, Dr. Richard Buckingham, was one of Colorado's first doctors and a former Denver mayor. Mary Cobb Stebbins died at home in 1967 at the age of 94. Her funeral service was held at Olinger Mortuary and she was buried with her husband at Riverside Cemetery. She was survived by 3 sons: Herbert, Eugene B., who also lived in Denver, and Raymond H., of Lakewood.

The first trace of Herbert in Denver is in the 1910 Denver City Directory (MF1611472): Stebbins, Herbert C., clk Natl Surety Co of NY, r 1900 24th Ave.

In the directory of 1911: Stebbins, Herbert C., clk CD Cobb & Co, r 1900 24th Ave. Cobb, CD & Co (CD & Clarence Cobb) fire insurance & loans, 1046 Gas & Electric Bldg. In 1912: Stebbins, Herbert Cobb, examiner C.D.Cobb & Co; r 2244 Grape [Note: Clarence Cobb's residence in 1911 was the Denver Athletic Club. In 1912 Herbert has the same residential address as the Coombes.]

WIFE Lucy Hannah COOMBE-447 Yr of Birth 1892

Ellen, Grandmother, 80, Wid., are all living together.

In the directory of 1941, we find: Stebbins, Herbert Cobb (Lucy H.) (Cobb & Stebbins) gen'l ins 1010 Gas & Elec Bldg, h. 1785 Glencoe

In the Denver City Directory of 1947 (all dir. found in FHL at SLC--no tothers there), listed is: Stebbins, Herbert Cobb (Lucy H) (Cobb & Stebbins), Gen'l Insurance, 1010 Gas & Electric Bldg., h. Hillcroft, 2901 S Federal Blvd.

He was the owner-manager of the insurance firm of Cobb and Stebbins; president & treasurer of the American Association of Insurance general Agents; a Director of the Denver Chamber of Commerce, and a member of the Denver Athletic Club, the Aviation Club, the Denver Club and St' John's Episcopal Cathedral.

The Stebbins lived in a large estate at 2901 So.Federal Road in Denver until they both died in the same year.They apparently had a living will arragement with the Loretto order, which took possession of the property around 1974. The house was torn down and the property is now part of the campus of Teiko Loretto University.

Herbert developed Parkinson's disease and was in a nursing home until April 1971, when he wasadmitted to St. Anthony's Hospital for treatment with LDopa, a new treatment for Parkinsons. The treatment reslted in intervals when he was not lucid and when his wife suddenly died on April 19 he was not able to attend her funeral. The treatment continued, with apparently some improvement until about June 1, 1971, when he was transferred to Beth Israel Hospital until he was discharged to his home and the custody of his daughter on June 18. On the morning of June 20 he went into a coma. He was taken to St. Anthony's Hospital where he died on June 22, 1971.

Burial: His services and entombment were held at the Fairmount Mausoleum. He was survived by his daughter Linda, his brother Eugene and his two grandchildren. He left an estate of several hundred thousand dollars.

WIFE - Lucy Hannah COOMBE-447

Doc: Birth Rec Pipestone Co 1-212-1. Record states she was b. in the "village of Jasper", Fa Levi W., b. Wis; Mo Nora b. Minn.

She was named for her maternal great-aunt, Lucy Hannah King

According to her obituary she moved to Colorado with her parents when she was 5 years old, which would have been in 1900. [It is not certain just when they moved, but they were not in the 1900 census in Minnesota. The first certain date related to their move to Colorado is in the Denver City Directory for 1909

1910 US Census for Denver shows her living with her parents & her grandmother, 18 years old, not employed. Her obituary states that she attended "old East High School."

Her husband moved into the apartment building where she was living with her parents some time before 1912 (doc. in Denver City Dir. of that year) & it seems likely that is how they met.

HUSBAND Herbert Cobb STEBBINS-3604 Yr of Birth 1893
WIFE Lucy Hannah COOMBE-447 Yr of Birth 1892

Marriage: Book 2400 Denver Marriage Certificates. Record Room, County Clerk, Denver County Courthouse. "I, Dana C. Colegrove, a minister residing at Denver, married the 11th of April 1912 Herbert C. Stebbins and Lucy H. Coombe in the presence of Clarence Cobb & M.N. Yardley." Signed in the presence of Elizabeth L. Kerr

1920 US Census for CO., Denver Co.,Denver City, lists her as wife of Herbert Stebbins, age 27, b. Minnesota, Mo & Fa both b. Wisconsin. [But her mother was born in Minnesota)

She was a former president of the Altar Guild of St. Thomas Episcopal Church.

Death/Burial: According to her will, she died at her home of a sudden severe heart attack. Her husband was seriously ill in the hospital at that time & was unable to attend her funeral. The funeral service was held at the Olinger Mortuary, Magnolia Street and she was entombed in Fairmount Mausoleum.

CHILD 1 - Linda Lee STEBBINS-3605

Doc: Family rec.

According to family rec. of Elwood Branfort she was adopted.

Bob King (of Omaha) visited her & her parents in about 1945 when he was a student at Univ Colorado in Boulder.

She apparently had two marriages. Her children have the name Venzke, and she went by the name of Linda Fasano in her last years. Nothing more is known at present of either husband.

At the time of her parents' death she had been living in San Antonio, Texas, and her son was enrolled at Texas Military Institute there. In 1971 she returned temporarily to Denver, possibly to care for her parents and settle their estate. Her address in January 1972 was 3310 John Glenn, San Antonio, TX 78217. In September of 1972 she was back in Denver, seriously ill and seeking medical treatment. According to her medical records in the probate file, she was diagnosed with Scleroderma, a "disease of the skin characterized by thickening and hardening of the living tissue." She also needed to have a tumor removed and was hospitalized at Mercy Hospital from 9/30/72 to 10/5/72 for "extensive tests" under the care of Dr. Marshall Freedman of Physician Associates, P.C.

At that time and through the folowing year she was petitioning for funds to be released from her father's estate, then under probate review. The estate was sizable (upwards of $300,000) but she seemed to have difficulty accessing any funds above the monthly allowance granted her. The petition states that because of her phyical condition "she is not presently able to work" and was "soley dependent on the deceased for her support and maintenance."

A letter from Elwood Branfort 17 Apr 1997 recounts correspondence he had with her in 1978, at which time her address was: Linda Fasano, Rt. 2, Box 178, Pine, CO 80470. She said then that her mother had a family bible & other records, & that they were in her possession. She spoke of a plan to visit the branforts in Clay Center (she had once before) but the trip did not materialize and they did not hear from her again. The Branforts had no indication that her physical health was poor, but thought she might be experiencing some psychological instability.

Death: Colorado vital records are extremely difficult to obtain. However we did discover her death in the Social Security Index in the Denver Public Library, which gave the following information: SS#523-32-8591 Linda Fasano b 8 May 1927 d 10 Apr 1989 Res @ death Colorado 80919 (Zip) Death benefit sent to Colo Springs, CO 80919(death residence location); Pine, Jefferson CO 80470 (Death benefit location).

HUSBAND - Charles Evans "Corm" CORMANY-3600

Doc: Family rec., Probate rec., Obituary

Parents were Luther G. & Emma G.(Pattison) Cormany.

Apparently universally called "Corm".

Education: Graduated New Mexico Agricultural College and Cornell University.

Occupation: Chief agronomist for Holly Sugar Corp. from 1936 to 1962. He chose Sheridan as his headquarters, which evolved into the present Holly Sugar plant.

During World War I, he was in the Agricultural Extension Program and helped develop a food-production program in New Mexico.

They moved to Bogota, Columbia, in 1928, the year after they were married when the president of Columbia asked Corm to establish an agriculture research station. He also made plans for a college at Bogota. They were asked to remain in Bogota, but returned to the U.S. to raise their family.

Marriage: Wal Co
Vol 2408

In World War II, he served on several national & international committees working on labor saving agricultural machinery.

Well known authority on agricultural research. Responsible for locating the Holly Sugar beet-seed processing plant and the Gremains, Inc., seed-pelleting plant in Sheridan, Wyoming.

Among his memberships & other positions: Asst. Professor in Farm Crops, Michigan State College(1920-28); Assoc. Agronomist U.S.Dept Agriculture(1929-35); Board member First Federal Savings & Loan Ass'n.(1962-84); Dir. & Pres. Beet Sugar Development Foundation; charter member & Pres. American Society of Sugar Beet Technologists; American Society of Agronomy; Masonic Lodge No.8, Phi Sigma; Acacia; Rotary, Elks, AARP; Presbyterian Church; & The Congressional Club. Appeared in "Who's Who in America(1954)".

He & Lillian lived in Sheridan many years, first at 622 So. Thurmond, then from 1939-1960 at 375 Kilbourne (both houses remain, just around the corner from each other); in 1960 the moved to the very small town of Story, where they had probably earlier had a summer home. They lived there until 1970. The probate files contain several property deeds and the right granted them for the use of two tributaries of North Piney Creek,a tributary of Piney Creek. The two springs were named Cormany Spring & Lillian Spring, obviously both named by them. The use was limited to irrigation & domestic use.

Upon retirement he & his wife moved to a small home at 342 1/2 W. Louck St., a residential street close to the center of Sheridan. He remained active in town affairs and was considered to be a thoughtful, helpful citizen. Karen Woinoski, the librarian in the Wyoming Room of the public library, recalled with fondness how he would always present her father with tomato plants in the spring, to ensure a good crop. After his wife's death in 1977 he remained in Sheridan until 1984, when he moved to Denver to live near or with his son David.

Current address: Carol McCrady Kooman, 303 Sylvan Drive, Enterprise, AL 36330

CHILD 1 - Patrice Michelle MCCRADY-2907

Doc: Paternal grandmother Kittie McCrady

Called "Michelle"

Born when her father was attending helicopter school. Lived with her mother in Enterprise, Alabama, after her parents' divorce. Attended college.

Frequently visits her grandmother in Minnesota.

Writes poetry.

Married, according to Christmas letter from her uncle, Kit McCrady, "in Ann Arbor, Michigan, at an art show. The wedding made the front page of the Ann Arbor paper." Michelle's mother, Carol, is an artist who exhibits her work at art shows, which may explain the setting for the wedding.

CHILD 2 - Edien Meredith MCCRADY-2908

Doc: Paternal grandmother

Lived with her mother in Enterprise, Alabama, after her parents' divorce. Attended high school there. Played basketball. Planned to start college in fall of 1993, possibly to study nursing.

Killed in a tragic accident. Letter from her uncle, Kit McCrady, describes it as follows," On September 21, 1993, Mom's granddaughter and my niece, Edien Meredith McCrady, was killed in Enterprise, Alabama. There was a hostage situation and when Edien, the robber, and another girl hostage reached the parking lot [she was working in a department store, where she had been taken hostage], a police officer fired at the robber and missed, killing Edien. The robber was then killed."

He further wrote " Edien was known for looking after the underdog, had strength in character and yet had a softness in her. A ten year old boy caused smiles at the wake, when he told about how he had misbehaved and Edien had put him in the dust bin box until he 'shaped up'. The rival high school sent flowers. Some young people had a 48 hour vigil at the place where Edien fell. Edien had made quite a transition over the summer. She was working at Beall's (a clothing store), did $950 worth of business the first day and had been offered a permanent job. She had enrolled in Ellsworth Junior College to finish high school and go into nursing. She was 18 years and one month old. She will be remembered and missed."

CHILD 1 - Soren Ingram FANNING-327
Doc: Pamela King

Soren was born in Jackson, Mississippi, at the Baptist Hospital. He left two weeks later with his mother and father, moving to Minneapolis where his father worked on his PhD program in medieval history at the Univ. of Minnesota.

He lived in Minneapolis for five years, during which time his sister, Nissa, was born. The family moved in 1979 for a year to Knoxville, TN, where his father had a one-year appointment to teach at Univ. of Tenn. The family then moved to Chicago, IL, where the father had a permanent appointment to the history faculty at the Univ. of Illinois.

Soren's parents were divorced when he was eight. His father gave sole custody of the children to his mother, and the children went to live with her.

At sixteen, Soren asked that his parents have joint custody of him, a matter which was resolved through court action.

Soren won a prize for writing in eighth grade offered by NOW, the National Organization for Women. At high school graduation, he won a humanitarian award.

After high school, he enlisted in the Navy for training as a nuclear engineering. Hating bootcamp and deciding that being a killer wasn't necessarily in his worldview, Soren "failed" bootcamp and came home.

Education: BA in history from the Univ. of Illinois with honors in three years. In the fall of 1996, Soren began graduate work towards a master's in teaching at Univ. of Illinois.

Marriage: In May before his twenty-first birthday, he married Maria Belinda Chan from Manilla, Philippines, whom he had met in Russian class.

CHILD 2 - Nissa Synnove FANNING-1115
Doc: Pamela King

Nissa Synnove was born at the Univ. of Minnesota hospital via pitocin-induced childbirth. She immediately caught a viral infection and was sick for a few days with rapid breathing. She went home with her mom after about a 4 or 5 day hospital stay.

Nissa's name was chosen for its beauty, just like the girl herself.

Born when her brother Soren was 4-1/2 years old, she lived in Minneapolis with her family until 1-1/2, moving to Tennessee for a year and then permanently to Chicago.

Nissa played sports from first grade, starting with softball in elementary school, adding soccer in junior high, and finally joining the state championship field hockey team in high school. That team were the state champions all years during which Nissa played on it, except for her senior year when the team missed the championship by one goal! Field hockey taught Nissa a great deal about self-discipline, teamwork and the great rewards that come from working together. Nissa received "Volunteer of the Year" award on graduation.

After graduation, Nissa went for a month's unstructured tour of Europe with a friend, Elizabeth Paris.

Education: Started her freshman year at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in the fall of 1996, planning a business major in financial investments. investments.

HUSBAND - VENZKE-6413
Doc: Family rec.

Nothing is known of this person except thae children who bear his name

WIFE - Linda Lee STEBBINS-3605
Doc: Family rec.

According to family rec. of Elwood Branfort she was adopted.

Bob King (of Omaha) visited her & her parents in about 1945 when he was a student at Univ Colorado in Boulder.

She apparently had two marriages. Her children have the name Venzke, and she went by the name of Linda Fasano in her last years. Nothing more is known at present of either husband.

At the time of her parents' death she had been living in San Antonio, Texas, and her son was enrolled at Texas Military Institute there. In 1971 she returned temporarily to Denver, possibly to care for her parents and settle their estate. Her address in January 1972 was 3310 John Glenn, San Antonio, TX 78217. In September of 1972 she was back in Denver, seriously ill and seeking medical treatment. According to her medical records in the probate file, she was diagnosed with Scleroderma, a "disease of the skin characterized by thickening and hardening of the living tissue." She also needed to have a tumor removed and was hospitalized at Mercy Hospital from 9/30/72 to 10/5/72 for "extensive tests" under the care of Dr. Marshall Freedman of Physician Associates, P.C.

At that time and through the folowing year she was petitioning for funds to be released from her father's estate, then under probate review. The estate was sizable (upwards of $300,000) but she seemed to have difficulty accessing any funds above the monthly allowance granted her. The petition states that because of her phyical condition "she is not presently able to work" and was "soley dependent on the deceased for her support and maintenance."

A letter from Elwood Branfort 17 Apr 1997 recounts correspondence he had with her in 1978, at which time her address was: Linda Fasano, Rt. 2, Box 178, Pine, CO 80470. She said then that her mother had a family bible & other records, & that they were in her possession. She spoke of a plan to visit the branforts in Clay Center (she had once before) but the trip did not materialize and they did not hear from her again. The Branforts had no indication that her physical health was poor, but thought she might be experiencing some psychological instability.

Death: Colorado vital records are extremely difficult to obtain. However we did discover her death in the Social Security Index in the Denver Public Library, which gave the following information: SS#523-32-8591 Linda Fasano b 8 May 1927 d 10 Apr 1989 Res @ death Colorado 80919 (Zip) Death benefit sent to Colo Springs, CO 80919(death residence location); Pine, Jefferson CO 80470 (Death benefit location).

The dug-out in Jackson county is located near the Des Moines river. This is where pioneers stopped to rest. A mail carrier named Hoxie Rathban, sought shelter here during a severe storm in December 1856. He was unable to start a fire. When he was found, he was dying, unable to speak and badly frozen. From a letter addressed in Sioux City, Iowa dated December 6, it was estimated he had been out in the weather for twenty days.

The Holthe Cabin was used as a stopping point for fur traders coming from Lake Shetek in route to Des Moines and east.

Langeland Memorial is dedicated to Mrs. Knud Langeland & 4 children that were killed in the massacre of 1862.

The Slaabaken cemetery is the burial place for many of our pioneer settlers.

The Stall Church was built in 1887 on property donated by Hans Stall. The church belonged to the Evangelical Lutheran Synod. The church was blown off the foundation in 1981. It was then purchased by the Historical Society and moved to the fair grounds in 1985. You can visit the church while you are at the fair this summer.

The location of Fort Belmont was in Belmont township, when the county was first settled. The marker is placed at the original site. If you have time please sign the guest book.

Notes

He was born at Adams, LaGrange Township, Walworth County, Wisconsin Territory, the ninth and last child born to his parents. He grew up there, attending school and helping his father on the farm. He seems to have been in frail health all his life, more so after his war service.

War Service: Pvt. Co C, 3rd Reg., Wis. Cavalry. Enlisted 26 Aug 1864 at Elkhorn, Walworth Co., Wis. Mustered in Aug 31, 1864, Madison, Wis. Volunteered for 1 year. Age 18 yr. 6 mo. His father had to sign a Consent for Minor form (See file for copy). Description: hazel eyes, brown hair, fair complexion, 5 ft. 6& 1/2 in. tall. Occupation farmer, 18 yr. 6 mo.. Served in Barstow's Cavalry. Mustered out under provision of Circular #83 at St. Louis, Mo., June Remarks: 19, 1865. "Recruit original Co.E Pvt. from enlistment. Stop for 1 watering bridle 92 c, 1 nose bag $1.50. M.O. in compliance with G.O. No. 83 A.G.O. War Dept. dated May 8, 1865". He was discharged at Benton Barracks, St. Louis, MO, 19 June 1865.

According to his pension file, his life long disability started with diarrhea that he began to suffer on a march from Little Rock to Van Buren, Ark., in the fall of 1864. He was taken to a hospital in Van Buren. ALPK in a letter to William [her husband/his brother] dated Oct 31st 1864, wrote ".....Albert is sick with the Ague. He is in the hospital at Van Buren Ark."

In his deposition Albert swore his trouble was caused by exposure and poor rations while on the march from Little Rock to Fort Smith, Ark. He stated that he was a farmer before entering service and after that until 1878 "when I was in a wagon factory. I could not do more than half a man's work...."

A deposition by a fellow soldier from his reg't, Byron Hughes of Minn., attests to how deathly ill Albert was. Mitchell Barney, his brother-in-law, and his sister Eliza King Barney also made depositions for him.

In 1866 he migrated to Jackson--Wisconsin Township--with the rest of the Kings & helped settle it. He was frequently mentioned in ALPK journals.

He took out a homestead near his Brother William and farmed in Wisconsin Twp. for several years. Possibly discouraged by the grasshopper plague when crops were repeatedly destroyed, he turned his attention to stock raising in 1875. According to the Jackson REPUBLIC, he and his brother Robert "wintered about 60 head of cattle in Wisconsin Twp." In 1876 another REPUBLIC article states he & Robert sold their cattle & moved to Texas. A third article later that same year relates the following: "W.V.King has received from his brothers in Texas one of the products of that country, it being no less than a genuine tarantula, a sort of two-story,double-turreted, big, boss, ugly looking spider. If that is the kind of pets Bob and Al are harboring down there we should advise them to come back and take chances with the grasshoppers."

On July 14, 1879, three years after moving to Lawrence, Lona died there. In a heart breaking letter to Antoinette, he described Lona's death and his inability to bury her there, hence his decision to bring her body back "home" to Wisconsin for burial. He then left his 11 year old daughter Minnie Belle with family in Wisconsin while he returned to Texas; (also see pension materials in file and affadavit from daughter pg 13, dwelling #91, Family #107: King, Albert, white, 35, widowed, Boarder in house with Edgar Hazard. Both born Wisconsin. This may have been where he met Alice LaRoe, his second wife. A deposition in Albert's file from her brother Daniel states that Albert lived in his family's rooming house.[See file.]
